Res. No. 1623

Resolution calling on the state legislature to pass and the Governor to sign, A.7193 and S. 5634, which would amend the retirement and social security law to automatically enroll "optional employees" in the New York City Board of Education Retirement System (BERS) after 90 days of employment unless the employee affirmatively opts out of the program in advance

By Council Members Miller and Gentile

Whereas, Public-sector employees comprise a significant portion of New York City's workforce; and

Whereas, According to a report from the Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS), the City of New York employs approximately 363,000 people, or 8.2 percent of the city's total workforce, as estimated by the Bureau of Labor Statistics; and

Whereas, DCAS also found that roughly 37,000, or 10 percent of city government employees, are part-time or temporary employees, and that 29 percent of all City employees, or roughly 105,000 people, are eligible to retire within the next five years; and

Whereas, Currently, part-time and temporary employees, as well as those who are not required to take civil service exams, are allowed optional enrollment in the Board of Education Retirement System (BERS), which, according to the office of the Comptroller, holds over $4 billion in assets; and

Whereas, Part-time City employees have been eligible for pension benefits since 1988, when the State Court of Appeals ruled in their favor in a 7-0 decision; and

Whereas, Pension enrollment is optional; and

Whereas, According to the New York Legislative Bill Drafting Commission (LBDC), only 72 percent of eligible employees join BERS; and

Whereas, Furthermore, the LBDC has reported that 73 percent of those who have not elected to enroll are women, with an average salary of approximately $25,500; and

Whereas, A simple lack of awareness can mean that a committed City employee can lose access to years of benefits to which he or she is entitled; and

Whereas, There is currently legislation in both the New York State Assembly and the New York State Senate that would address this issue; and

Whereas, A. 7193C and its companion, S. 5634B, would amend the retirement and social security law by automatically enrolling new employees in the pension system 90 days after beginning employment; and

Whereas, The proposed legislation would also allow employees to either opt-in immediately or opt-out in accordance with their wishes; and

Whereas, These bills have won the support of District Council 37, New York City's largest public employee union, which represents 125,000 members and 50,000 retirees, and

Whereas, Most importantly, however this measure would ensure that City employees can obtain the pension benefits that they have earned; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls on the state legislature to pass and the Governor to sign, A.7193 and S. 5634, which would amend the retirement and social security law to automatically enroll “optional employees” in to the New York City Board of Education Retirement System (BERS) after 90 days of employment unless the employee affirmatively opts out of the program in advance
