4 CHAIRPERSON DROMM: Okay. Good morning
5 and welcome to today's Finance Committee meeting. My 6 name is Council Member Daniel Dromm, and I'm Chair of 7 the Committee. We have been joined by Council Member
8 Jimmy Van Bramer, Council Member Robert Cornegy, 9 Council Member Vanessa Gibson, Council Member Helen 10 Rosenthal, Minority Leader Steve Matter, Council
11 Member Keith Powers, Council Member Barry Grodenchik
12 and Council Member Adrienne Adams. Today, the 13 committee will be voting on 11 items, 3 resolutions
14 relating to the Banking Commissions recommendations
15 on interest rates and 8 Article XI property tax
16 exemptions. Let's start with the Resolutions that 17 would set certain interest rates for Fiscal 2020.
18 Every year the Banking Commission provides 19 recommendations to the Council relating to the 20 discount received by property owners who pay their 21 taxes early and the interest rates paid by the 22 property owners who pay their taxes late. For Fiscal 23 2020, the Banking Commission has made the following
24 recommendations: A one-half percent discount rate
25 for those who pay their property taxes early; a 7%

1 interest rate for the late payment of property taxes
2 on properties with an assessed value of $250,000 or 3 less, which is approximately 95% of all properties in 4 the city, an 18% interest rate for the late payment
5 of property taxes on properties within an assessed
6 value of more than $250,000. After careful
7 consideration of the Banking Commission's submission
8 to the Council, the Council is recommending that the 9 interest rates be approved as set forth by the 10 Banking Commission's recommendations. As per state
11 law, the interest rates for the late payment of water
12 and sewer bills will match the rates set for the late 13 payment of property taxes. A representative of the 14 Banking Commission is here to answer any questions
15 that we may have on interest rates. Lastly, we have 16 the Article XI Property Tax Exemptions. The first is 17 Fairstead at 48th Street in the Speaker's district in 18 Manhattan, which would—which would provide a partial 19 40-year exemption to preserve 54 units of affordable
20 housing. The second is Fairstead 53rd Street in the 21 Speaker's District in Manhattan, which would provide 22 a partial 40-year exemption to preserve 51 units of 23 affordable housing. The third is Jennings Terrace
24 Gardens in Council Member Gibson's district in the 25

2 Bronx, which would provide a full 30-year exemption
3 to preserve 41 units of affordable housing. The 4 fourth is Walton Avenue Senior Housing also know as 5 the Fanny Lou Hammer Apartments in Council Member
6 Gibson's district in the Bronx, which provide a 7 partial 40-year exemption to preserve 75 units of 8 affordable housing. The fifth is Black Spruce -
9 Central Harlem in Council Member Perkins' district in 10 Manhattan, which would provide a partial 30-year
11 exemption to provide 224 units of affordable housing.
12 The sixth is Black Spruce Washing Heights in the 13 districts of Council Members Levine and Rodriguez in
14 Manhattan, which would provide a partial 40-year
15 exemption to preserve 420 units of affordable
16 housing. The seventh is 5 Teller HDFC in Council
17 Member Salamanca's district in the Bronx, which would 18 provide a partial 40-year exemption to preserve 42
19 units of affordable housing. The eighth is Lexington 20 Courts in the districts of Council Members Ayala and 21 Perkins in Manhattan, which would provide a partial
22 30-year exemption to preserve 229 units of affordable
23 housing. Each of the Council Members are supportive
24 of the projects in their districts. Representatives
25 from HPD are here to answer any questions that we may

2 have on any of the Land Use items. Those are all of 3 today's items. Are there any questions? Okay, Billy
4 Martin, will you please call the roll.

5 CLERK: William Martin, Committee Clerk,
6 roll call vote Committee on Finance. All items are 7 coupled. Chair Dromm.

8 CHAIRPERSON DROMM: I vote aye.

9 CLERK: Gibson.

10 COUNCIL MEMBER GIBSON: Permission to 11 briefly explain.

12 CHAIRPERSON DROMM: Yes.

13 COUNCIL MEMBER GIBSON: Thank you Chair
14 Dromm and good morning colleagues. I wanted to 15 certainly go on record and speak in support of the 16 two Article XI items on today's agenda. Jennings
17 Terrace Garden co-op apartments in my district are 18 co-op apartments that were formerly scatter site
19 owned by the Housing Authority, and over the years
20 since I've been in the Council I've have had a great 21 relationship with President Kathy Johnson, and we're 22 done tremendous work on behalf of her and her board,
23 and all of the shareholders, and I'm really proud 24 that today we not only vote to preserve these 25 affordable homes, but we continue to invest in the

2 Bronx, and Wilton Avenue Senior Apartments with 3 Samuel Hammer is operated by Midblock (sic) Senior
4 Citizens Council in my district, but it's been a
5 longtime provider of affordable senior housing, and 6 I'm grateful that today we are affirmed to preserve 7 41 more units, and these are housing units that are 8 average about 50% AMI for many of seniors and single 9 and one-bedroom units. So, I'm very, very proud of 10 that, and I want to thank HPD and certainly the 11 management's Midblocks (sic) and Jennings Terrace for 12 their support through this process, and making sure
13 that once again as a collective the City Council
14 continues to invest in the city and specifically 15 preserve housing in the Bronx. So, I vote aye on 16 all, and urge all of my colleagues please vote yes on 17 Walton Avenue Apartments and Jennings Terrace. Thank 18 you so much.

19 CLERK: Cohen.

22 COUNCIL MEMBER CORNEGY: Aye.

23 CLERK: Cumbo.

15 COUNCIL MEMBER MATTEO: In relation to 16 Resolution 889, I think the interest rate should be 17 lower, so I'm going to vote no on Reso 88-0889 and 18 aye on the rest.

19 CLERK: All items on today's Finance
20 agenda have been adopted by a vote of 11 in the 21 affirmative, 0 in the negative and no extensions with
