

THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK
FINANCE DIVISION

NATHAN TOTH, DIRECTOR

FISCAL IMPACT STATEMENT

INT. NO: 660

COMMITTEE: Children and Youth

TITLE: A Local Law in relation to requiring a study and report on in-person altercations among youth and their associated activity on online platforms

SPONSOR(S): Council Members Williams, Stevens, Riley, Louis, Brewer, Brooks-Powers, Ung, Salaam, and Hanks

SUMMARY OF LEGISLATION: Int. No. 660 would require the Commissioner of Youth and Community Development, in collaboration with the Director of the Mayor's Office for Neighborhood Safety and the Prevention of Gun Violence, to study in-person altercations among individuals under 24 years of age who attend programs funded by the Department of Youth and Community Development. The Commissioner would be required to submit a report no later than six months after the effective date of this local law, on the findings of the study to the Speaker of the Council and the Mayor. The report would have to include details of each altercation, details of any relevant activity on online platforms that led to the altercation, and whether a city agency responded to the altercation. The report would also have to include strategies the city can use to monitor the online activity of individuals under 24 years of age and to counsel these individuals on their online activity in order to prevent these kinds of altercations.
