

Plain Language Summary

CURRENT INTRODUCTION NUMBER:

Int. No. 586

INITIAL SPONSORS:

Council Member Espinal

TITLE:

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to signs, posters or placards that advertise gas prices.

BILL SUMMARY:

This plain language summary is for informational purposes only and does not substitute for legal counsel. For more information, you should review the full text of the bill, which is available online at legistar.council.nyc.gov.

This bill would amend the requirements for gas station road signs that advertise the price of gasoline to consumers. The bill would require gas stations that sell gasoline at a lower price for purchases made in cash or other specific form of payment to clearly disclose that the advertised price is available only for purchases made in cash or such other specific forms of payment. The bill would also set a minimum size for gas station road signs.

CODE SECTIONS AFFECTED:

- Amends Administrative Code § 20-672(b)

EFFECTIVE DATE:

120 days upon enactment.

NOTE: When reading the full text of the bill online at legistar.council.nyc.gov, language that is enclosed by [brackets] is proposed to be removed, and language that is underlined is proposed to be added.