INVOCATION

The Invocation was delivered by His Eminence Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan, Archbishop of New York, 1011 First Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10022.

Our prayers for your guidance,
Dear God and Father of us all,
are the more fervent today
as we are united with our Jewish neighbors
during their holy days
as we sense the change in nature, with autumn arriving reminding us of that cycle of life and death
over which your providence is sovereign, and as we prepared to welcome Pope Francis to this city we love and which we are grateful to call our earthly home.
I would ask you humbly to inspire
this distinguished body of elected civic leaders as they tend to the sacred tasks of promoting and protecting the common good.
Might the upcoming visit of the Holy Father remind us of the eternal values
he so prophetically preaches, values embedded in the very fabric
of our country and our beloved city,
a respect for the dignity of the human person,
and the sacredness of human life.
With special compassion for those forgotten,
excluded or marginalized in any way,
suffering, unfairly judged or ill-treated.

We make our own the prayer of the Jewish psalmist,
"God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.
Therefore, we will not fear
though the earth should change.
There is a river whose streams
make glad the City of God,
the Holy Habitation of the Most High.
God is in the midst of His city.
It shall not be moved.
May the better angels of our nature triumph and be reaffirmed in these revered chambers, you who live and reign forever and ever.
Amen.

On behalf of Council Member Lancman, the Public Advocate (Ms. James) moved to spread the Invocation in full upon the Record.

During the Communication from the Speaker segment of this Meeting, the Speaker (Council Member Mark-Viverito) asked for a Moment of Silence in memory of the following individuals:

Former Queens Council Member Al Stabile died on August 29, 2015 at the age of 68. Council Member Stabile, a Vietnam War veteran, served in the Council from 1994 to 2001 and represented the district now served by Council Member Eric Ulrich. He is survived by his daughter, Connie, and two grandchildren.

Idrissa Camara, 53, was a security guard who was killed in an August 21, 2015 shooting at a nearby Federal building in lower Manhattan. The Speaker (Council Member Mark-Viverito) reminded those assembled of the risks that the city's dedicated security officers take every day in helping to keep New Yorkers safe. She offered her thoughts and prayers to the Camara family.

Report for Int. No. 850-A

Report of the Committee on Environmental Protection in favor of approving and adopting, as amended, a Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the use of air conditioning systems.

The Committee on Environmental Protection, to which the annexed amended proposed local law was referred on July 23, 2015 (Minutes, page 2941), respectfully

REPORTS:

Introduction

On September 16, 2015, the Committee on Environmental Protection, chaired by Council Member Costa Constantinides, will hold a vote on Proposed Int. No. 850-A-2015, A Local Law to amend the Administrative Code of the city of New York, in relation to the use of air conditioning systems. The Committee previously held a hearing on this bill on September 8, 2015.

Background

In the summer of 1882, workers at the Edison Electric Illuminating Company for the first time threw the switches on a set of generators at a power station in Lower Manhattan, lighting 800 lamps in a 50-square block area of the Financial District, establishing the world's first centralized electric generation and distribution system.¹ Today, New York City's electrical grid serves more than 3 million customers, including 250,000 businesses and 8.3 million people. These customers consume about 1.4% of all electricity produced in the country, and the grid holds peak loads of over 11,000 megawatts (MW) - twice as much as the next largest city, Los Angeles.²

There are 24 electricity generating power plants located within or directly connected to New York City. These plants have the capacity to generate more than 10,000 MW of power, enough to meet 86% of the city's peak demand ("peak demand" is the highest level of electricity demanded by customers). However, ordinarily, only a limited number of these "in-city" power plants operate because roughly 50% of the city's power needs are usually met by cheaper sources of electricity imported from Upstate New York and New Jersey. In other words, for most of the year roughly half of the city's electricity needs are met by the most-efficient in-city power plants and half of the needs are met by out-of-city sources of electricity. The full fleet of in-city power plants operates only during periods of peak demand, which typically occur during summer heat waves when temperatures rise and air conditioner usage soars.

The in-city power plants are fueled mainly by natural gas, with many also having the ability to burn fuel oil. These plants are all located along the waterfront with more than half concentrated in Astoria and Long Island City, Queens. Most of the in-city plants are over 40 years old and are equipped with technology that has a lower efficiency and larger air emissions impact than modern plants.³ According to testimony presented by the Mayor's Office of Long Term Planning and Sustainability to the City Council in 2008, during periods of peak demand, the electrical grid is strained and the oldest, least efficient in-city power plants must operate in order to meet the city's power demand. Compared to newer plants, the older plants require 30% to 60% more fuel, making them more expensive to run (for example, in 2008 dollars, it cost $74 to produce 1 MW from a newer power plant compared to $250 to produce 1 MW from the oldest power plant). Additionally, the oldest power plants release 140% more carbon dioxide and several times more air pollutants than newer plants.⁴

In 2013, the New York Independent System Operator forecasted that energy demand in the city would grow at a rate of .49% annually for the next decade. While the growth of total energy consumption is projected to remain slow, growth in peak demand has grown at a more significant rate of 1.1% annually.⁵ This means, the amount of electricity that the city requires during summer peak periods is greater each year. Additionally, as global climate change progresses, summers are projected to get hotter, which will further increase demand for air conditioning and growth in peak demand can be expected to continue.⁶ The New York City Panel on Climate Change (NYCPCC) projects that by the 2050s heat waves are likely to increase in frequency, intensity and duration.⁷ NYCPCC projections indicate that the city may experience 3 to 4 heat waves per year by the 2020s and 5 to 7 heat waves per year by the 2050s, an increase from today's average of 2.

Heat waves impact the city's electrical grid more frequently than any other type of weather event. In 2006, for example a heat wave triggered an electrical outage in Long Island City resulting in the loss of power to over 100,000 customers, some for over a week.⁸ Heat waves cause issues for the electrical grid in two ways. First, the very temperatures that occur during a heat wave strain electricity generating and distribution equipment, itself. Second, heat waves lead to a sizeable increase in air conditioner usage and thus a jump in electricity demand.⁹ These issues can lead to the failure of electrical grid equipment and, in severe cases, cascading disturbances across the grid system.

Commercial, residential, institutional and industrial buildings account for up to 94% of the electricity consumed by the city. The use of electricity in buildings not only impacts the reliability of the electrical grid and the cost of electricity in the city, it also impacts the environment. The city's more than one million buildings are responsible for approximately 70% of citywide greenhouse gas emissions, and approximately 47% of emissions from buildings are attributable to electricity consumption.¹⁰ Of total emissions generated by the building sector, residential buildings account for 48%, commercial buildings 29%, industrial buildings 11%, and institutional buildings account for 12%.¹¹ Of emissions from the city's commercial buildings – the category of buildings that Proposed Int. No. 850-A addresses – 58% are due to electricity consumption,¹² to power things like lighting, mechanical equipment, air conditioners and plug loads.

Local Law 38 of 2008

In 2008 – subsequent to a significant heat-wave-induced power outage in 2006¹³ and amid reports^{14,15} that it was common practice for commercial establishments and businesses to leave doors open on hot days allowing their air conditioned environment to escape onto the sidewalk in an attempt to lure in pedestrians – the City Council passed and Mayor Michael Bloomberg signed Local Law 38 of 2008. Local Law 38 prohibits commercial establishments from leaving their doors open while air conditioners or central cooling systems are on. The law currently applies to all commercial buildings and all retail stores, except those that occupy less than four thousand square feet of retail or wholesale space, unless the small store is a chain store (defined as five or more stores located within New York that engage in the same general field of business). Violators of this law are subject to written warnings for a first violation, a civil penalty of $200 for a second violation, and $400 per subsequent violation. When it was passed, the stated intent of this legislation was to conserve energy, reduce peak power demands during periods of hot weather and limit environmental pollution and local contributions to global climate change.¹⁶

The City's Department of Consumer Affairs (DCA) is responsible for enforcing Local Law 38. In 2009, DCA issued its first written warnings to violators of the law and in 2010 DCA imposed its first civil penalties.¹⁷ However, in 2015, press reports have suggested that some businesses in the city are flagrantly violating this law - some while emphasizing their business' environmental consciousness in marketing tools - and that the city has issued few financial penalties for such violations. According to one news report, which cites DCA data, between 2009 and 2014 the city issued 489 warnings and 32 fines to violators of Local Law 38.¹⁸ According to data available on the city's Open Data Portal, between 2010 and the present the city has issued 50 violations to businesses for having an "exterior door open while AC or central cooling system is in operation." All of the penalties imposed were for $200 each (indicating that these cases were repeat violators), except for one $400 penalty imposed. All violations over the course of these years were issued on a total of 19 different days.¹⁹ Recently, DCA has launched a "Shut the Front Door Campaign" to coordinate public education and outreach letting store owners know they must shut their doors while air conditioners or central cooling systems are on.²⁰

Summary of Proposed Int. No. 850-A-2015

Proposed Int. No. 850-A-2015 amends Section 20-910 of the administrative code of the city of New York, amending the definitions section to make the style more consistent. The bill also amends the definitions section by adding a definition for the term "Window", deleting the definition of "Small store" and deleting language from the definition of "commercial building or structure" such that small stores will no longer be exempt from this law. The bill amends Section 20-910 such that, in addition to "doors", persons shall be prohibited from having any "window" open while operating an air conditioner or central cooling system, with few exceptions. The bill amends subdivision d to allow notices of violations to be returned to any adjudicating tribunal authorized by the department. The bill amends subdivision e so that prior to June 1, 2016 any person who violated this law will be liable for an increased penalty of $250 per second violation, $500 for a third violation and any subsequent violations, and $500 for a second violation and $1000 for a third and any subsequent violations when the violation occurs at a store that is part of a chain of

RE: Finance Committee Agenda of September 17, 2015 – Resolution approving a tax exemption for one Land Use Item (Council District 15)

Tremont Renaissance

Tremont Renaissance will consist of 1 building with 255 units of rental housing for low- and moderate-income households. The project is being developed under the Department of Housing Preservation and Development's ("HPD") Mixed Income Program, Mix & Match, through which sponsors construct or rehabilitate multifamily buildings in order to create affordable rental housing. Construction and permanent financing is provided through loans from private institutional lenders and from public sources including the New York City Housing Development Corporation ("HDC") and HPD. Additional funding may also be provided from the syndication of low-income housing tax credits. Projects may have a range of affordability tiers, but the maximum is households earning up to 165% of the Area Median Income (“AMI”).

The property currently contains five vacant buildings and vacant land and is currently owned by Mastermind Development LLC. Under the proposed project, Tremont Renaissance Housing Development Fund Company, Inc. (“HDFC”) will acquire the property and Tremont Renaissance LLC (the “LLC”) will be the beneficial owner and will operate the property. The HDFC and the LLC will demolish the vacant buildings and construct a multiple dwelling known as Tremont Renaissance consisting of 255 units of housing for low- and moderate-income families, plus one superintendent’s unit, and approximately 39,725 square feet of commercial space. The HDFC will finance the acquisition and construction with funds provided by HPD, HDC, and low-income housing tax credits.

In addition, the HDFC, the LLC, and HPD will enter into regulatory agreement establishing that approximately 50% of the units will be rented to households whose incomes do not exceed approximately 60% of AMI, approximately 35% of the units will be rented to households whose incomes do not exceed approximately 100% of AMI, and the remainder of the units will be rented to households whose incomes do not exceed approximately up to 120% of AMI. In 2015, 60%, 100%, and 120% of AMI are as follows:

AMI	Family of Four	Family of Three	Family of Two	Individual
60%	$51,780	$46,620	$41,460	$36,300
100%	$86,300	$77,700	$69,100	$60,500
120%	$103,560	$93,240	$82,920	$72,600

In order to facilitate the project, HPD is requesting that the Council approve, pursuant to Section 577 of the Private Housing Finance Law, a full, 40-year property tax exemption.

Report of the Committee on Fire and Criminal Justice

Report for Int. No. 643-A

Report of the Committee on Fire and Criminal Justice in favor of approving and adopting, as amended, a Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring the department of correction to provide reports regarding the number of inmates who are on waiting lists for placement in or transfer to alternative housing.

The Committee on Fire and Criminal Justice, to which the annexed amended proposed local law was referred on February 12, 2015 (Minutes, page 439), respectfully

REPORTS:

I. INTRODUCTION

On Wednesday, September 16, 2015, the Committee on Fire and Criminal Justice Services, chaired by Council Member Elizabeth S. Crowley, will vote the 8 proposed bills referenced above regarding the Department of Correction (“DOC”), as will be summarized below. The Committee previously held a hearing on these bills on May 6th of this year.

II. PROPOSED INT. NO. 643-A

The DOC operates a number of units in which inmates who commit infractions are placed. Two of such units are specially designed for inmates with mental health issues, Clinical Alternative To Punitive Segregation (“CAPS”) and the Restrictive Housing Unit (“RHU”).¹ CAPS is designed for the seriously mentally ill, and RHU is designed for non-seriously mentally ill.²

Upon information and belief, these units are not currently large enough to handle the volume of inmates with mental health needs, and DOC Commissioner Ponte testified at a Board of Correction (“BOC”) hearing on July 8, 2014 that the waiting list for punitive segregation is close to one thousand,³ and that many individuals on this waiting list have mental health issues.

This bill amends Chapter 1 of title 9 of the administrative code of the city of New York by adding a new section 9-135. This section would require the DOC to report on how many inmates are awaiting placement in punitive segregation, RHU, and CAPS on a bi-monthly basis. This section would also require the DOC to report on the number of inmates who have been found unfit to stand trial⁴ and are awaiting placement by the New York State Department of Health or Office for People With Developmental Disabilities, and the housing unit in which such inmates are placed.

III. AMENDMENTS TO PROPOSED INT. NO. 643-A

Int. No. 643-A has been modified subsequent to its initial hearing. The reporting period has been changed from monthly to bi-monthly. The bill previously included only RHU and CAPS housing, and now also includes punitive segregation housing.

The bill now requires disaggregation based on whether those on the waiting list are known by mental health staff to have mental health issues, and also disaggregation based on how long individuals have been placed on the waiting list, in the following categories: 1-5 days, 6-15 days, 16-30 days, 31-60 days, and 61 days or longer. The bill now also includes an additional reporting requirement regarding the number of individuals who have been found unfit to stand trial and are awaiting placement by the New York State Department of Health or Office for People With Developmental Disabilities.⁵ Information regarding such inmates must be reported quarterly. These reporting requirements were not present in the initial version of the bill.

Finally, the bill previously went into effect 30 days after it became a law, but now goes into effect immediately, provided that the reporting regarding punitive segregation, RHU, and CAPS begins with the reporting period beginning October 1, 2015. Also, reporting regarding those who have been found unfit to stand trial begins with the quarter beginning April 1, 2016. Finally, the prior version of the bill never expired, whereas the bill now expires October 1, 2020, provided that the DOC provides written notice within the first six months of 2020 of such expiration, and otherwise would expire one year after any time at which the Council received written notice of expiration from the DOC.

IV. PROPOSED INT. NO. 706-A

The Department of Correction operates 15 inmate facilities, 10 of which are located on Rikers Island.⁶ The facilities outside of Rikers Island are located in the boroughs of Brooklyn, the Bronx, Manhattan, and Queens.⁷ Inmates are permitted an unlimited number of visits from professionals, such as attorneys, clergy, and media, and a limited number of visits from others, including family and friends.⁸ The DOC has proposed a series of modifications to the current visitation process to the BOC,⁹ which has the duty to create minimum standards of inmate care.¹⁰

This bill amends Chapter 1 of title 9 of the administrative code of the city of New York by adding a new section 9-140. This section would require the DOC to report on the number of visits inmates actually receive, both in total and per capita. The report would list visits both in total and by differentiating between facilities on Rikers Island and those outside the Island. The report would also differentiate between visits by professionals and non-professionals, and differentiate between types of professionals.

The report would also require the DOC to report on any reason a visit is denied. For example, visitors must possess identification,¹¹ meet a dress code,¹² and may only visit on certain days.¹³

V. AMENDMENTS TO PROPOSED INT. NO. 706-A

Int. No. 706-A has been modified subsequent to its initial hearing. The original version of the bill disaggregated visitors by those who register as an inmate's attorney and those that do not, whereas the bill now disaggregates visitors by "professionals" and non-professionals. "Professionals" are defined as any person who is properly identified as providing services or assistance to inmates, including lawyers, doctors, religious advisors, public officials, therapists, counselors, and media representatives. This definition matches the definition of those visitors who are permitted unlimited visits with inmates pursuant to the regulations of the Board of Correction.¹⁴ The bill also requires disaggregation by which service each professional provides.

Also, the definition of what constitutes a "visitor" previously only included those individuals who enter DOC property with the stated intention of visiting an inmate, but now also includes those who are screened by the DOC for visitation purposes before entering DOC property. In addition, the previous version of the bill required DOC to list the reason any visit was not completed and included a number of categories therein, whereas the current version includes no such categories but rather requires the DOC to determine such categories.

Finally, the bill previously went into effect 90 days after it became a law, but now goes into effect January 1, 2016. However, information regarding the reason a visit is denied need not be included until the quarter beginning April 1, 2016, and all information regarding the disaggregation of professionals need not be included until the quarter beginning July 1, 2016. Also, the bill now requires the DOC to report all of the information in the bill, if available, for the four quarters prior to January 1, 2016.

VI. PROPOSED INT. NO. 753-A

Section 1 of this bill amends section 13 of the New York City Charter by changing the name of what is now known as the Coordinator of Criminal Justice to the "Office of Criminal Justice." Section 2 of this bill adds section 3-117 to the New York City Administrative Code. This section requires the Office of Criminal Justice to report on a comprehensive set of key factors regarding the role of local jails in the criminal justice system. The bill requires reporting of basic information regarding the population of inmates in DOC custody, including: (i) the inmate population, (ii) the number of inmates held in pre-trial detention, (iii) the number of inmates who had been sentenced, (iv) the sentences of sentenced inmates, (v) the amounts of bail set on pre-trial detainees, (vi) the number of pre-trial detainees remanded without bail, (vii) the seriousness of charges for pre-trial detainees, (viii) what charges pre-trial detainees were facing, (ix) the criminal history of pre-trial detainees, and (x) how long pre-trial detainees had been detained. All of this information must be reported in terms of both the number of inmate admissions into DOC custody and per the average daily inmate population. The report also includes information regarding the court system's impact on the DOC population, including: the number and percentage of cases in which bail is set on felonies and misdemeanors, the warrant rate for those released without bail and those who post bail for both felonies and misdemeanors, the rates of defendants posting bail based on the amount of bail set, and case dispositions for those incarcerated pre-trial and those released or who post bail. Certain information must be disaggregated by borough, including the rates of setting bail and case dispositions for those incarcerated pre-trial and those released or who post bail. This borough-specific information must be compared to key crime indicators in that borough.

VII. AMENDMENTS TO PROPOSED INT. NO. 753-A

Int. No. 753-A has been modified subsequent to its initial hearing. The original version of the bill required reporting of the Department of Information Technology and Telecommunications, and included no reference to the Coordinator of Criminal Justice or modifying the name of the latter office. The original version of the bill also required quarterly reporting, due within 20 days of the beginning of each quarter, whereas the bill now requires reporting at various frequencies: the reporting period for paragraphs 1, 3, 14, and 15 of this subdivision is quarterly, the reporting period for paragraphs 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, and 16 is semi-annually, and the reporting period for paragraphs 17 through 33 is annually. Furthermore, all reports are now due within 90 days of the beginning of each reporting period.

Also, the original version of the bill included certain reporting requirements that are not included in the bill: the number and percentage of cases in which a defendant's release was subject to specified conditions, including but not limited to supervised release programs, but not including the sole condition that the defendant not be re-arrested; and the percentage of cases in which a form of bail other than cash or insurance company bond was ordered.

VIII. PROPOSED INT. NO. 758-A

The DOC operates an inmate grievance system to address any "issue, condition, practice, or action" related to an inmate's confinement.¹⁵ This system does not include complaints that are subject to other resolution processes, such as those regarding the excessive use of force by DOC personnel or allegations of assault by another inmate.¹⁶ According to the DOC's directive, an inmate must be allowed to file a grievance for any "issue, condition, practice, or action related to the inmate's confinement" even if the Inmate Grievance and Request Program (IGRP) staff believes the request to be inappropriate for the IGRP process. Where by rule the request cannot be resolved with the IGRP process, the IGRP staff are instructed to refer the request to the appropriate venue and provide the inmate with a written decision as such.¹⁷ Inmates are required to be informed about the IGRP system upon admission.¹⁸

Inmate grievances must be submitted on a proper form, and may be submitted in one of 3 ways: 1. Dropping off the form into a box, 2. Delivering it to the IGRP office, or 3. Handing it to an IGRP representative during their visits to certain areas in which neither the box or the IGRP office are available, such as punitive segregation, hospital wards, and similar specialized facilities.¹⁹ In those specialized facilities, IGRP forms are not available, and inmates must request such forms from DOC staff.²⁰ Whereas in non-specialized facilities, inmates receive a receipt for the submission of their grievance, in specialized facilities they are to receive a receipt within 2 days of submission, and if they do not so receive they must re-submit their grievance.²¹

Upon the submission of a grievance, the DOC's grievance supervisor must resolve the complaint within 5 business days, by either dismissing it, referring it to the appropriate venue for resolution, or investigate and propose a resolution to the inmate.²² Such proposed resolutions are referred to as "informal resolutions," and the inmate is given the option of accepting the resolution (and signing a form to so indicate) or denying it and requesting a formal hearing on the grievance. Such hearings are conducted by the Inmate Grievance Resolution Committee, made up of one elected inmate representative, one uniformed staff representative, and one grievance supervisor.²³ The inmate is required to request this hearing within 5 days of receiving the informal resolution proposal, and DOC staff are required to contact the inmate if no response is received within 5 days.²⁴ The Committee must decide on a proposed resolution, and the inmate can either accept this resolution or deny it and appeal – again within 5 days of receiving the proposed resolution.²⁵ The next level of appeal is to the "commanding officer" of the IGRP, and the final level of appeal is to the "Central Office Review Committee," and both levels of appeal have similar procedures as the previous levels of appeal.²⁶ All appeals must be resolved within delineated time limits.

This bill amends Chapter 1 of title 9 of the administrative code of the city of New York by adding a new section 9-136. This section requires the DOC to report on every step of the grievance process as outlined above, including the number of grievances resolved at every step of the process. The bill requires listing grievances listed in total and by differentiating by facility, and differentiating by the method with which the grievance was filed. Finally, the number of inmates who file grievances must be listed separately.

IX. AMENDMENTS TO PROPOSED INT. NO. 758-A

Int. No. 758-A has been modified subsequent to its initial hearing. The original version of the bill required reporting beginning October 1, 2016, whereas the bill now requires reporting beginning January 1, 2016. The original version of the bill listed all steps in the current grievance process; however, those steps are subject to modification at any time, therefore the bill now requires reporting on every step of the grievance process without specifically identifying any such steps. Similarly, the original version of the bill listed all methods via which grievances may currently be submitted; however, those methods are subject to modification at any time, therefore the bill now requires reporting disaggregating the method with which a grievance was submitted without specifically identifying any such method.

X. PROPOSED INT. NO. 766-A

This bill amends Chapter 1 of title 9 of the administrative code of the city of New York by adding a new section 9-137. This section requires the DOC to report quarterly on the basic demographic information of its inmate population. This demographic information includes the following factors: age, race, gender, educational background, the borough in which the inmate was arrested, and whether the inmate is listed as security risk by the DOC. This information must be reported quarterly, based on both the number of inmate admissions and the average daily inmate population during that quarter.

XI. AMENDMENTS TO PROPOSED INT. NO. 766-A

Int. No. 766-A has been modified subsequent to its initial hearing. The original version of the bill took effect immediately, whereas the bill now takes effect January 1, 2016. The original version of the bill required reporting on whether an inmate is “identified as a member of a gang,” whereas the current version requires reporting on whether an inmate is defined as a member of a security risk group. Additionally, the original version of the bill required reporting on transgender inmates as a separate category, whereas the current version requires reporting on the number of inmates in the DOC’s transgender housing unit.

XII. PROPOSED INT. NO. 767-A

This bill amends Chapter 1 of title 9 of the administrative code of the city of New York by adding a new section 9-138. This section requires the DOC to publicly report its policies regarding the use of force by staff on inmates. This information must include the protocols and directives regarding the circumstances in which any use of force is justified, the circumstances in which various levels of force or various uses of equipment are justified, and the procedures staff must follow prior to using force. The DOC Commissioner would be permitted to redact this report as necessary to preserve safety and security.

XIII. AMENDMENTS TO PROPOSED INT. NO. 767-A

Int. No. 767-A has been modified subsequent to its initial hearing. The bill now takes effect 30 days after it becomes law, whereas the original version took effect immediately. Also, the bill now includes a provision that the Commissioner of the DOC may redact the report “as necessary to preserve safety and security in the facilities under the department’s control.” This provision did not exist in the original version of the bill.

XIV. PROPOSED INT. NO. 768-A

This bill expands the reporting requirements in New York City Administrative Code § 9-134. This law currently requires quarterly reporting on 42 different indicators in punitive segregation, but arguably this law does not apply to the DOC's recently implemented "Enhanced Supervision Housing" unit,²⁷ a unit that would restrict inmates to their cells for up to 9 daytime hours, as opposed to the 2 hour requirement for general population.²⁸ The bill expands the definition of "punitive segregation" to include any DOC unit in which inmates are restricted to their cells for more than the minimum standards as defined by the BOC. The bill also modifies the definition of "use of force" to reflect the DOC's current use of that term.

XV. AMENDMENTS TO PROPOSED INT. NO. 768-A

Int. No. 768-A has been modified subsequent to its initial hearing. The original version of the bill took effect 30 days after it became law, whereas the bill now takes effect on January 1, 2016 and the first report pursuant to this local law is due April 20, 2016. Also, the original version of the bill amended the definition of "punitive segregation" in Section 9-134 of the Administrative Code, whereas the current version redefines that term as "segregated housing," and specifically includes a reference to "Enhanced Supervision Housing" in that definition. Finally, the bill now modifies the definition of "use of force" in Section 9-134 of the Administrative Code to reflect the DOC's current use of that term. This modification did not exist in the original version of the bill.

XVI. PROPOSED INT. NO. 784-A

This bill amends Chapter 1 of title 9 of the administrative code of the city of New York by adding a new section 9-139. This section would require the DOC to provide every new inmate admitted into a facility with a document that describes all their rights and responsibilities in plain and simple language. Such rights include inmate rights under federal, state and local laws, including minimum standards for inmate care as determined by the BOC. Such responsibilities include, but are not limited to, department rules of inmate conduct. The DOC would also be required to read a summary of those rights and responsibilities to every inmate in their primary language. The bill also requires a communication of educational, vocational development, drug and alcohol treatment, counseling and other related services available to incoming inmates. It also requires that inmates be given the option receiving the "Connections" handbook for re-entry. The "Connections" handbook is a comprehensive guide to social services available for inmates who are released from custody that is freely published by the New York City Library.²⁹

XVII. AMENDMENTS TO PROPOSED INT. NO. 784-A

Int. No. 784-A has been modified subsequent to its initial hearing. The original version of the bill required a summary of all inmate rights under federal, state, and local law, whereas the bill now requires a summary of inmate rights under departmental policy, which must be consistent with federal, state, and local laws. The bill now also includes a requirement that inmates be informed of their responsibilities under the DOC's rules of inmate conduct. This requirement did not exist in the original version of the bill. Also, the original version of the bill required the DOC to create this document in English, Spanish, and any other language the department reasonably believes a substantial number of inmates speak as their primary language, whereas the current version of the bill requires that the document be available in English and Spanish. Relatedly, the original version of the bill required that a summary of this document be read to inmates in their primary language, whereas that requirement is only applicable if such inmate's primary language is accessible through the city's language access plan. Finally, the requirement that inmates be given the option receiving the "Connections" handbook for re-entry did not exist in the original version of the bill.

OF NEW YORK
FINANCE DIVISION

LATONIA MCKINNEY,
DIRECTOR

FISCAL IMPACT STATEMENT

PROPOSED INTRO. NO: 643-A

COMMITTEE: Fire and
Criminal Justice Services

TITLE: A local law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring the department of correction to provide reports regarding the number of inmates who are on waiting lists for placement in or transfer to alternative housing.

SPONSORS: Council Members Crowley, Lancman, Arroyo, Johnson, Koo, Richards, Rosenthal, Wills, Mendez, Cabrera, and Menchaca

SUMMARY OF LEGISLATION: The Department of Correction (DOC) operates specialized housing units for inmates who have committed infractions while in DOC custody. Inmates with serious mental illnesses are sent to the Clinical Alternatives to Punitive Segregation (CAPS) units, inmates with mental illnesses that are not “serious” as defined by the State Office of Mental Health are sent to Restrictive Housing Units (RHU), and inmates without mental illnesses are sent to punitive segregation units. Presently, there are waiting lists for some of these units.

This bill would require the DOC to report the number of inmates who have committed infractions and been sentenced to a segregated housing unit but are on a waiting list for said unit. This bill would require public reporting every 60 days, and each report would be required to show how long inmates have been waiting by specific timeframes such as 1-15 days, 16-30 days, etc.

This bill would also require the DOC to report the number of inmates who have been found unfit to stand trial and are awaiting placement by the New York State Department of Health or Office of People with Developmental Disabilities, and the DOC housing unit in which such inmates are placed.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This local law would take effect immediately, provided that the reporting regarding punitive segregation, RHU, and CAPS would begin with the reporting period beginning October 1, 2015, and the reporting regarding those who have been found unfit to stand trial would begin with the quarter beginning April 1, 2016.

FISCAL YEAR IN WHICH FULL FISCAL IMPACT ANTICIPATED: Fiscal 2017

FISCAL IMPACT STATEMENT:

	Effective FY16	FY Succeeding Effective FY17	Full Fiscal Impact FY17
Expenditures	$0 (see note below)	$0	$0

IMPACT ON REVENUES: It is estimated that there will be no impact on revenues resulting from the enactment of this legislation.

IMPACT ON EXPENDITURES: It is anticipated that this legislation would have no impact on expenditures because existing resources would be used to implement this legislation. However, due to the new reporting requirements and increased volume of data collection associated with the package of eight reporting bills that the Council will consider on September 17, 2015, the Department has estimated that one-time funding of $500,000 would be needed to upgrade its information technology infrastructure to comply. A portion of this cost would be attributable to Proposed Intro 643-A

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring the department of correction to provide reports regarding the number of inmates who are on waiting lists for placement in or transfer to alternative housing

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Chapter 1 of title 9 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 9-135 to read as follows:

§ 9-135 Alternative housing unit waiting list. The commissioner shall post a report every 60 days, on the department of correction website, setting forth the number of city jail inmates who have been found guilty of violating departmental rules but have yet to be placed in punitive segregation, restrictive housing or a clinical alternative to punitive segregation housing, or any successor to such housing units, disaggregated by inmates with "M" designations at the end of their book and case numbers, indicating that the inmates are known to mental health staff, and inmates without "M" designations. Such report shall state the number of inmates awaiting placement in any such housing unit categorized by the length of time such inmates have been awaiting placement in the following categories: 1-5 days, 6-15 days, 16-30 days, 31-60 days, and 61 days or longer. The commissioner shall also post, no later than 45 days after the end of each quarter, a quarterly report that sets forth the number of inmates awaiting transfer to the custody of the New York state department of health or the New York state department of people with developmental disabilities pursuant to section 730 of the criminal procedure law, the length of stay for such inmates, and the housing facility in which such inmates were placed.

§2. This local law takes effect immediately, provided that, with regard to reports required herein to be posted every 60 days, this local law shall apply beginning with the reporting period that commences on October 1, 2015, and provided further that, with regard to reports required herein to be posted no later than 45 days after the end of each quarter, this local law shall apply beginning with the quarter that commences on April 1, 2016. This local law shall expire and be deemed repealed on October 1, 2020, provided that the commissioner of correction provides written notice to the council in the first six months of the year 2020 that this local law will expire without further action by the council. If the commissioner does not provide such notice by June 30, 2020, this local law shall expire and be deemed repealed one year following the date on which the council receives such notice.

SPONSORS: Council Members Dromm, King, Levine, Chin, Johnson, Palma, Cabrera, and Rosenthal

SUMMARY OF LEGISLATION: This bill would require the Department of Correction (DOC) to report the number of visits inmates actually receive, both in total and per capita each quarter. The report would list the total number of visits to inmates in all DOC facilities and the total number of visits to inmates in each DOC facility on Rikers Island and those off the Island. It would also require the DOC to report any reason a visit is denied. It would also require that reports be disaggregated to show visits, including reasons for visit denials by professionals to inmates and visits by non-professionals. Reports would be further disaggregated by type of professionals. The reports would be required quarterly beginning on January 1, 2016, and would require the DOC to report the same statistics for the previous four quarters, to the extent such information is available.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This local law would take effect January 1, 2016, provided that information regarding the reason a visit is denied need not be included until the quarter beginning April 1, 2016, and all information regarding the disaggregation of professionals need not be included until the quarter beginning July 1, 2016.

IMPACT ON REVENUES: It is estimated that there will be no impact on revenues resulting from the enactment of this legislation.

IMPACT ON EXPENDITURES: Currently the Department does not capture all the data required by this legislation, such as the reasons for visit denials disaggregated by professionals. It is estimated that the Department will need one-time funding in Fiscal 2016 of $500,000 for information technology startup fees to develop a new data collection system to ensure the Department will be able to accurately capture the data required for this legislation.

Int. No. 706-A

By Council Members Dromm, King, Levine, Chin, Johnson, Palma, Cabrera, Rosenthal, Rose, Barron, Williams, Garodnick, Kallos and Lander.

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring the commissioner of the department of correction to post a quarterly report regarding the visitation of incarcerated individuals.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Chapter 1 of title 9 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 9-140 to read as follows:

§ 9-140 Jail visitation statistics. a. Definitions. For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

Borough jail facility. The term “borough jail facility” means any department facility in which inmates are housed by the department and that is located outside Rikers Island.

City jail. The term “city jail” means any department facility in which inmates are housed by the department.

Professional. The term “professional” means a person who is properly identified as providing services or assistance to inmates, including lawyers, doctors, religious advisors, public officials, therapists, counselors, and media representatives.

Visitor. The term “visitor” means any person who enters a city jail with the stated intention of visiting an inmate at any city jail, or any person who is screened by the department for visitation purposes, including but not limited to professionals and any person who registers to visit an inmate in the department’s visitor tracking system.

b. The commissioner shall post on the department website on a quarterly basis, within 30 days of the beginning of each quarter, a report containing information pertaining to the visitation of the inmate population in city jails for the prior quarter. Such quarterly report shall include the following information in total and disaggregated by whether the visitor is a professional, and also disaggregated by the type of services the professional provides:

1. The total number of visitors to city jails, the total number of visitors to borough jail facilities, and the total number of visitors to city jails on Rikers Island.

2. The total number of visitors that visited an inmate at city jails, the total number of visitors that visited an inmate at borough jail facilities, and the total number of visitors that visited an inmate at city jails on Rikers Island.

3. The number of visitors unable to visit an inmate at any city jail, in total and disaggregated by the reason such visit was not completed.

4. The inmate visitation rate, which shall be calculated by dividing the average daily number of visitors who visited inmates at city jails during the reporting period by the average daily inmate population of city jails during the reporting period.

FISCAL IMPACT STATEMENT

PROPOSED INTRO. NO: 753-A
COMMITTEE: Fire and
Criminal Justice Services

TITLE: A local law to amend New York city charter, in relation to renaming the office of the criminal justice coordinator as the office of criminal justice, and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring the office of criminal justice to post on the office's website an annual report regarding bail and the criminal justice system.

SPONSORS: Council Members Rosenthal, Crowley, Dromm, Cumbo, Koslowitz, Palma, Cornegy, Torres, Cohen, Rodriguez, Cabrera, and Lancman

SUMMARY OF LEGISLATION: The proposed legislation would officially rename the office of the "Criminal Justice Coordinator" to the "Office of Criminal Justice," as the office has been referred to since 2014. The bill would also require the Office of Criminal Justice to publish a yearly report on issues surrounding the use of jails in the criminal justice system. This report would include the following information both in total and on average: 1) number of inmates in jail; 2) what they are charged with; 3) the severity of their charges; 4) the amount of bail set for inmates; 5) how long inmates are incarcerated pre-trial; 6) the number of inmates sentenced and the length of such sentences; 7) how often bail is set; 8) what amounts of bail are set; 9) how often bail is posted; 10) how often those who post bail miss court dates; 11) how often those who are released without bail miss court dates; 12) how bail affects the outcome of cases; 13) and how the use of bail correlates with crime rates by borough.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This local law takes effect immediately, provided that section 2 applies to any calendar year beginning on or after January 1, 2016, and further provided that the first report pursuant to section 2 is due within 90 days of the quarter beginning April 1, 2016

IMPACT ON REVENUES: It is estimated that there will be no impact on revenues resulting from the enactment of this legislation.

IMPACT ON EXPENDITURES: It is anticipated that this legislation would have no impact on expenditures because existing resources would be used to implement the reporting requirements of this legislation. However, due to the new reporting requirements and increased volume of data collection associated with the package of the eight reporting bills that the Council will consider on September 17, 2015, the Department has estimated that one-time funding of $500,000 would be needed to upgrade its information technology infrastructure to comply. A portion of this cost would be attributable to Proposed Intro 753-A

PROPOSED INTRO. NO: 768-A

COMMITTEE: Fire and
Criminal Justice Services

TITLE: A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring the department of correction to report on enhanced supervision housing.

SPONSORS: Council Members Garodnick, Dromm, Ferreras-Copeland, Constantinides, Gentile, Johnson, Lander, Levine, Rose, Rosenthal, Mendez, and Cabrera

SUMMARY OF LEGISLATION: Proposed Intro. 768-A would amend the current reporting requirements for the Department of Correction (DOC) to include information regarding all types of segregated housing units in which inmates are restricted to their cells for a certain period of time. Currently, the DOC provides reports related to punitive segregation housing units and mental health units. Proposed Intro 768-A would require the Department to post quarterly reports on its website with 42 indicators related to segregated housing units, the inmates housed there, activities and services, the movement of inmates within and between housing units, the use of force, and inmate complaints.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This local law would effect on January 1, 2016, and the first quarterly report to include the new housing units would be due on April 20, 2016.

FISCAL YEAR IN WHICH FULL FISCAL IMPACT ANTICIPATED: Fiscal 2017

FISCAL IMPACT STATEMENT:

	Effective FY16	FY17 Succeeding Effective FY	Full Fiscal Impact FY17
Expenditures	$170,146	$340,291	$340,291
Net	$170,146	$340,291	$340,291

IMPACT ON REVENUES: It is estimated that there will be no impact on revenues resulting from the enactment of this legislation.

IMPACT ON EXPENDITURES: It is estimated that Proposed Intro 768-A would require the Department to hire additional uniform staff and have a fiscal impact of $340,291 in Fiscal 2017. Local Law 42 of 2014 requires the DOC to post a quarterly report on the conditions of inmates in punitive segregation facilities, including mental health facilities in which inmates are isolated to their cells for significantly longer than inmates in general population. As a result of Local Law 42 of 2014, the Department's budget was increased by $921,069 ($492,994 in PS and $427,075 in OTPS) in the Fiscal 2016 November Plan for five uniform officers and one civilian position to ensure compliance. In early 2015, the DOC established a new Enhanced Segregation Housing Unit, in which inmates are isolated to their cells for more hours than inmates in general population, but less hours than inmates in punitive segregation. Proposed Intro 768-A would require the DOC to include inmates in the new Enhanced Segregation Housing Units as part of the quarterly reports they are already required to submit regarding inmate conditions in punitive segregation housing. Proposed Intro 768-A would require the Department to collect information from inmates such as the number of requests made by inmates for assistance from the law library and the number of requests made by inmates to make telephone calls. According to the Department, the additional data collection required by this legislation would require additional funding of $418,524 for four uniform officers and one civilian position. We estimate that only the additional uniform staff would of one captain and three correction officers would be needed to ensure accurate and timely data collection. Since Proposed Intro 768-A would not take effect until January 1, 2016, the estimated expenditure in Fiscal 2016 would represent half year value of the increase in uniform staffing and the full year value would go into effect beginning in Fiscal 2017. Due to the new reporting requirements and increased volume of data collection associated with the package of the eight reporting bills that the Council will consider on September 17, 2015, the Department has estimated that one-time funding of $500,000 would be needed to upgrade its information technology infrastructure to comply. A portion of this cost would be attributable to Proposed Intro 768-A

SPONSORS: Council Members Crowley, Dromm, Chin, Cumbo, Espinal, Lander, Mendez, Menchaca, and Rosenthal

SUMMARY OF LEGISLATION: This bill would require the Department of Correction (DOC) to provide every new inmate admitted into a facility with a document that describes all their rights and responsibilities in plain and simple language. The DOC would also be required to read a summary of those rights and responsibilities to every inmate in their primary language. The "Connections" handbook is a comprehensive guide to social services available for inmates who are released from custody that is freely published by the New York Public Library.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This local law takes effect 90 days after it becomes law.

Report for M-333

Report of the Committee on Rules, Privileges and Elections approving the appointment by the Mayor of Shampa Chanda as a member of the New York City Board of Standards and Appeals.

The Committee on Rules, Privileges and Elections to which the annexed communication was referred on September 17, 2015 and was coupled with the resolution shown below, respectfully

REPORTS:

Topic I: New York City Board of Standards and Appeals – (Mayoral candidate for appointment upon advice and consent of the Council)

- Shampa Chanda [Preconsidered M-333]

New York City Charter (“Charter”) § 659 provides for the establishment of an independent Board of Standards and Appeals (“BSA”) located within the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings (“OATH”). The BSA consists of five Commissioners, each appointed by the Mayor for a term of six years. Pursuant to Charter § 31, appointments to the BSA are made with the advice and consent of the Council. The Charter further provides that one of the BSA’s members shall be a planner with professional qualifications and at least ten years’ experience as a planner; one of the members shall be a registered architect and shall have at least ten years’ experience as an architect; and one of the members shall be a licensed and professional engineer and shall have at least ten years’ experience as an engineer. The particular qualifications of the two remaining members are not delineated in the Charter. The Mayor designates one of the members with the required experience of an architect, planner or engineer to serve as Chair, and designates one of the members to serve as Vice-Chair. In the absence of the Chair, or in the event that a vacancy exists in the office of the Chair, the Vice-Chair acts as Chair of the BSA. No more than two members may reside in one borough. The BSA is empowered to: (1) hear and decide appeals from and review, except as otherwise provided by law, any order, requirement, decision or determination of the Commissioner of Buildings or any Borough Superintendent of Buildings acting under written delegation of power from the Commissioner of Buildings filed in accordance with Charter § 645 (b); (2) hear and decide appeals from and review any order, requirement, decision or determination of the fire Commissioner, or any rule or regulation or amendment or repeal thereof made by the Fire Commissioner; or (3) hear and decide appeals from and review any order, requirement or determination of the Commissioner of Transportation, or the Commissioner of the Department of Business Services¹ made in relation to the structures or uses on water front property under his or her jurisdiction in connection with the application or enforcement of the provisions of the Zoning Resolution of the city of New York (“Zoning Resolution”), the labor law and such other laws, rules, and regulations as may govern the construction, alteration, maintenance, use, occupancy, safety, sanitary conditions, mechanical equipment and inspection of structures in the City.

The BSA has the power to determine and vary the application of the Zoning Resolution, and to issue special permits as authorized by the Zoning Resolution. The BSA has the same powers as those exercised by the New York State Department of Labor with respect to buildings situated in the City. The BSA may also consider appeals to vary or modify any rule or regulation or the provisions of any law relating to the construction, use, structural changes, equipment, alteration or removal of buildings or structures, or vaults in sidewalks appurtenant thereto, where there are practical difficulties or unnecessary hardship in carrying out the strict letter of the law, so that the spirit of the law shall be observed, public safety secured and substantial justice done.

Each member of the BSA receives a salary, and may not engage in any other occupation, profession or employment. The Chair earns an annual salary of $200,847. The Vice-Chair receives $165,307 annually, while the other members earn an annual salary of $158,156. Members attend the hearings and executive sessions of the BSA, and perform such other duties as may be required by the Chair. The Mayor fills vacancies for the un-expired term of the member whose place becomes vacant with a person having his or her qualifications.

Ms. Chanda is scheduled to appear before the Committee on Rules, Privileges, and Elections on Wednesday, September 9, 2015. If appointed, Ms. Chanda, a resident of Queens and a professional planner, will be eligible to serve the remainder of a six-year term that will begin on October 7, 2015 and expires on October 6, 2021.

- Helen Arteaga [Preconsidered M-334]

The New York City Health and Hospitals Corporation (“HHC”) was constituted pursuant to Chapter 1016 of the laws of 1969, thereafter codified §7384 et seq. of the Unconsolidated Laws of the State of New York. HHC is a public benefit corporation whose purpose is to: (a) provide and deliver high quality, dignified and comprehensive care and treatment for the ill and infirm, both physical and mental, particularly to those who can least afford such services; (b) extend equally to all served, comprehensive health services of the highest quality, in an atmosphere of human care and respect; (c) promote and protect, as both innovator and advocate, the health, welfare and safety of the people of the State of New York and of the City of New York; and (d) join with other health workers and communities in a partnership to promote and protect health in its fullest sense—the total physical, mental and social well-being of the people. HHC By Laws Article II.

As provided by law, a Board of Directors consisting of sixteen members administers HHC. As specified in HHC By Laws Article IV, §3, the Administrator of the Health Services Administration, the Commissioner of Health,² the Commissioner of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Alcoholism Services,³ the Administrator of the Human Resources Administration and the Deputy Mayor/City Administrator, or their successors shall be directors ex-officio. Ten additional directors are appointed by the Mayor, five of whom are designated by the City Council.⁴ The President of HHC serves as the sixteenth director.⁵

Under current HHC By-Laws,⁶ the Board of Directors has established the following standing committees: Executive Committee, Finance Committee, Capital Committee, Medical and Professional Affairs Committee, Quality Assurance Committee, Audit Committee, Community Relations Committee, Strategic Planning Committee, and the Equal Employment Opportunity Committee. Each of the standing committees, except the Audit Committee,⁷ shall be composed of the Chair of the Board with approval of a majority of the Board. In addition to standing committees, the Board, by resolution passed by a majority of the whole number of directors, may designate special committees, each to consist of three or more directors, one of whom shall be the Chair of the Board. The Chair of each committee, both standing and special, shall be designated by a majority vote of the Board.

The term of a director, other than those serving ex-officio and/or at the pleasure of the Board, is for five years. The Mayor shall fill any vacancy which may occur by reason of death, resignation, or otherwise, in a manner consistent with the original appointment. The directors do not receive compensation for their services, but are reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred by them in the performance of their official duties.

Ms. Arteaga is scheduled to appear before the Committee on Rules, Privileges and Elections on Wednesday, December 10, 2013. If Ms. Arteaga, a resident of Queens is designated by the Council, and subsequently appointed to HHC by the Mayor, she will replace Anna Kril and be eligible to serve for the remainder of a five-year term that will expire on March 20, 2020.

Topic III: New York City Equal Employment Practices Commission – (Candidate for re-appointment by the Council)

- Arva R. Rice [Preconsidered-M-335]

Chapter 36 of the New York City Charter (the “Charter”) establishes an Equal Employment Practices Commission (“EEPC”) within the City of New York. The law provides that EEPC shall review, evaluate and monitor the employment procedures, practices and programs of City agencies including the City’s Department of Citywide Administrative Services. Its purpose is to ensure an effective affirmative employment program of equal employment opportunity for minority group members and women who are employed by or seek employment with City agencies [New York City Charter §830(a)].

The EEPC consists of five members who are compensated on a per-diem basis.⁸ The Mayor and the Council each appoint two members, and the Mayor and the Speaker of the Council jointly appoint a fifth member to serve as Chair of EEPC [New York City Charter §830(b)]. Members, including the Chair, have four year terms [New York City Charter §830(d)]. A vacancy in the Commission shall not impair the right of the remaining members to exercise all the powers of EEPC. Three members shall constitute a quorum. [New York City Charter §830(c)].

EEPC may, within available appropriations, appoint an executive director and such deputies, assistants, and other employees as may be needed in the performance of its duties [New York City Charter §830(e)]. EEPC may meet as necessary to implement the provisions of Chapter 36 of the Charter, but at least once every eight weeks [New York City Charter §830(f)].

Pursuant to New York City Charter §831, some of EEPC powers and duties include:

- monitoring the employment practices of all local agencies, including non-Mayoral agencies;
- monitoring the implementation and coordination of City affirmative employment programs;
- requesting information from agencies to carry out Commission functions;
- communicating with the New York City Human Rights Commission concerning violations;
- reviewing and providing comments on annual equal employment opportunity plans adopted by City agencies;
- recommending to any City agency actions which such agency should consider including in its next annual plan;
- advising, and if requested, assisting City agencies in their efforts to increase employment of minority group members and women who are employed by or who seek employment with City agencies;
- auditing and evaluating the employment practices and procedures of each City agency and their efforts to ensure fair and effective equal employment opportunity for minority group members and women at least once every four years and whenever requested by the New York City Civil Service Commission or the New York City Human Rights Commission or whenever otherwise deemed necessary by the Commission;
- making policy, legislative and budgetary recommendations to the Mayor, the Council, the New York City Department of Citywide Administrative Services or any City agency as the Commission deems necessary;
- publishing by the 15th of February of each year, a report to the Mayor and the Council on the activities of EEPC and the effectiveness of each City agency's affirmative employment efforts and the efforts by the New York City Department of Citywide Administrative Services to ensure equal employment opportunity for minority group members and women who are employed by or seek to be employed by City agencies;

- establishing appropriate advisory committees;
- serving as liaison for the City to state, federal and local agencies responsible for compliance with equal employment opportunity; and
- taking such other actions as are appropriate to effectuate the provisions and purposes of Chapter 36 of the Charter.

EEPC is also empowered with compliance procedures to insure that City agencies are adhering to the law [New York City Charter §832].

Ms. Rice is scheduled to appear before the Council's Committee on Rules, Privileges and Elections on Wednesday, September 9, 2015. If re-appointed by the Council as a member of EEPC, Ms. Rice, a resident of Manhattan, will be eligible to serve the remainder of a four year term that expires on June 30, 2019.

Copies of the following are annexed to this briefing paper: the candidates' résumés, pre-hearing questions with their associated answers, and the reports/resolutions for all three candidates.

² This agency is now known as the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene. The Commissioner of the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene fills the seat for the Commissioner of the Department of Health.

³ In 2002, the Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Alcoholism Services was merged with the Department of Health. The merged agency has been named the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene. HHC's By Laws have not been amended to reflect this name change. The Director of Community Mental Health Services at the merged agency occupies the seat specified in the By-Laws for the Commissioner of the Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Alcoholism Services.

⁴ The Mayor must confirm the Council's designees in order for these individuals to serve on the Board of Directors.

⁵ The President of HHC is also referred to as the Chief Executive Officer. This individual is chosen by the other fifteen directors and serves at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. According to HHC By-Laws Article VII, §4(A), the President shall have general charge of the business and affairs of HHC and shall have the direction of all other officers, agents and employees. He or she shall, if present, and in absence of the Chair of the Board and Vice chair of the Board, preside at all meetings of the Board. The President may assign such duties to the other officers of HHC, as he or she deem appropriate. In HHC By-Laws Article VIII, §1, it is noted that the President appoints an Executive Director for each HHC facility. This individual serves at the pleasure of the President. Other duties of the President include the establishment of Community Advisory Boards for each HHC facility. Community Advisory Boards consider and advise HHC with respect to the plans and programs of HHC. See HHC By-Laws, Article XI.

⁶ As amended through May 31, 2001.

⁷ The Audit Committee consists of members designated by the Board of Directors other than those serving ex-officio.

⁸ The current per-diem rate for Commission members is $250. The rate for the Chair is $275.

RESOLUTIONS

Presented for voice-vote

The following are the respective Committee Reports for each of the Resolutions referred to the Council for a voice-vote pursuant to Rule 8.50 of the Council:

Report for voice-vote Res. No. Res 801-A Report of the Committee on Cultural Affairs, Libraries and International Intergroup Relations in favor of approving, as amended, a Resolution praising Pope Francis for his lifelong pursuit of peace among all peoples and commends him on his upcoming historic visit to New York City.

The Committee on Cultural Affairs, Libraries and International Intergroup Relations, to which the annexed amended resolution was referred on July 23, 2015 (Minutes, page 2975), respectfully

REPORTS:

Introduction

On September 16, 2015, the Committee on Cultural Affairs, Libraries and International Intergroup Relations, chaired by Council Member James Van Bramer, will hold a hearing on Proposed Res. No. 801-A, a resolution praising Pope Francis for his lifelong pursuit of peace among all peoples and commending him on his upcoming historic visit to New York City. This is the first hearing on this resolution. The Archdiocese of New York, community-based organizations, interfaith groups, academic institutions as well as faith leaders, and community service providers have been invited to testify.

Background

Historically, New York City has been a key location for papal visits to the United States, with Pope Paul VI, John Paul II, and Benedict XVI visiting the city during their pontificate. On September 24-25, 2015 Pope Francis will be visiting New York City. On his visit, Pope Francis will deliver the evening prayer at St. Patrick's Cathedral, address the United Nations General Assembly, attend a multi-religious meeting for peace at the 9/11 Memorial Museum, travel via a motorcade through Central Park, and celebrate Mass at Madison Square Garden.

Pope Francis is the first Jesuit, the first from the Americas, and the first non-European leader of the Catholic Church in more than 1,200 years. He is a champion of the poor, a vocal promoter of social justice, and an advocate for peace. Pope Francis has repeatedly demonstrated his commitment to reconciliation, tolerance and peaceful coexistence among all regions and religions. This resolution praises Pope Francis for his lifelong pursuit of peace among all peoples and commends him on his upcoming historic visit to New York City.

Proposed Res. No. 801-A

Proposed Res. No. 801-A would indicate that since assuming the office of the successor of Saint Peter in March of 2013, Pope Francis inherited a role that commands a great deal of influence, not only over the world's 1.2 billion Roman Catholics but over many peoples of the world. Proposed Res. No. 801-A would point out that, having begun his duties in the papal office as the first Jesuit, the first from the Americas, and the first non-European leader of the Catholic Church in more than 1,200 years, Pope Francis commenced his service as part of a renewed era in the Church and the great achievements of his papacy are testament to his leadership. The resolution would indicate that Pope Francis chose the name Francis, in honor of Saint Francis of Assisi, who devoted himself to the poor, to peace and protecting animals and the environment.

Proposed Res. No. 801-A would note that, having long been a champion of the poor, a vocal promoter of social justice, and known for leading an austere life in Buenos Aires, Pope Francis has denounced unnecessary luxuries proclaiming "... I would like a church that is poor and that is for the poor.” The resolution would further note that, as a promoter of peace, Pope Francis hosted Israeli President Shimon Peres and Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas at an interfaith event comprised of Christian, Jewish and Muslim prayers and the planting of an olive tree, a symbol of peace, in an effort to advance diplomacy and peace. The resolution would indicate that Pope Francis has repeatedly denounced the violence in Iraq and Syria and prayed for peace for those “who for too long now suffer the effects of ongoing conflict and who, together with those belonging to other ethnic and religious groups, are suffering a brutal persecution” in the Middle East, Ukraine and Africa.

The resolution would further point out that, with regard to opening relations between the United States and Cuba, Pope Francis wrote personal letters to both President Barack Obama and Cuban President Raúl Castro, inviting them to “resolve humanitarian questions of common interest, including the situation of certain prisoners.”

The resolution would indicate that Pope Francis has led the church in fights against rampant consumerism, air pollution and environmental exploitation, claiming “If we destroy creation, creation will destroy us”.

Proposed Res. No. 801-A would point out that Pope Francis has repeatedly demonstrated his commitment to reconciliation, tolerance and peaceful coexistence among all regions and religions, amplified by his upcoming landmark visit to New York City where he will address the United Nations General Assembly and appear at Madison Square Garden. Finally, the resolution would assert that the Council of the City of New York praises Pope Francis for his lifelong pursuit of peace among all peoples and commends him on his upcoming historic visit to New York City.

Accordingly, this Committee recommends its adoption, as amended.

Res. No. 836

Resolution calling upon the United States Congress to pass and the President to sign legislation allowing an economic hardship exemption for Puerto Rico from the Merchant Marine Act of 1920, commonly known as the “Jones Act.”

By The Speaker (Council Member Mark-Viverito) and Council Members Arroyo, Cabrera, Chin, Constantinides, Gibson, Johnson, Koo, Lancman, Mendez, Richards, Reynoso, Rosenthal, Lander, Eugene, Kallos and Menchaca.

Whereas, The Merchant Marine Act of 1920, commonly known as the “Jones Act,” requires that all shipping between United States (U.S.) ports be conducted by U.S. built, flagged, crewed and owned vessels; and

Whereas, The Jones Act was originally intended to promote and maintain a merchant marine industry for the sake of domestic commerce and provide appropriate vessels and trained crews ready to assist the U.S. Navy and military in time of war or national emergency; and

Whereas, Puerto Rico, a U.S. territory and island in the Caribbean, is almost entirely reliant on shipping for the receipt of goods; and

Whereas, Therefore, the requirements of the Jones Act affect the cost of nearly every product Puerto Ricans consume; and

Whereas, According to a 2012 report by the New York Federal Reserve, the cost of shipping a 20 foot container to Puerto Rico from the East Coast of the U.S. was twice the cost of delivering the same container to nearby ports in the Dominican Republic or Jamaica; and

Whereas, According to a 2013 Government Accountability Office (GAO) report, Puerto Rico's freight shipping needs are primarily met by four carriers with a combined fleet of 17 vessels with an average age of 39 years for containerships and 31 years for barges; and

Whereas, According to the U.S. Energy Information Administration, per capita, Puerto Rican energy usage is two-fifths less than that of mainland Americans, yet their cost of electricity, approximately 27 cents per kilo-watt hour, is twice the average cost on the mainland; and

Whereas, A principal reason for high energy costs is Puerto Rico's reliance on expensive petroleum to generate electricity, due in part, to a limited universe of Jones Act qualified carriers for its bulk cargo needs; and

Whereas, A 2013 GAO report identified three Jones Act carriers with a total of six vessels, available on a limited basis, that serve Puerto Rico's bulk cargo needs, such as petroleum and grain; and

Whereas, Limited availability of Jones Act qualified bulk cargo carriers has obliged Puerto Rico to import oil and gas from foreign sources; and

Whereas, The Puerto Rico Electric Power Authority had planned to expand its use of liquefied natural gas (LNG), but expressed concerns, cited in the GAO report, regarding the availability of Jones Act qualified vessels capable of shipping cheaper LNG from the U.S.; and

Whereas, Puerto Rico's economy is currently in great financial distress as the island's residents are experiencing an unemployment rate of 12.6%, which is more than twice the national average, and a poverty rate nearly double that of Mississippi, the poorest state in the Union; and

Whereas, According to a recent Puerto Rican government commissioned report by International Monetary Fund economist, Anne Krueger, the Puerto Rican economy has seen virtually no growth since 1996; and

Whereas, In this climate of falling revenues and rising costs, Puerto Rico's government has accrued a debt in excess of $73 billion dollars that it simply cannot pay; and

Whereas, There is wide consensus that costs associated with the Jones Act are a drag on the Puerto Rican economy and hinder Puerto Rico's ability to grow its way out of this crisis; and

Whereas, The aged fleet of freight vessels serving Puerto Rico neither promote the shipbuilding industry, nor provide up to date vessels for maritime emergency needs, as was the original Jones Act intent; and

Whereas, Exemption from the Jones Act is not without precedent for United States territories as the U.S. Virgin Islands are exempt from the Jones Act; and

Whereas, Failure to address this obstacle to the growth of Puerto Rico's economy in the face of its economic collapse, would constitute a dereliction of the federal constitutional obligation to promote the general welfare of its citizens—3.6 million of whom inhabit the island of Puerto Rico—and represents a concern for all Americans; and

Whereas, Conditions in Puerto Rico are especially distressing for the approximately 800,000 New Yorkers of Puerto Rican descent with cultural and familial ties to the island; now therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the city of New York calls upon the United States Congress to pass and the President to sign legislation allowing an economic hardship exemption for Puerto Rico from the Merchant Marine Act of 1920, commonly known as the "Jones Act."

Referred to the Committee on State and Federal Legislation.

The mayor shall, upon granting such a petition, provide the council with a copy of such grant, the basis for such exemption and responses to any comments raised at the public hearing on such petition, and the petitioning agency shall thereafter be exempt from such requirement.

Res. No. 837

Resolution in support of President Barack Obama's Second Chance Pell Pilot Program, which will initiate new models to allow incarcerated individuals to receive Pell Grants to finance their education.

By Council Members Barron, Chin, King, Mendez, Richards, Williams and Crowley.

Whereas, The Federal Pell Grant Program, which provides need-based grants to low-income undergraduate and certain post-baccalaureate students for postsecondary education costs, was established in 1972 pursuant to amendments to Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965; and

Whereas, The United States Office of Federal Student Aid is the largest provider of student financial aid in the country and the Federal Pell Grant Program is the government's largest grant program for helping low-income students attend college; and

Whereas, The passage of Title IV initially permitted incarcerated individuals to apply for federal financial aid for college courses and, in doing so, provided the funding required to ensure the financial stability of correctional education programs; and

Whereas, By 1991, the cost of incarceration and the cost of attending college rose dramatically and it eventually became a point of contention for inmates to have access to federally-supported higher education while an increasing number of non-incarcerated Americans were having trouble paying for college; and

Whereas, According to the Encyclopedia of Prisons and Correctional Facilities ("Encyclopedia"), by 1973, there were 182 college programs operating in U.S. prisons, by 1982, the number of programs peaked with 350 active in 45 states and approximately 27,000 inmates received some form of postsecondary education; and

Whereas, The Encyclopedia notes that the total percentage of the Federal Pell Grant Program's annual budget spent in the 1993-94 school year on higher education for inmates only accounted for one-tenth of 1 percent; and

Whereas, According to the U.S. Department of Education (DOE), of the 3,327,683 students awarded Pell Grants in the 1993-94 school year, only 25,168, or fewer than 1%, were prisoners; and

Whereas, Through a provision of the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, signed by President Bill Clinton, students incarcerated at a federal or state penal institution became ineligible to participate in the Federal Pell Grant Program; and

Whereas, A Federal Pell Grant is the foundation for all federal student aid awarded and, unlike a loan, does not have to be repaid; and

Whereas, According to the DOE, as the cost and of a postsecondary education has become greater than ever, loans are now the largest source of financial aid for tuition and fees, even for the lowest-income students; and

Whereas, According to the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities, during the Great Recession, which began in December 2007 and ended in June 2009, the U.S. suffered through its longest, and by most measures worst economic recession since the Great Depression, with an unemployment rate that rose far higher than that of the previous two recessions, and a slow recovery; and

Whereas, According to Georgetown University's Center on Education and the Workforce (CEW), the Great Recession contributed to the increasing divide between the less educated and those with more education; and

Whereas, In 2013 CEW reported that nearly four out of five jobs lost were held by those with only a high school diploma while those who had earned at least a Bachelor's degree were largely protected against job losses and even had some job gains; and

Whereas, Even in the post-recession job recovery, the CEW study showed that workers with less than, or at least, a high school diploma have continued to lose jobs while more than half of the employment increases have gone to workers holding a Bachelor's degree, or better, and the rest of the employment gains to those with some college education or an Associate degree; and

Whereas, An analysis of data on the educational attainment of state prisoners in 2004 from the U.S. Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS) and the National Assessment of Adult Literacy, published in a 2013 RAND report, showed that 36.6 percent of inmates had less than a high school education compared with 19 percent of the general U.S. population aged 16 and older, 16.5 percent only had a high school diploma compared with 26 percent of the general population and 14.4 percent had attained some postsecondary education compared with 51 percent of the general population; and

Whereas, CEW estimates that by 2020, 65 percent of all jobs will require postsecondary education and training, 35 percent will require a Bachelor's degree, at minimum, and 30 percent will require some college or an Associate degree; and

Whereas, According to the International Centre for Prison Studies, the U.S. leads the world in persons incarcerated by a substantial margin; and

Whereas, BJS estimates that in 2013 there were 2,220,300 adults, about 0.91% or 1 in 110 adults, held in local jails or under the jurisdiction of state or federal prisons, representing a 500 percent increase over the last forty years; and

Whereas, According to BJS, the rate of incarceration is disproportionately higher for certain gender, race and ethnic groups, with currently more than 60 percent of the prison population comprised of low-skilled minority males; and

Whereas, BJS data shows black men have a one in three lifetime likelihood of imprisonment and are six times more likely to be incarcerated than white men; and

Whereas, BJS further shows that Latino men have a one in six lifetime likelihood of imprisonment and are 2.4 times more likely to be incarcerated than white men, who have a one in 17 lifetime likelihood of imprisonment; and

Whereas, A 2003 assessment of English literacy from a sample of state and federal prisoners and a sample of non-incarcerated adults living in U.S. households, cited in the 2013 RAND report, showed that on average, inmates had lower literacy scores on all three measured scales than the general U.S. population; and

Whereas, In addition to having lower levels of educational attainment than the general population, offenders often lack vocational skills and a steady history of employment, which is a significant challenge for reintegration while the dynamics of prison entry and re-entry further encumber this population's ability to accumulate meaningful, sustained work experience; and

Whereas, According to a 2011 Pew Center Report, one of the main obstacles to reducing America's enormous prison population is the high rate of recidivism; and

Whereas, Today, despite a massive increase in total state spending on correctional programs, more than $68 billion annually in the U.S., nearly half of all released offenders nationwide return to a state prison within three years of their release; and

Whereas, The Education from the Inside Out Coalition (EIOC), a national collaborative advocating for higher education access for incarcerated and recently incarcerated individuals, asserts "For every dollar invested in correctional education programs, two dollars are saved through prevented recidivism"; and

Whereas, Rising incarceration trends in the U.S. have resulted in prison overcrowding and fiscal burdens on states to accommodate an expanding penal system, which highlights a better public return on spent correctional dollars; and

Whereas, The 2013 RAND report found that, on average, inmates who participated in correctional education programs were 43 percent less likely to return to prison within three years than inmates who did not; and

Whereas, EIOC reported that while 43.3 percent of formerly incarcerated individuals are likely to return to prison within three years of release, the likelihood drops to 13.7 percent for Associate degree recipients, 5.6 percent for Bachelor's degree recipients and less than 1 percent for Master's degree recipients; and

Whereas, According to the U.S. National Institutes of Health, more than 700,000 individuals are released from state and federal prisons annually and many ex-offenders are concentrated in poor and minority neighborhoods, hence preparing them for successful reintegration back into society by improving their earning potential and employability would have a meaningful and positive impact on our communities; and

Whereas, On July 31, 2015, "as part of the Obama Administration's commitment to create a fairer, more effective criminal justice system, reduce recidivism, and combat the impact of mass incarceration on communities," U.S. Education Secretary Arne Duncan announced the Second Chance Pell Pilot Program, asserting that "America is a nation of second chances" and "Giving people who have made mistakes in their lives a chance to get back on track and become contributing members of society is fundamental to who we are"; and

Whereas, The Second Chance Pell Pilot Program will allow, on a temporary basis, eligible incarcerated individuals to access federal financial aid for the first time in 20 years, giving inmates the opportunity to pursue life-changing postsecondary education, so as to find gainful employment and become productive citizens, successfully independent and financially stable Americans; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York supports President Barack Obama's Second Chance Pell Pilot Program, which will initiate new models to allow incarcerated individuals to receive Pell Grants to finance their education.

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the suspension of parking meter regulations on days that New York City public schools are closed because of inclement weather

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Title 19 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 19-167.4 to read as follows:

§ 19-167.4 Suspending the activation of parking meters during inclement weather. No person parking a vehicle at a parking meter or a muni-meter is required to activate such meter on any day that the mayor has declared the city's public schools closed because of inclement weather. Where a notice of violation is issued to an owner or operator of a vehicle for the failure to activate a parking meter or a muni-meter, it is an affirmative defense to such violation that the city's public schools were declared to be closed because of inclement weather. For the purposes of this section, the term "muni-meter" means an electronic parking meter that dispenses timed receipts that must be displayed in a conspicuous place on a vehicle's dashboard.

f. Resolution condemning the inequitable contract between the City of New York and LinkNYC which will provide better Wi-Fi access to areas throughout the City where advertising is deemed more profitable, and calling for revenue sharing profits from this contract to be invested in efforts to increase Wi-Fi access in the Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens and Staten Island.

By Council Members Cabrera, Mealy, Mendez and Rose.

Whereas, Payphones are generally considered outdated as a result of mobile devices, and a large number of the City's 11,000 payphones are often broken; and

Whereas, In 1999, the City entered into a number of franchise contracts for installation and maintenance of public payphones which expired in October 2014; and

Whereas, On December 4, 2012, then Mayor Michael R. Bloomberg, along with the Department of Information Technology and Telecommunications (DoITT) announced the Reinvent Payphones Design Challenge, a competition to modernize payphone infrastructure throughout the City; and

Whereas, On December 10, 2014, Mayor Bill de Blasio announced the approval of the City's LinkNYC proposal by the Franchise and Concession Review Committee to expand free, high-speed Internet access throughout the City; and

Whereas, LinkNYC is a public-private partnership between the Mayor's Office of Technology and Innovation, DoITT and CityBridge, a consortium whose members include Comark, Qualcomm, Control Group, Titan, Antenna and Transit Wireless; and

Whereas, As part of the proposal, LinkNYC will install approximately 10,000 digital kiosks, replacing the City's pay phones over the next 12 years providing New Yorkers with free Wi-Fi connections, free calls to anywhere in the United States, touchscreen displays with access to city services including 911 and 311, maps and directions, free charging stations for mobile devices and digital displays for advertising; and

Whereas, In addition, residents and tourists will receive high-speed Internet service ranging from 100 megabits per second to one gigabit per second within 150 feet of the kiosks; and

Whereas, Although the project is expected to generate $500 million for the City, some elected officials and city residents have expressed concerns that the project will disproportionately benefit Manhattan with the borough receiving more kiosks and better Wi-Fi service than low-income areas in the outer boroughs, which will receive fewer kiosks and slower connection speeds; and

Whereas, In order to partially recompense low-income communities which will receive fewer kiosks and relatively low bandwidth access in accordance with the contract's terms, revenue sharing profits from this contract should be invested in efforts to increase Wi-Fi access in the Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens and Staten Island; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York condemns the inequitable contract between the City of New York and LinkNYC which will provide better Wi-Fi access to areas throughout the City where advertising is deemed more profitable, and calling for revenue sharing profits from this contract to be invested in efforts to increase Wi-Fi access in the Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens and Staten Island.

Res. No. 839

Resolution calling on the United States Congress to introduce and pass legislation to allow states and municipalities to expand upon the Food and Drug Administration's nutritional labeling requirements on menus and menu boards

By Council Members Cabrera, Eugene, Gentile, Koo and Richards.

Whereas, The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (ACA) of 2010 directs the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) to establish menu labeling requirements for restaurants, similar retail food establishments and vending machines; and

Whereas, On December 1, 2014, FDA finalized two rules requiring that calorie information be listed on menus and menu boards for standard menu items offered for sale in a restaurant or similar retail food establishment that is part of a chain with 20 or more locations, doing business under the same name, and offering for sale substantially the same menu items; and

Whereas, According to the FDA, Americans eat and drink about one-third of their calories away from home; and

Whereas, Consumers should be provided with nutritional information at food service establishments to make informed decisions regarding food purchases; and

Whereas, The ACA specifies that State or local governments cannot impose nutrition labeling requirements for foods sold in establishments covered by the final FDA rules, unless such requirements are identical to the federal requirements; and

Whereas, Although the FDA's new rules require calorie information to be posted, the new rules do not require additional nutritional information, such as sodium content; and

Whereas, About 90 percent of Americans eat too much sodium, which can cause high blood pressure, according to the FDA; and

Whereas, According to a study published in JAMA Internal Medicine, most adults in the United States consume more added sugar than is recommended for a healthy diet and the odds of dying from heart disease rise with the percentage of sugar in the diet; and

Whereas, The New York City Board of Health required calorie postings on menus in 2008 and recently passed a requirement for restaurants to include warnings on food items with excessive sodium contents; and

Whereas, New York City strives to be at the forefront of consumer nutrition education and should not be restricted from expanding the FDA's nutrition labeling requirements; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls on the United States Congress to introduce and pass legislation to allow states and municipalities to expand upon the Food and Drug Administration's nutritional labeling requirements on menus and menu boards.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Title 23 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new chapter 8 to read as follows:

CHAPTER 8

NOTIFICATION OF COMPLAINTS AGAINST BUSINESSES

§ 23-801 Notifying businesses of complaints. The department of information technology and telecommunications shall establish an online system that enables business owners to register to receive notifications each time the name or address of their business is provided as part of a 311 complaint. Such notifications shall be delivered by voicemail, text message and/or email in accordance with the business owner's preference. Such notifications shall be delivered within 72 hours after the 311 complaint is made and shall provide a brief explanation of the nature of the complaint, but shall not include the name or other identifying information of the complainant.

Res. No. 840

Resolution calling upon the New York State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, legislation that would allow limited liability companies formed in New York to fulfill their publication requirement by publishing on the New York Department of State's website or on an online news site

By Council Members Cornegy, Barron, Cabrera, Constantinides, Gentile, Rose and Wills.

Whereas, Many small businesses throughout the United States opt to incorporate as a limited liability company ("LLC") due to the relatively flexible corporate structure of the LLC as compared to other corporate structures; and

Whereas, The New York State Limited Liability Company Law requires a newly-formed LLC to publish notice of its formation once a week for six successive weeks in two newspapers in the county in which the office of the LLC is located before it can file a Certificate of Publication with the New York Department of State to complete formation (the "publication requirement"); and

Whereas, If a New York LLC fails to comply with the publication requirement within 120 days after formation, its authority to carry on, conduct or transact any business is suspended; and

Whereas, The purported original intent of the publication requirement was to give the local public notice of the company's existence and operations and to protect the public against fraud, the nonperformance of contractual, financial or other obligations and the usurpation of creditors' rights; and

Whereas, According to a September 27, 2012 Pew Research Center study on Trends in News Consumption, starting in 2011-2012, online and digital news sources surpassed other forms of media consumption to become the primary means of news consumption, especially as more people have begun to and continue to read their news on cell phones, tablets or other mobile platforms; and

Whereas, If the purported intent of the publication requirement is to give notice to the local public, then online publication of an LLC's formation is a more wide-reaching and effective means of giving notice than publication in printed form; and

Whereas, Fulfilling the publication requirement can cost an LLC more than $2,000 in New York City, where print newspapers charge the highest rates in the state; and

Whereas, Because of the high costs of the publication requirement, many new companies – especially small businesses – are discouraged from forming LLCs in New York, which results in the loss of the presence of such businesses and of the potential revenue from associated taxes and fees; and

Whereas, The Department of State could publish notices of newly-formed LLCs on its website for a small administrative fee; and

Whereas, If New York State also allowed for the publication requirement to be satisfied by publication on online news sites, online news sites could offer publishing fees that were competitive with the administrative fees that the Department of State would charge for publication; and

Whereas, New York State should modify the antiquated and onerous publication requirements for LLCs formed in New York in order to promote the establishment of new companies and small businesses within New York State and New York City; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, legislation that would allow limited liability companies formed in New York to fulfill their publication requirement by publishing on the New York Department of State's website or on an online news site.

Res. No. 841

Resolution calling upon the State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, A.7938 / S.5056-A, an act that would authorize the city of New York to institute a tenant rent increase exemption program for tenants who pay over fifty percent of their incomes in rent and who reside within certain rent-regulated properties

By Council Members Crowley, Barron, Gentile and Chin.

Whereas, Pursuant to authorization provided by the State’s Real Property Tax Law, New York City currently protects eligible senior citizens and people with disabilities from certain rent increases imposed by their landlords if they have total annual household incomes of $50,000 or less, pay more than one-third of their monthly incomes on rent, and live in a rent-regulated apartment; and

Whereas, This benefit is provided pursuant to the senior citizen rent increase exemption (“SCRIE”) and disability rent increase exemption (“DRIE”) programs, collectively referred to as the New York City Rent Freeze Program (“Rent Freeze Program”); and

Whereas, Senior citizens and people with disabilities who are enrolled in the Rent Freeze Program have their rents frozen at either their prior legal rent or one-third of their income, whichever is greater, with future rent increases paid by the City to landlords in the form of a real property tax abatement credit; and

Whereas, No comparable benefit currently exists for similarly rent-burdened, low-income households without a senior citizen or person with a disability eligible for SCRIE or DRIE; and

Whereas, On May 20, 2015, the New York State Senate passed S. 5056-A, and on June 1, 2015, the New York State Assembly introduced A. 7938; and

Whereas, This legislation would authorize New York City to expand the Rent Freeze Program to include a Tenant Rent Increase Exemption (“TRIE”) program; and

Whereas, According to the legislation’s Memorandum in Support, the TRIE program would provide relief to those who, after paying their housing costs, have the least amount of income left to acquire the necessities of daily living; and

Whereas, The TRIE program would benefit households that earn $50,000 or less per year, pay more than one-half of their monthly incomes in rent, and live in rent-regulated apartments; and

Whereas, Similar to the SCRIE and DRIE programs, TRIE beneficiaries would have their rents frozen at the time of enrollment in the program and future rent increases would be paid by the City to landlords in the form of a real property tax abatement credit; and

Whereas, Also similar to the SCRIE and DRIE programs, the State would reimburse the City in the amount of ten percent of the real property tax revenue lost each fiscal year as a result of TRIE; and

Whereas, According to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (“HUD”), for a household’s housing costs to be considered “affordable” those costs must not exceed one-third of the household’s monthly income; and

Whereas, Households that pay more than one-third of their monthly income in rent are considered rent-burdened; and

Whereas, Households that pay more than one-half of their monthly income in rent are considered severely rent-burdened; and

Whereas, In New York City, the number of households that are severely rent-burdened is unacceptably high; and

Whereas, In February 2015, the City’s Department of Housing Preservation and Development released the initial results of the 2014 New York City Housing and Vacancy Survey (“2014 HVS”), a legally mandated, triennial survey conducted to determine New York City’s overall vacancy rate for rental housing; and

Whereas, The 2014 HVS found that nearly thirty percent of the City’s renter households are severely rent-burdened; and

Whereas, According to HUD, in addition to struggling to afford their rents, rent-burdened and severely-rent burdened households may have difficulty affording other necessities, such as food and medical care; and

Whereas, Just as the SCRIE and DRIE programs have been successful in ensuring that thousands of senior citizens and people with disabilities are able to remain in their homes each year, the TRIE program would be a lifeline for many severely rent-burdened New Yorkers who face financial difficulties; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, A.7938 / S.5056-A, an act that would authorize the city of New York to institute a tenant rent increase exemption program for tenants who pay over fifty percent of their incomes in rent and who reside within certain rent-regulated properties.

council a report that shall include the determination and the basis for such determination.

Res. No. 842

Resolution calling upon the New York City Department of Education to include a check box on school lunch forms to enable parents to indicate whether they want regular or vegetarian meal options for children during the school year, and requiring DOE to continually update their forms if any other options are offered in the future.

By Council Members Espinal, Barron, Cabrera, Constantinides, Eugene, Gentile, Koslowitz and Mendez.

Whereas, The New York City Department of Education (DOE) is the largest public school system in the United States (U.S.), serving approximately 1.1 million students; and

Whereas, According to the New York City Department of Education (DOE), the Office of School Food (SchoolFood) serves approximately 850,000 meals a day to students, of which more than 700,000 are provided at no charge; and

Whereas, In addition to regular menu options, SchoolFood offers vegetarian breakfast and lunch menu options; and

Whereas, Although DOE lists menu offerings on its website, it is unclear whether DOE uses any other mechanisms to actively advertise the availability of vegetarian menu options to students and families; and

Whereas, It is also unclear how students and families currently indicate their preference for vegetarian menu options; and

Whereas, At the beginning of each school year, families are asked to complete a school meals application to determine whether students are eligible for free or reduced-price lunch; and

Whereas, Parents can complete a paper application distributed by schools or they can apply online at nyc.applyforlunch.com; and

Whereas, Only one application, either paper or online, needs to be completed for all children (pre-k to high school) living in a household; and

Whereas, Since all families are asked to complete a single school lunch application every year covering all children in the household, adding a check box on the form to indicate preference for regular or vegetarian menu options would be the most efficient way for families to make their preferences known; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York City Department of Education to include a check box on school lunch forms to enable parents to indicate whether they want regular or vegetarian meal options for children during the school year, and requiring DOE to continually update their forms if any other options are offered in the future.

Res. No. 843

Resolution calling upon the New York State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, A.7272/S.5823-A, in relation to increasing the minimum gross registered vehicle weight requirement for tow trucks to decrease illegal tow truck chasing.

By Council Members Espinal and Cabrera.

Whereas, The practice of tow truck “chasing” refers to tow truck operators that illegally monitor police radio transmissions to learn of vehicular accidents and then race to accident scenes in an attempt to secure towing and ancillary repair work; and

Whereas, New York City established the Directed Accident Response Program (“DARP”) in an effort to end the practice of tow truck chasing after tow trucks racing to accident scenes caused several traffic deaths; and

Whereas, Under DARP, only licensed and participating towing companies placed on a rotating list and summoned by the New York City Police Department can remove vehicles that cannot be safely driven from a motor vehicle accident scene; and

Whereas, Light duty pickup trucks with hidden towing booms that have a gross vehicle weight rating (GVWR) of under 10,000 pounds and are built more for speed than safety still engage in chasing in order to arrive at an accident scene before the NYPD so that they can engage in unlawfully offering cars involved in accidents better tow and repair rates than might be available through DARP; and

Whereas, The GVWR of a vehicle is the manufacturer’s design capacity for the weight of a vehicle and its heaviest load; and

Whereas, It is unsafe to tow motor vehicles with a tow truck that has a GVWR less than 10,000 pounds because the weight of most towed vehicles will cause the front axle weight of the tow truck to be reduced by more than 50 percent, and such a reduction in weight will compromise the braking and steering capacity of the tow truck; and

Whereas, Light duty pickup trucks pose serious hazards to drivers, bicyclists, and pedestrians when they engage in tow truck chasing, especially in a dense and bustling city such as New York City where the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles reported 11,050 pedestrian/motor vehicle crashes and 294 deaths attributed to crashes in 2013; and

Whereas, A.7272, sponsored by Assembly Member Marcos Crespo, and its companion bill S.05823-A, sponsored by Senator Andrew Lanza, seek to amend the vehicle and traffic law to increase the GVWR of tow trucks from 8,600 pounds to 10,000 pounds in order to prohibit the use of light duty pickup trucks, most of which weigh less than 10,000 pounds, as tow trucks; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, A.7272/S.5823A, a bill that amends the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to increasing the minimum gross

Resolution calling upon the New York State legislature to pass and the Governor to sign A.8186-A/S.5886-A, an act to amend the General Business Law and the Vehicle and Traffic Law, in relation to the transfer of motor vehicles as scrap.

By Council Members Espinal and Gentile.

Whereas, Auto theft, once rampant in the City of New York, is now less frequent than it has been in decades; and

Whereas, In 1990, there were 2,000 auto theft occurrences for every 100,000 residents, yet in 2013, there were only 88 such thefts for the same number of residents—a 96% decline; and

Whereas, One of the factors that contributed to this decline is the auto industry's introduction, during the 1990's, of immobilizer technology, which involves microchips embedded in the vehicle's ignition key to prevent the automobile from starting without the key; and

Whereas, While newer automobiles are protected by immobilizer technology, older automobiles are not, and according to reports from law enforcement and other local sources, car thieves have turned increasingly to older, unprotected vehicles; and

Whereas, In addition to these vehicles being easier to steal, the rising value of commodities such as scrap metal has made older, heavier vehicles an easy, lucrative target for car thieves; and

Whereas, An anachronism in the Vehicle and Traffic Law further facilitates the sale of these stolen vehicles as scrap metal; and

Whereas, In an effort to eliminate the blight of abandoned automobiles and facilitate sale to vehicle dismantlers and scrap processors, the law allows the use of a substitute ownership document, such as the Department of Motor Vehicles Form MV-35, in place of the title for purposes of transferring ownership if an automobile is eight years or older and has with a fair market value of $1,250 or less; and

Whereas, According a recent IHS Inc. automotive study, the average age of automobiles in America stands at an all-time high of 11.4 years and is expected to increase; and

Whereas, According to police and local reports, there have been many instances of stolen vehicles sold as scrap by unauthorized sellers using the MV-35; and

Whereas, A.8186-A/S.5886-A would amend the use of substitute ownership documents for the sale of vehicles as scrap by increasing the age of qualifying vehicles from eight years to twelve; and

Whereas, The bill would also increase the required retention of records of such transactions from three years to five, as well as require the exclusive use of government issued identification by the seller; and

Whereas, A.8186-A/S.5886-A addresses the increasing longevity of modern automobiles and the appropriate use of substitute ownership documents for the sale of these vehicles as scrap; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York State legislature to pass and the Governor to sign A.8186-A/S.5886-A, an act to amend the General Business Law and the Vehicle and Traffic Law, in relation to the transfer of motor vehicles as scrap.

Res. No. 845

Resolution calling upon the New York State Education Department to expand the State's financial literacy and personal finance education curriculum to all grades K through 12.

By Council Members Espinal, Levine, Barron, Constantinides, Eugene, Gentile, Gibson, Mendez and Rose.

Whereas, According to the U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO), financial literacy is “the ability to use knowledge and skills to manage financial resources effectively”; and

Whereas, In a 2011 proclamation marking the start of National Financial Literacy Month, President Barack Obama stated, “Americans' ability to build a secure future for themselves and their families requires the navigation of an increasingly complex financial system. As we recover from the worst economic crisis in generations, it is more important than ever to be knowledgeable about the consequences of our financial decisions...”; and

Whereas, Financial literacy has thus become increasingly important as Americans recover from economic hardship experienced during the recent recession and confront additional challenges, such as responsibility to pay for health care and accumulate retirement savings; and

Whereas, However, recent national surveys, such as one conducted by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority in 2012, show that the financial knowledge and skills of Americans, including those of young people, are not keeping pace with the demands of financial life; and

Whereas, Nearly all experts agree that financial education should start early in children's lives; and

Whereas, According to research revealed in the Spring 2015 Journal of Consumer Affairs “Special Issue on Starting Early for Financial Success,” children as young as age 3 possess the ability to develop a foundation for learning about financial matters and to apply what they learn; and

Whereas, Research also shows that, by age 5 or 6, children are developmentally capable of using savings accounts and demonstrating saving behaviors; and

Whereas, Further, in a field test researchers found that, after modest amounts of financial education, elementary school students retained lessons on financial knowledge, behaviors, and attitudes; and

Whereas, Currently, New York State only requires instruction in personal finance in high school as part of the 12th grade social studies curriculum; and

Whereas, According to the New York State Education Department (NYSED) social studies framework, the 12th grade curriculum “Economics, the Enterprise System, and Finance” examines the principles of the United States free market economy in a global context and instructs students on their individual responsibility for managing their personal finances; and

Whereas, Delivering such instruction only in the 12th grade is too late to provide students with the foundational knowledge and skills to manage financial resources effectively; and

Whereas, In its January 2013 final report, the President’s Advisory Council on Financial Capability (President’s Advisory Council) recognized the need and urgency of equipping our youth with the financial skills to plan for a successful future and encouraged states to implement effective, evidence based strategies to integrate content within K-12 school curricula; and

Whereas, To that end, the President’s Advisory Council developed an initiative, www.MoneyAsYouLearn.org, to incorporate critical personal finance competencies into teaching of the Common Core State Standards for English and mathematics in grades K-12; and

Whereas, Additionally, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) has developed four free age-appropriate curriculums that are designed to promote financial understanding for students in grades Pre-K to 12 called Money Smart for Young People; and

Whereas, In addition to compelling research evidence on the importance of starting financial education early, the availability of free financial literacy curriculum resources should enable the NYSED to expand personal finance education in grades K-12 without excessive costs; and

Whereas, The financial health of New York City, as well as the State and the nation, depends on the financial knowledge and skills of its residents; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York State Education Department to expand the State’s financial literacy and personal finance education curriculum to all grades K through 12.

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to opportunities for disabled-owned business enterprises in city procurement

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Title 6 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 6-138.1 to read as follows:

Resolution calling upon the New York City Department of Education to expand vegetarian lunch menu options for students at New York City public schools.

By Council Members Ferreras-Copeland, Espinal, Barron, Cabrera, Chin, Constantinides, Eugene, Koo, Koslowitz, Lander, Mendez and Richards.

Whereas, The New York City Department of Education (DOE) is the largest public school system in the United States (U.S.) serving approximately 1.1 million students; and

Whereas, Accordingly, DOE's Office of School Food, known as "SchoolFood," is the largest school food service provider in the U.S., providing over 850,000 total meals each day to students in over 1,700 locations; and

Whereas, In recent years, SchoolFood has taken a number of steps to improve the health and nutrition of school meals and to expand access to more students; and

Whereas, In 2004, SchoolFood hired an executive chef to introduce new recipes and to reformulate popular menu items to make them healthier and more enticing to students; and

Whereas, According to the DOE, SchoolFood has reduced sodium, fat and cholesterol content in meals served; and

Whereas, In addition, SchoolFood has replaced white flour pasta with whole grain pasta, replaced whole milk with fat free and low fat milk varieties and has included more fresh fruits and vegetables in school meals; and

Whereas, DOE has also made significant investments in kitchen and cafeteria infrastructure in recent years, including the installation of more than 600 salad bars in schools throughout the City; and

Whereas, Additionally, SchoolFood has piloted several programs, such as the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Program, in a small number of City schools; and

Whereas, Another initiative, "Garden to Café" was started by SchoolFood and the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets in collaboration with Cornell Cooperative Extension, GreenThumb, and more than 20 community-based organizations; and

Whereas, The goals of "Garden to Café" are to promote vegetarian options, connect students to local food and farming, increase awareness of school gardening, and provide opportunities to integrate school gardening and school lunch; and

Whereas, SchoolFood has also created vegetarian breakfast and lunch menus, to provide vegetarian options for students who prefer them; and

Whereas, The number and range of vegetarian menu options is not as extensive as the non-vegetarian options available; and

Whereas, Further, vegetarian lunch menus are currently only available for elementary and Kindergarten through 8th grade schools but not for middle or high schools; and,

Whereas, To promote good health and combat childhood obesity, a wide variety of vegetarian menu options should be offered to students at all grade levels in all schools; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York City Department of Education to expand vegetarian lunch menu options for students at New York City public schools.

Res. No. 848

Resolution calling upon the New York State Legislature and the People of the State of New York to amend the State Constitution, and the New York State Legislature to pass and the Governor to sign legislation amending the Election Law to establish same-day and online voter registration.

By Council Members Kallos, Cabrera, Barron, Chin, Gentile, Gibson, Lander and Menchaca.

Whereas, According to analysis conducted by the United States Elections Project (USEP), only 36.4% of eligible voters nationally cast ballots in the 2014 midterm elections, setting the lowest number since 1942, when the country was engaged in World War II; and

Whereas, In the same elections, only 29% of eligible voters voted in New York State, making it 49th in the nation in terms of voter participation, according to USEP data; and

Whereas, New York City's voter turnout rate for the 2014 midterm elections was even more alarming, with only about 20% of eligible voters casting ballots, hitting a historic low, according to the New York City Campaign Finance Board; and

Whereas, Most of the states with the highest voter turnout rates have implemented various electoral reforms to increase voter participation, including same-day registration; and

Whereas, Fifteen states and the District of Columbia have enacted reform to offer same-day registration, according to the public policy group Demos; and

Whereas, Using 2012 presidential election data, Demos found that four of the top five states for voter turnout had implemented same-day registration; and

Whereas, Furthermore, Demos' analysis of presidential elections' turnout rates from 1980 to 2012 revealed that the average turnout rate in states with same-day registration was 10.3% higher than the average in states without the reform; and

Whereas, Some states have more than 15% of their voters using same-day registration, including Minnesota at 17.89% and Idaho at 17.69%, according to Demos; and

Whereas, Currently in New York State, registration forms must be postmarked at least 25 days before an upcoming election, causing many potential voters to miss their chance because they fail to meet the deadline; and

Whereas, Another voter-friendly reform supported by many voter participation advocates is online registration; and

Whereas, The Presidential Commission on Election Administration (PCEA), in its 2014 report to President Obama, listed as its top recommendation the implementation of online registration as an option for all voters; and

Whereas, An online registration system typically requires the potential voter to have some form of state-issued identification card, such as a driver's license, because a signature is needed to complete an application, and a signature on file at a state's motor vehicles agency can be transferred electronically to election officials; and

Whereas, As of July of 2015, 21 states, including New York, offer online registration to applicants with an existing signature in the motor vehicles agency's database, and an additional six states have passed legislation to offer it, according to the National Conference of State Legislatures; and

Whereas, Several of these 21 states have gone further and offer online registration to applicants without a state-issued identification card, including Minnesota, Delaware, and Missouri, according to the Brennan Center for Justice; and

Whereas, PCEA's 2014 report found that Arizona, which was the first in the nation to introduce this practice in 2002, saw an increase in registration rates from 29% to 53% among young voters after the state created an online system; and

Whereas, PCEA's 2014 report also showed that in Arizona in 2008, 94% of online registrants voted, compared to 85% of registrants by paper; and

Whereas, In addition to increasing registration rate and turnout rate, PCEA also credits online registration systems with increasing the accuracy of voter rolls, which in turn reduces delays and congestion at poll sites; and

Whereas, Furthermore, PCEA states that jurisdictions reap significant cost savings from using online registration, citing a county in Arizona that has saved 80 cents in labor cost for each online registration; and

Whereas, Since same-day and online registration have both proven to be successful in increasing voter participation, New York State should enact same-day registration and expand online registration to include applicants without a state-issued identification card; and

Whereas, To maximize potential voters' use of these two effective tools, every poll site in New York State on election day should have electronic devices with access to online registration so that potential voters can register and then immediately vote at the site; now, therefore, be it

Resolution calling upon the New York State Department of Education to make optional a coding class in grades 6-8 and make compulsory coding class during grades 9-12.

By Council Members Levine, Barron, Gentile, Mendez, Richards and Rose.

Whereas, In a 2013 address at the annual White House Science Fair, President Obama stated one of the things that he's been focused on as President is how to create an all-hands-on-deck approach to science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM); and

Whereas, The President’s Council of Advisors on Science and Technology (PCAST) is an advisory group of the nation’s leading scientists and engineers, appointed by the President to enhance the science and technology advice available to him from inside the White House and from cabinet departments and other Federal agencies; and

Whereas, According a 2010 report by PCAST entitled Prepare and Inspire: K-12 Education in Science, Education, Technology Engineering and Math for America’s Future, “The success of the United States in the 21st century – its wealth and welfare – will depend on the ideas and skills of its population.”; and

Whereas, Additionally, the report notes that STEM education will determine whether the United States will continue to be a leader among nations and whether we will be able to solve challenges in such areas as energy, health, environmental protection, and national security; and

Whereas, Technology is one of the leading industries in job growth and is expected to continue to expand; and

Whereas, Additionally, computer coding skills are utilized in a number of different industries as they increase their reliance on technological advances; and

Whereas, Data compiled by the organization Code.org estimates that at current rates, the United States will have 1 million more computer science jobs than students with computer science degrees by 2020; and

Whereas, Although schools nationwide are starting to emphasize preparing students for work in the 21st century and provide some computer science electives, most states do not count computer science courses towards either math or science graduation requirements; and

Whereas, Computer science is the only one of the STEM fields that has seen a decrease in student participation according to the National Center for Education Statistics; and

Whereas, Education and training in these fields long before college can help ensure students’ success in transitioning to either college or work; and

Whereas, Computer coding or programming is the language that makes it possible to create computer software, applications and websites and is the backbone of technology; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York State Department of Education to make optional a coding class in grades 6-8 and make compulsory coding class during grades 9-12.

Resolution calling upon the New York City Department of Education to offer kosher and halal meals in the Summer Meals Program.

By Council Members Levine, Miller, Deutsch, Barron, Eugene, Gibson, Koslowitz, Lander, Mendez, Rose, Cohen, Greenfield, Kallos, Lancman, Treyger and Rosenthal.

Whereas, New York City is facing an increasing crisis of poverty and hunger; and

Whereas, According to the New York City Coalition Against Hunger, the City's emergency food providers (food pantries, soup kitchens, and brown bag programs) reported a 7% increase in need for their services in 2014, on top of an increased demand of 10% in 2013, 5% in 2012, 12% in 2011, 7% in 2010, and 20% in 2009; and

Whereas, Further, the Coalition's latest annual survey of hunger conducted in 2014 found that one in six New York City residents - over 1.4 million - are food insecure and nearly one in four children in the City are food insecure; and

Whereas, Most of these children have access to free, nutritious breakfast and lunch during the school year at City public schools; and

Whereas, According to the New York City Department of Education (DOE), the Office of School Food serves approximately 850,000 meals a day to students, of which more than 700,000 are provided at no charge; and

Whereas, When school is out during the summer months, thousands of children lose access to free and low-cost school breakfast and lunch; and

Whereas, However, the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) funds a summer food program to ensure that low-income children continue to receive nutritious meals when school is not in session; and

Whereas, The free Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) – commonly known as Summer Meals – provides free breakfasts and lunches throughout New York City to all children 18 years old or younger; and

Whereas, Summer Meals are prepared and supplied by the DOE's Office of School Food (SchoolFood) and served at schools, parks, pools, community centers, libraries, food pantries and soup kitchens throughout New York City; and

Whereas, In an effort to reach as many children as possible during the summer, SchoolFood deploys four mobile food trucks which visit beaches, parks, and playgrounds throughout the city to handout free, delicious, and nutritious lunches to all children 18 years old and under, with no registration, documentation, or ID required; and

Whereas, Despite these efforts, the needs of some children and youth are not adequately met by the Summer Meals program; and

Whereas, In particular, dietary needs of Jewish children who follow Judaic dietary laws and Muslim children who follow Islamic dietary laws are not currently addressed in the Summer Meals program; and

Whereas, Judaic dietary laws delineate foods that are kosher, meaning fit for consumption, and those that are treif, meaning torn or unfit for consumption; and

Whereas, Treif foods include pork and its by-products, meat and poultry not slaughtered according to the Judaic dietary law, meat mixed with dairy, shellfish and grape products not made according to Judaic dietary law; and

Whereas, Similarly, Islamic dietary laws delineate foods that are halal, meaning lawful or permitted, and those that are haram, meaning not permitted; and

Whereas, Haram foods include pork and its by-products, meat and poultry not slaughtered according to the Islamic dietary law, alcohol and foods prepared with and containing alcohol, foods containing blood and blood by-products, and foods containing whey prepared with non-microbial enzyme, rennet, animal shortening, monoglycerides and diglycerides from an animal source, sodium stearoyl lactylate, and L-cysteine; and

Whereas, New York City children who follow Judaic and Islamic dietary laws would benefit immensely if kosher and halal meals were offered in the Summer Meals Program, which is funded by the USDA; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the New York City Council calls upon the New York City Department of Education to offer kosher and halal meals in the Summer Meals Program.

Res. No. 851

Resolution calling on the State Legislature to pass and the Governor to sign legislation that would require government entities that receive funds from the New York City treasury to submit to the Mayor's Office of Contract Services a plan detailing its anticipated contracting actions for the upcoming fiscal year.

By Council Members Miller, Barron, Gentile and Gibson.

Whereas, New York City spends a significant amount of resources on contracts: according to the New York City Mayor's Office of Contract Services ("MOCS"), in fiscal year 2014, New York City procured more than $17.7 billion worth of supplies, services and construction; and

Whereas, There must be transparency in the city's contracting process to ensure that the City's limited resources are used efficiently and that both the city and its contractors are accountable to taxpaying New Yorkers; and

Whereas, In 2011, the Council passed Local Law 63, which requires the Mayor to "publish on the mayor's office of contract services website a plan and schedule for each agency," which includes all anticipated service contracts for the upcoming fiscal year; and

Whereas, Local Law 63 defines "agency" to include entities that receive funds in whole or in part from the City treasury; and

Whereas, Not only do Mayoral agencies receive funding from the City, but entities such as the Department of Education, the Health and Hospitals Corporation, and the New York City Housing Authority, receive funds from the City treasury as well; and

Whereas, As of July 15th, 2015, MOCS' website includes the annual contracting plans of Mayoral agencies but there is no information on any of these entities; and

Whereas, Since these entities receive City funds and resources, they should be held to the same accountability and transparency standards as Mayoral agencies; and

Whereas, Monitoring the contracting practices of all City funded agencies is imperative to ensuring that taxpayer funds are used efficiently and appropriately; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the State Legislature to pass and the Governor to sign legislation that would require entities that receive funds from the New York City treasury to submit to the Mayor's Office of Contract Services a plan detailing its anticipated contracting actions for the upcoming fiscal year.

Res. No. 852

Resolution calling upon the New York State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, legislation preventing the diversion of funds raised to support the Metropolitan Transportation Authority.

By Council Members Miller, Mendez and Rose.

Whereas, Every day millions of people rely on New York's public transportation system, a system that is essential to the continued growth and vibrancy of the City and the entire metropolitan region; and

Whereas, Recognizing the immense importance of a safe, reliable, and efficient public transportation system, over time New York State has implemented a series of taxes dedicated to funding mass transit; and

Whereas, In addition to fares and tolls, the Metropolitan Transportation Authority (“MTA”) relies on these dedicated revenue streams to provide subway and bus service throughout the City; and

Whereas, During challenging economic times, State government has a history of diverting funds raised through taxes dedicated to the MTA to other areas of the State budget, including the diversion of more than $260 million between 2009 and 2013; and

Whereas, In 2013, the State Legislature unanimously passed, but the Governor vetoed, A.5084, introduced by Assembly Member James F. Brennan, and companion bill S.3837, introduced by State Senator Martin J. Golden, known as the transit lockbox bill, which would have prevented the diversion of dedicated transit funds except by legislation and would have required the State to specifically disclose any such diversion, including specifically disclosing the expected impact of the diversion on mass transit services; and

Whereas, In light of the importance of sustained, reliable funding streams to maintaining the City’s essential public transportation system, similar legislation should be reintroduced and enacted; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, legislation preventing the diversion of funds raised to support the Metropolitan Transportation Authority.

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the review of data requested through FOIL for inclusion on the open data portal

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Section 23-502 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to add a new subdivision f to read as follows:

f. Whenever an agency provides a response to a freedom of information law request that includes the release of data, the person within that agency from whom such records are being obtained, as described in paragraph b of subdivision 1 of section 87 of the public officers law, shall notify and provide of copy of such data to the agency’s open data coordinator, as such term is defined by the technical standards manual. The open data coordinator shall review such data to determine if it is a part or whole of a public data set that has not yet been included on the single web portal or a part or whole of a data set that merits voluntary inclusion. If either such condition is found then the open data coordinator shall prioritize such data, or the underlying data set from which it was derived, for inclusion on the single web portal.

Res. No. 853

Resolution calling on Congress to pass, and the President to sign, H.R. 1217, also known as the Public Safety and Second Amendment Rights Protection Act of 2015, which closes loopholes in the current gun background check system.

By The Public Advocate (Ms. James) and Council Members Gentile, Gibson, Lander, Mendez, Richards and Rose.

Whereas, According to the Gun Violence Archive, there were 51,377 incidents of gun violence in the United States in 2014, resulting in 12,518 deaths and 22,886 injuries; and

Whereas, Background checks of potential gun buyers are the first line of defense to keep guns away from those who might misuse them; and

Whereas, Since the federal Brady Handgun Violence Prevention Act took effect in 1994, all federally licensed gun dealers have been required to verify that potential buyers are not prohibited from buying these weapons because they meet any of 11 criteria, including being convicted of a domestic violence crime or any crime punishable by more than a year in prison, or having been adjudicated to have certain mental conditions; and

Whereas, Background checks have proven to be an effective way to reduce gun violence; and

Whereas, According to a 2012 Mayors Against Illegal Guns study, in states requiring background checks for private handgun sales, 38% fewer women are shot and killed by intimate partners than in states without background checks; and

Whereas, The same study revealed that in states requiring checks on private sales, there are 49% fewer firearm suicides, even though the rates of suicide by other means are virtually identical in the comparison states; and

Whereas, According to U.S. Representative Mike Thompson, Chair of the House Gun Violence Prevention Task Force, every day, the current background check system stops 170 people convicted of serious crimes and 50 domestic abusers from buying a gun; and

Whereas, However, according to a National Institute of Justice estimate, buyers of 40% of all guns are not required by current law to go through background checks, because those transactions take place privately at gun shows, over the internet, or through classified ads; and

September 17, 2015

Whereas, This loophole allows anyone who would be prohibited based on information discovered in a background check to bypass the system and purchase firearms; and

Whereas, In response to this dangerous loophole, U.S. Representatives Mike Thompson and Peter King have introduced H.R. 1217, the bipartisan Public Safety and Second Amendment Rights Protection Act of 2015; and

Whereas, H.R. 1217 would expand the current law to cover all commercial sales, thus requiring background checks for all sales at gun shows, over the internet, and through classified ads; and

Whereas, H.R. 1217 would also strengthen the National Instant Criminal Background Check System by providing states incentives to improve record-sharing systems, ensuring accuracy of records regarding criminal convictions and mental health status; and

Whereas, In addition, the legislation would establish the National Commission on Mass Violence to study the availability and nature of firearms and mental health issues; and

Whereas, Expanded background checks would save lives and have the support of 91% of Americans, as well as the same percentage of gun-owning households, according to a 2013 Washington Post-ABC News poll; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls on Congress to pass, and the President to sign, H.R. 1217, also known as the Public Safety and Second Amendment Rights Protection Act of 2015, which closes loopholes in the current gun background check system.

A Local Law in relation to improving safety along bus routes

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. For the purposes of this local law, the following terms have the following meanings:

Bus route. The term “bus route” means a route that is traveled upon by a bus that is operated or owned by the metropolitan transportation authority.

Curb extension. The term “curb extension” means an expansion of the curb line into the lane of the roadway adjacent to the curb for at least 15 feet closest to a corner or mid-block where pedestrians are permitted to cross the roadway.

Leading pedestrian interval. The term "leading pedestrian interval" means a pedestrian control signal that displays a walk indication before a green indication for the parallel direction of traffic.

Traffic calming device. The term "traffic calming device" means any device, not governed by the manual on uniform traffic control devices, including, but not limited to, speed humps, curb extensions, traffic diverters, median barriers and raised walkways, installed on a street and intended to slow, reduce or alter motor vehicle traffic to improve safety for pedestrians and bicyclists.

§ 2. The department of transportation, in collaboration with the metropolitan transportation authority, shall conduct a study of incidents involving buses and pedestrians or bicyclists resulting in death or serious injury to such pedestrian or bicyclist occurring along bus routes within the previous three years. Based on such study, the department shall institute measures designed to decrease incidents involving pedestrians and bicyclists along such routes based on best practices for roadway design and operations, including but not limited to, allowing left turns to be made only on a green left arrow signal indication and other restrictions on left turns, use of curb extensions, lane narrowing and/or removal, leading pedestrian intervals, and traffic calming devices. No later than May 1, 2016, the department shall post online and submit to the speaker of the council such study, including the locations of such measures, and if no measures are implemented at a location along a bus route where an incident has occurred within the past three years, the reasons why.

Res. No. 854

Resolution calling upon the Metropolitan Transportation Authority to study ways to eliminate blind spots on all MTA buses and to equip all of these buses with sensor technology to alert drivers, pedestrians and cyclists when a pedestrian or cyclist is in the bus' blind spot.

By Council Members Rodriguez, Cabrera, Chin, Eugene, Gentile, Lander, Mendez, Rose, Menchaca and Lancman.

Whereas, According to data compiled by Transportation Alternatives, Metropolitan Transportation Authority buses have been involved in at least twenty-two fatal crashes involving pedestrians and cyclists since 2012 as well as six crashes resulting in serious injury to pedestrians and cyclists in 2015; and

Whereas, MTA bus drivers have raised concerns over blind spots, and have said that these blind spots occasionally prevent them from seeing pedestrians, cyclists or obstacles in their path, with these blind spots presenting particular danger when making turns; and

Whereas, There are existing design measures that mitigate blind spots on large vehicles, such as crossover mirrors or bus designs that limit the size of the A-frame that creates the blind spot; and

Whereas, Many new car models are equipped with technology that alerts a driver when another vehicle enters their blind spot; and

Whereas, Installing this technology on MTA buses, capable of identifying pedestrians, cyclists or obstacles would alert bus drivers to stop before a collision occurs; and

Whereas, This technology has the potential to prevent the unintended loss of life by making drivers fully aware of when they are in danger of colliding with a pedestrian or cyclist; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the Metropolitan Transportation Authority to study ways to eliminate blind spots on all MTA buses and to equip all of these buses with sensor technology to alert drivers, pedestrians and cyclists when a pedestrian or cyclist is in the bus' blind spot.

Res. No. 855

Resolution calling upon the United States Senate to pass and the President to sign H.R. 208, the Superstorm Sandy Relief and Disaster Loan Program Improvement Act, which would improve the United States Small Business Administration's disaster assistance program

By Council Members Ulrich, Arroyo, Barron, Cabrera, Chin, Eugene, Gentile, Mendez, Richards and Rose.

Whereas, According to the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, Superstorm Sandy caused an estimated $65 billion in damages in the United States and ranked as the second costliest natural disaster in the nation's history; and

Whereas, In New York City the storm caused the inundation of an area containing 300,000 homes and 23,400 businesses, according to the New York City Mayor's Office (Mayor's Office); and

Whereas, Tens of thousands of additional businesses and non-profits located outside of the city's inundated area were impacted indirectly by the storm through the loss of heat, power, access to customers, disruption of transportation and other impacts; and

Whereas, According to the Mayor's Office, Superstorm Sandy resulted in a total of $19 billion in damages in the city, including $8.6 billion in direct private losses, $4.8 billion of which were uninsured; and

Whereas, The United States Small Business Administration (SBA) is a federal agency whose function is to "aid, counsel assist and protect, insofar as is possible, the interests of small business concerns" by providing loans, loan guarantees, contracts, counseling and other forms of support to small businesses; and

Whereas, The SBA administers a Disaster Loan Program providing direct loans to businesses, non-profits, homeowners and renters to help them recover in the wake of natural disasters; and

Whereas, For businesses and homeowners, the SBA's Disaster Loan Program is the primary source of long-term federal financial assistance in the aftermath of disasters such as Superstorm Sandy; and

Whereas, After Superstorm Sandy the SBA provided low-interest loans to businesses, non-profits, homeowners and renters impacted by the storm to support the repair or replacement of real estate, personal property, equipment, inventory and other business assets damaged by the storm; and

Whereas, According to the Mayor's Office, as of March 2013, SBA received 22,042 disaster loan applications from businesses in New York City, of which 8,218 (37.28%) had been approved, and

Whereas, In 2014, the United States Government Accountability Office (GAO) issued a report examining SBA's administration of the Disaster Loan Program in response to Superstorm Sandy; and

Whereas, The GAO's report concluded that SBA did not meet timeliness goals for processing disaster loan applications because the agency was challenged by an unexpectedly high volume of applications; and

Whereas, The SBA has said it was challenged by a high volume of loan applications in response to the storm particularly due to a large influx of electronic applications, as well as technological and other issues; and

Whereas, As a result of the SBA program's issues, many businesses and homeowners affected by Superstorm Sandy were unable to apply for financing from the Disaster Loan Program; and

Whereas, There is concern that SBA has not adequately addressed issues with its Disaster Loan Program, has not sufficiently modified its planning documents to prepare for potential future disasters that might cause a surge in applications thereby stressing staffing and resources, and that SBA risks being unprepared to respond to future disasters; and

Whereas, In July 2015, the United States House of Representatives passed H.R. 208, the Superstorm Sandy Relief and Disaster Loan Program Improvement Act, to address these concerns and improve the SBA's Disaster Loan Program; and

Whereas, H.R. 208 would require the SBA to establish a loan program under which, for at least one year, small businesses, homeowners, or renters that were located within a major disaster area after Superstorm Sandy may apply for a loan to repair, rehabilitate or replace property damaged by the storm;

Whereas, H.R. 208 would also require improvements to the Disaster Loan Program, including the modification of collateral requirements, a reduction in delays on closing and disbursement of loans and increased transparency in loan approvals; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the United States Senate and the President to sign H.R. 208, the Superstorm Sandy Relief and Disaster Loan Program Improvement Act, which would improve the United States Small Business Administration's disaster assistance program.

Resolution calling on the United States Congress to pass, and the President to sign, S.356 and H.R.699 for requiring a warrant before Internet Service Providers would have to disclose the contents of e-mail communications.

By Council Members Vacca, Gentile and Mendez.

Whereas, According to a November 2014 Newsweek article, the City of New York is replacing its public pay phones to bring free internet service throughout its five boroughs; and

Whereas, The CEO of F-Secure, an international security firm based in Finland, states that there are privacy risks associated with the City of New York's expansion of free internet access; and

Whereas, According to a 2014 survey conducted by the Center for International Governance Innovation (CIGI) and Ipsos, a global research company, 64% of users are more concerned about online privacy in 2014 than they were compared to 2013; and

Whereas, In May 2014 the Court of Justice of the European Union ruled for the "right to be forgotten", which means that Internet Service Providers (ISPs) may be approached by persons being searched in their search engine to have links removed that are to web pages containing information on the searched person or to have the matter brought before competent authorities to have the link removed if the operator does not grant the request; and

Whereas, The U.S. Electronic Communications Privacy Act (ECPA) is a bill passed in 1986 to increase the privacy of U.S. citizens; and

Whereas, The ECPA includes a provision that the federal government can seize digital communications older than 180 days without a warrant; and

Whereas, The ECPA has not been updated since 1986; and

Whereas, In June 2014 the Supreme Court ruled that police can't search a phone without a warrant but the federal government argues that it does not need a warrant to obtain history from cellular providers; and

Whereas, H.R. 699, the "Email Privacy Act", has been introduced in the U.S. House of Representatives; and

Whereas, The Email Privacy Act would eliminate the 180-day rule and require the federal government to obtain a search warrant before accessing digital correspondence, regardless of how old; and

Whereas, The Email Privacy Act is a bi-partisan bill that has received 287 co-sponsors, the majority of the House of Representatives, but has not been brought to a vote as of July 20, 2015; and

Whereas, The Email Privacy Act is supported by the Digital 4th Coalition, which is a bi-partisan coalition dedicated to reforming and modernizing the U.S.'s 4th Amendment privacy rights; and

Whereas, According to an article in the National Journal, the Securities Exchange Commission testified before Congress in April 2015 that it has not subpoenaed ISPs because it is waiting for Congress to decide if and how it will change the ECPA; and

Whereas, The Email Privacy Act has a companion bill in the U.S. Senate, S.356, titled the Electronic Communications Privacy Act Amendments Act of 2015, which would also eliminate the 180-day rule and require a search warrant before accessing digital correspondence, regardless of how old; now, therefore, be it manufacture, sell, offer for sale, display for sale, knowingly distribute for sale, or possess with intent to sell:

1. any synthetic cannabinoid or synthetic phenethylamine, as such terms are defined by part 9 of title 10 of the New York codes, rules and regulations;

2. any synthetic cannabinoid or synthetic phenethylamine or synthetic cathinone included in schedule I of the federal drug enforcement administration schedules of controlled substances, as listed in section 1308.11 of title 21 of the code of federal regulations, or successor regulation, which is not listed in schedule I, II, III, IV or V of section 3306 of the public health law, or successor provision;

3. any substance commonly known as synthetic marijuana, synthetic phenethylamine, or synthetic cathinone, including but not limited to a substance so denominated as an embargoed product by order of the commissioner of the department of health and mental hygiene, that is represented, notwithstanding packaging or other indication that the substance is not intended for human consumption, as being intended for human consumption. Evidence of representations that a substance commonly known as synthetic marijuana is intended for human consumption may include, but is not limited to, oral or written representations by the manufacturer, distributor or seller about the substance with regard to its nature, use or effect; or

4. any imitation synthetic drug. In any prosecution for the violation of this paragraph, it shall be necessary to prove that the imitation synthetic drug was represented to be a substance described in paragraph 1 or 2 of this subdivision; provided, however, that it shall not be a defense to prosecution under this section that the accused believed the imitation synthetic drug to be such a substance. For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "imitation synthetic drug" means a substance that is not described in paragraph 1 or 2 of this subdivision but which, by dosage unit appearance, including color, shape and size, and by a representation, is represented to be a substance described in paragraph 1 or 2 of this subdivision. Evidence of such a representation may include, but is not limited to, oral or written representations by the manufacturer, distributor or seller about the substance with regard to:

(a) its price, nature, use or effect as a substance described in paragraph 1 or 2 of this subdivision; or

(b) its packaging in a manner normally used for substances described in paragraph 1 or 2 of this subdivision.

b. Possession of ten or more packets, individual containers or other separate units of a substance described in subdivision a of this section is presumptive evidence that the possessing person or entity is distributing such substance for sale or possesses such substances with intent to sell.

c. Any person or entity that violates subdivision a of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000 or imprisonment of up to one year, or both.

d. In addition to the penalties prescribed in subdivision c of this section, any person or entity that violates subdivision a of this section shall be liable for a civil penalty of not less than $1,000 and not more than $10,000 recoverable in a proceeding before any tribunal established within the office of administrative trials and hearings or within any agency of the city of New York designated to conduct such proceedings, provided that upon the first such violation, and any other such violations by the same person or entity on the same day as such first violation, such person or entity shall be liable for a civil penalty of not less than $500 and not more than $5,000 if (i) such violation is not in conjunction with the commission of any crime other than possession, manufacture, distribution or sale of any synthetic cannabinoid, synthetic phenethylamine, synthetic cathinone, or other substance described in subdivision a of this section and (ii) such person or entity has not been previously convicted of a felony or a serious offense as defined in subdivision 17 of section 265.00 of the penal law. The manufacture, distribution, sale, offer for sale, display for sale, or possession with intent to sell of each packet, individual container or other separate unit of substance described in subdivision a of this section shall constitute a separate violation under this subdivision, with a maximum civil liability of $50,000 for violations in a day for a single person or entity under this subdivision.

e. Any police officer, sheriff, undersheriff, or deputy sheriff of the city of New York, or any peace officer acting pursuant to his or her special duties may enforce the provisions of this section. A proceeding to recover any civil penalty authorized pursuant to subdivision c of this section shall be commenced by the service of a notice of violation returnable to any tribunal established within the office of administrative trials and hearings or within any agency of the city of New York designated to conduct such proceedings. The notice of violation or copy thereof when filled in and served shall constitute notice of the violation charged.

f. Whenever a police officer, sheriff, undersheriff, or deputy sheriff of the city of New York, or any peace officer acting pursuant to his or her special duties, discovers any substance described in subdivision a being possessed in a manner that violates such subdivision, such officer is authorized and empowered to seize and take possession of such substance, which shall be destroyed or used either for law enforcement purposes or for evidentiary purposes in connection with any enforcement proceeding conducted pursuant to this section.

§ 2. Subdivision (b) of section 11-4023 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as added by local law number 97 for the year 2013, is amended to read as follows:

(b) The following acts shall serve as the basis for a sealing order pursuant to this section:

(1) the violation of subdivisions a or b of section 11-1303 of this title or section 17-703 or 20-202 of the code on at least two occasions within a three-year period; or

(2) the violation of any provision of chapter 13 of this title or any of sections 17-703, 17-703.2, 17-704, 17-705, subdivisions a or b of section 17-706, 17-715 or 20-202 of the code on at least three occasions within a three-year period; or

(3) the violation of any provision of section 10-203 of the code on at least two occasions within a three-year period.

§ 3. The commissioners of health and mental hygiene, finance and consumer affairs may promulgate rules as may be necessary for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this local law.

§ 4. Severability. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or other portion of this local law is, for any reason, declared unconstitutional or invalid, in whole or in part, by any court of competent jurisdiction, such portion shall be deemed severable, and such unconstitutionality or invalidity shall not affect the
