Int. No. 1266

By Council Members Greenfield, Miller, Richards and Espinal

A Local Law to amend the New York city building code, in relation to prohibiting the use of plywood to secure vacant and abandoned buildings

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Article 216.1.2 of title 28 of chapter 2 of the New York city construction code is amended to read as follows:

Vacant buildings. Any vacant building not continuously guarded or not sealed and kept secure against unauthorized entry shall have all openings sealed in a manner approved by the commissioner, but the use of plywood shall be prohibited in sealing such openings. [and] [i]It shall be the duty of the owner thereof promptly to make any repairs that may be necessary for the purpose of keeping such building sealed and secure.

§ 2. This local law takes effect immediately.
