Re: Disapproval of Introductory No. 408-A

Dear Mr. McSweeney:

Pursuant to Section 37 of the New York City Charter, I hereby disapprove Introductory No. 408-A, which would amend the Charter “in relation to creating a division within the department of small business services to assist street vendors and reporting regarding such assistance efforts.” I am also separately disapproving Introductory No. 431-B, which would amend the Charter and the Administrative Code of the City of New York “in relation to expanding business licensing and regulatory compliance of all mobile food and general vendors” and Introductory No. 1251-A, which would amend the Administrative Code “in relation to issuing licenses to mobile food and general vendors.”

Int. No. 408-A exacerbates the issues it seeks to resolve—it would provide no new benefits to vendors or other New Yorkers, but create a new level of bureaucracy within City government. The legislation would require the City to create a Division of Street Vendor Assistance within the Department of Small Business Services (SBS) to educate street vendors and submit annual reports to the City Council. But SBS already conducts educational outreach to vendors; offers free help to start, operate, and grow businesses via their Business Solutions Centers; and earlier this month, launched a challenge-based procurement to create a pilot program to improve street vendor education and engagement. Instead of allowing SBS to grow its current work, this legislation diverts the agency’s limited time and resources away from its programming to create unnecessary bureaucracy.

Accordingly, I hereby disapprove Introductory No. 408-A.

Sincerely,
