Preliminary Mayor's Management Report

The Preliminary Mayor's Management Report (PMMR) for Fiscal 2025 reports on two service areas and four goals for CCRB. Noteworthy metrics that were reported are detailed below.

- Total civilian complaints against uniformed members of the New York City Police Department. In the first four months of Fiscal 2025, CCRB received 1,986 complaints from civilians, a 2.3 percent increase from the 1,941 complaints received during the same period of Fiscal 2024. There were 5,644 complaints in Fiscal 2024, an increase of 20 percent from 4,700 the previous year, but only an increase of 7.8 percent from 5,236 complaints in Fiscal 2019. The assumption is that during the COVID years there were fewer civilian-police interactions because of lockdowns, which led to fewer complaints being filed. Between Fiscals 2020 – 2024 CCRB received an average of 4,350 complaints annually.
- Cases closed. The Board closed 2,227 cases in the first four months of Fiscal 2025, an increase of 589 cases, or 36 percent, from the 1,638 cases closed during the same period in Fiscal 2024. During this time there were proportional increases in related metrics, including: unable to investigate complaints closed, unfounded complaints closed, and unable to determine complaints closed which increased by 88 percent, 45 percent and 12 percent, respectively. The Board closed 5,505 cases in Fiscal 2024, a 29.6 percent increase over the 4,247 cases closed the previous year, and the highest number of cases closed in the previous five years.

- Average time to complete a full investigation (days) and average time to complete a substantiated investigation (days). The Board’s average time to complete a full investigation during the first four months of Fiscal 2025 was 416 days, relatively unchanged from the same period in the prior year. The average time to complete a substantiated investigation increased by 52 days (12 percent), from 438 in the first four months of Fiscal 2024 to 490 days in the first four months of Fiscal 2025. In Fiscal 2024 the time to complete a full investigation was 404 days and the time to complete a substantiated investigation was 437 days. The five-year average time to complete a full investigation and substantiated investigation is 429 and 453 days, respectively. The time for completion of each of these types of investigations has been trending upward over the last five years. The increased complexity of cases from increased oversight, the need to review body camera footage, and the implementation of a disciplinary matrix have been responsible for some of the increase in the length of investigations.
- Rate of officers disciplined. In the first four months of Fiscal 2025, 28 percent of officers with cases resolved were disciplined, a decrease from the 67 percent of officers disciplined during the same period of Fiscal 2024. The number of cases returned without discipline and the number of non-concurrences returned (instances when NYPD disagrees with the findings and recommendations of CCRB) increased by 350 percent and 137 percent, respectively in the first four months of Fiscal 2025 when compared to the same period in Fiscal 2024. In each of these cases the Commissioner is the final arbitrator of discipline for substantiated allegations of misconduct.
- Cases successfully mediated. In the first four months of Fiscal 2025, CCRB successfully mediated 22 cases, a decrease of seven cases or 24 percent from the 29 cases successfully mediated during the same period of Fiscal 2024. While fewer cases were mediated, the Mediation satisfaction rate for this period increased by seven percent from a satisfaction rate of 76 percent in the first four months of Fiscal 2024 to 83 percent in the first four months of Fiscal 2025. Over the last five years these two indicators have trended downward. In Fiscal 2024 the CCRB had 74 cases successfully mediated with a 69 percent satisfaction rate.
- Administrative prosecution (AP) cases closed – total. The Board closed 145 AP cases in the first four months of Fiscal 2025, a decrease of 13 cases or 8.2 percent from the 158 cases closed during the same period in Fiscal 2024. Cases closed by trial and plea in the first four months of Fiscal 2025 increased by 50 and 31 percent, respectively when compared to the same period in Fiscal 2024. The Board closed 380 cases in Fiscal 2024, far exceeding the prior year’s total of 187 and greatly outpacing the average number of cases closed in the prior four years (83). Cases that have been closed by trial and cases that have been closed by plea reached recent highs in Fiscal 2024 of 59 and 157 respectively, exceeding their previous four-year averages of 24 and 14.5 respectively. This trend demonstrates that the Board is continuing to hold officers accountable for their inappropriate behaviors but represents an unfortunate increase in the number of cases in need of a trial or plea.
- Outreach presentations conducted. The Board conducted 333 outreach presentations in the first four months of Fiscal 2025, a decrease of 74, or 18 percent, from the 407 presentations conducted during the same period in Fiscal 2024. The Board conducted

1,134 presentations in Fiscal 2024, nearly 100 more than the prior year and the highest in the last five years.

Budget Issues and Concerns

The Council is concerned that the current level of funding and headcount is not sufficient to provide proper oversight. The Civilian Complaint Review Board’s budget is set by the City Charter and is to include funding to support 0.65 percent of the NYPD’s budgeted uniform headcount, currently equaling 228 positions. CCRB’s Fiscal 2026 budget includes funding for 247 positions. The Adopted Fiscal 2025 Plan included a ten-position increase for CCRB beginning in Fiscal 2026, partially restoring some of the reductions made in a PEG initiated in a previous financial.

Prior to adoption last year the Council called on the Administration to increase the Board’s baseline budget by $15 million, which would enable the Board to fund an additional 144 positions, bringing its total headcount to 376. The additional funding would have increased the Board’s budget to just over 0.5 percent of the Police Department’s (NYPD) budget.

The baseline increases supported by the Council would enable the Board to expand oversight, increase authority and units related to Local Law 69, passed in 2020, and create a disciplinary matrix for penalties and starting points for disciplinary action for specific acts and violations by uniformed members of the NYPD. Additional funding would also enable the Board to appropriately meet the requirements of Local Law 47 of 2021. This law expanded the scope of CCRB investigations to include bias-based policing and racial profiling complaints made by the public. In addition, the law increased CCRB’s responsibility in relation to determinations of racial bias by officers, charging the Board with investigating officers’ history for past professional misconduct related to bias or racial profiling. To handle the additional investigative scope required by Local Law 47, CCRB established a new Bias Based Policing Unit comprised of investigators, prosecutors, statisticians, and policy professionals.
