Confirmation Hearing for Re-appointment to the City Planning Commission

May 9, 2018

New York City Council Committee on Rules, Privileges and Elections

Thank you Speaker Johnson, Chair Koslowitz, Minority Leader Matteo, Members of the Committee and Council Members—particularly mine at home: Council Member Rose and at work: Council Member Powers.

It's an honor for me to be here and to appear before you as part of my nomination for reappointment to the City Planning Commission. I have spent at least part of my career over the past 3 decades working in and around this very special building- where the business of our government gets done, and have worked with our city's last 5 Mayor's and Council Speaker's their Administrations.

Knowing the incredible work they are responsible for each day in the lives of New Yorkers- and the impacts that work has on our region and beyond, I am certainly honored by the nomination to this panel by Borough President James Oddo and his confidence in me to continue to serve our city.

I am also honored—and especially proud to sit before this committee—one I sat on myself during my tenure as Minority Leader and to come before you to seek your support in this confirmation process.

I have immense respect for this process and the work of this council and hope that you will find it valuable to help me return to the Commission and to use my experiences as a former elected and appointed official, and as a life-long New Yorker in deliberating the important land-use matters that will come before us.

I am happy to address any questions you may have.

Thank you.
