

BUDGET DISCLOSURES related to the November 17, 2010 Transparency Resolution

The following disclosures were made by Council Members pursuant to City conflicts of interest rules. The disclosures were required if the Member, or anyone with whom the Member was associated, was involved with a group for which the Member sought funding. Certain involvements, however, do not require disclosure, including board memberships without a vote (usually, ex officio or honorary), advisory board memberships, non-policy making volunteer positions, and ordinary memberships in organizations.

Disclosures

Council Member Elizabeth Crowley disclosed that her son plays on a sports team at Sacred hart School. In accordance with the Fiscal 2011 Expense Budget, this organization will receive $3,200 in Council discretionary funding, pending completion of pre-qualification review.

Council Member Mark Weprin disclosed that his sister in law works at Queensboro Community College. In accordance with the Fiscal 2011 Expense Budget, this organization will receive $79,000 in Council discretionary funding, pending completion of pre-qualification review.

Council Member Helen Foster disclosed that her father is the Senior Pastor at Christ Church. In accordance with the Fiscal 2011 Expense Budget, this organization will receive $79,000 in Council discretionary funding, pending completion of pre-qualification review.