Int. No. 874

By Council Members Miller and Richards

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to commuter vans.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision j of section 19-504.2 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:

j. (i) No application for authorization to operate a commuter van service shall be approved if the applicant has been found guilty of operating a commuter van service without authorization to operate such commuter van service two times within a six-month period prior to the date of application, provided that such violations were committed on or after the date occurring six months after the effective date of this subdivision.

(ii) No application for authorization to operate a commuter van service shall be approved or renewed if the applicant fails to produce records that show that there are, at a minimum, the same number of licensed commuter van drivers employed by the company as there are registered commuter vans affiliated with such commuter van service.

§ 2. This local law takes effect 120 days after it becomes law.
