CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: Good afternoon. I'm Council Member Eric Ulrich, Chair of the City Council's Committee on Veterans. Today the committee will be discussing and considering three Resolutions on varying topics but equally all of which are equally important to veterans and their families throughout the five boroughs. Before we continue, I'd like to acknowledge the Council Members who have joined us, both on the committee and those who are guests of the committee. We have Council Member Alan Maisel of Brooklyn, we have Jumaane Williams of Brooklyn, a sponsor of one of the resolutions and he will be speaking in a short while. Council Member Paul Vallone of Queens, myself, the Speaker of the City Council, Melissa Mark-Viverito. We're going to hear from her in just a few minutes. To her right, Council Member Fernando Cabrera of the Bronx and we are also joined by Council Member Andy Cohen of the Bronx and the Committee Counsel Kelly Taylor is here as well.

So I'd like to turn the mike over to the Speaker of the Council and then we'll proceed with the hearing.

2 SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: Thank you so much 3 Chair Ulrich for your advocacy on issues regarding 4 Veterans and obviously the support for these Resos
5 that we'll be listening to and hearing today. So 6 good afternoon, [Speaking Spanish]. I want to thank 7 this Intro's co-sponsor, Council Woman Marie del 8 Carmen Arroyo and also all the committee staff for 9 their help. I most especially want to thank the 10 veterans who are here today. Men like Erhenio Cavato
11 [sp?] of the 65th Infantry. We know your sacrifice 12 and we understand it. We know that many of your 13 brothers did not make it beyond battle fields. We 14 know that you earned and deserve a long overdue
15 national stage and spotlight. This is why as Speaker 16 of the City Council I urge the Council's Committee on 17 Veterans to Pass Resolution 103. I introduced this 18 resolution as a way for the council to show its 19 strong support for a Congressional Gold Medal for the 20 65th Infantry Regiment of Puerto Rico.

21 We were very happy to learn last night as 22 we were preparing and we've been anxiously wanting to 23 have this hearing and the Resolution adopted. That 24 last night, the Senate passed this measure which now 25 awaits President Obama's signature. The soldiers of

2 the 65th are known as the Borinqueneers. Most who 3 served in this regimen were from the island. But 4 many state-side Puerto Ricans, including Dr. Frank 5 Bonilla who is a founder of the communities Center
6 for Puerto Rican Studies were members of the 65th.
7 The 65th most distinguished itself during the Korean 8 War, to the point that it earned the high praise of 9 General Douglas MacArthur. The Borinqueneers endured 10 brutal conditions and harsh terrain during an era 11 where war still involved and to hand combat. And 12 unfortunately, like other soldiers and units of 13 color, the 65th was subjected to negative
14 stereotypes, a double-standard, heavier penalties
15 than their white counterparts and under decoration.
16 Despite this the Borinqueneers served with great 17 bravery and remained true to the 65ths model of honor
18 and fidelity. And I must point out that they did so 19 at a time when Puerto Rico was being treated and 20 continues to be treated very undemocratically.

21 So many of our beloved veterans are not 22 alive to see the eve of this historic Congressional 23 Gold Medal. We remember them this and every Memorial 24 Day. Those who remain with us should and must know 25

2 that their city, their islands and the nation they 3 served recognize them before the world.

4 So I also wanted to..., you know, this year
5 the Puerto Rican Day Parade is also honoring the 6 Borinqueneers and I do want to pay special 7 recognition to Congresswoman Nydia Velazquez whose 8 been extremely, extremely firm on this issue to the 9 point, that as I said, the Senate did vote and we're 10 waiting the President's signature. From a daughter 11 whose father and whose grandfather did serve in the 12 Army and in the Navy, you know, I really thank all 13 the veterans for their sacrifice and I'm very excited 14 that we will be passing this reso. So with that I 15 encourage my colleagues to join me in supporting this 16 resolution and encourage New Yorkers to salute The 17 Borinqueneers who are being honored in this year's 18 National Puerto Rican Day Parade on June 8th.

19 Thank you Chair Ulrich.

20 CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: Thank you Madam
21 Speaker and I want to thank you for your continued 22 support of this committee and the important work that 23 we are doing on behalf of veterans. The Speaker has 24 been a staunch supporter of many of the Resolutions 25 and the Bills that have been introduced by me and my

2 colleagues and we're looking forward to passing this 3 Resolution as well as the other two which we'll be 4 discussing today.

5 The Committee will hear Resolution 103,
6 introduced by the Speaker urging President Obama to 7 sign HR-1726 and S-1174. Legislation to award the 8 Congressional Gold Medal to the 65th Infantry
9 Regiment, known as the Borinqueneers. How was that?
10 Okay very good.

11 The 65th Infantry Regiment, Puerto Rico's
12 only active duty regiment, played a prominent role in 13 World War I, World War II and the Korean War. The 14 65th Infantry Regiment performed many remarkable 15 military accomplishments and this legislation
16 acknowledges their sacrifice and invaluable
17 contributions defending our freedom. The committee 18 will also hear Resolution #79 introduced by my 19 colleague, Council Member Jumaane Williams, which 20 calls for the creation of a tickertape parade for 21 Iraq and Afghanistan veterans. Personally, I can 22 think of no better way to honor the post 911 veterans
23 and returning service members with a welcome home
24 celebration down the canyon of heroes and I applaud
25 Council Member Williams and the Minority Leader

2 Council Member Vinny Ignizio who introduced a similar 3 Resolution in support of the tickertape parade.

4 New York City hosted a Welcome Home
5 Parade for veterans after World War I, after the 6 first Gulf War and I know that the council will work
7 very closely with Mayor de Blasio, his administration
8 and our federal elected officials to see this parade
9 to fruition. Lastly, the committee will explore a 10 resolution I introduced last month, Resolution 200.
11 Which calls upon the New York State Legislature to 12 pass and the Governor to sign Senate Bill 4714 and 13 Assembly accompanying Bill 6974. Legislation that 14 would allow public employees who rendered peace time 15 military service to purchase and apply credit towards 16 New York Retirement Systems. Currently New York
17 State Law only allows certain honorably discharged
18 veterans working in the public sector the opportunity 19 to purchase, essentially buy-back and apply up to 20 three years of their military service credit towards 21 their retirement. However, the law as it stands, 22 excludes and does not allow all peace time veterans 23 and even some who served during designated periods of 24 conflict. This legislation would rightfully extend 25 eligibility to all honorably discharged veterans.

2 I want to acknowledge and thank again.
3 The support of the Speaker of the Council, Melissa 4 Mark-Viverito, Council Member Jumaane Williams, whose 5 bill we are discussing today and all of the members 6 of the committee for joining us.

7 And now we will hear from the first 8 panel.

9 [Pause]

10 CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: Oh actually, first 11 we have to hear from Jumaane Williams. How could I
12 forget? Okay, the sponsor of Reso 79, Council Member 13 Jumaane Williams.

14 COUNCIL MEMBER WILLIAMS: Thank you Mr.
15 Chair Ulrich and thank you Speaker for being here.
16 And members of the Committee for holding the 17 resolution on Resolution 79. I'd also like to thank 18 Council Members Gentile and Vallone along with the 19 Chair for co-sponsoring this resolution as well as 20 the thanking Council Member Ignizio for a similar one 21 and most importantly to the veterans who are in the 22 audience.

23 With Memorial Day right around the 24 corner, it is important that we hear this resolution 25 today in honor of all our brave men and women who've

1 worn the uniform and sacrificed so much on behalf of 2 the city, state and our nation. The resolution calls 3 for the City of New York to public recognize veterans
4 of the Iraq and Afghanistan wars with tickertape
5 welcome parade to keep with the similar events
6 extended to veterans of the Vietnam, Gulf and Korean 7 wars. Tickertape parades in New York City were the 8 result of the evolution of years of public 9 celebration in the city and that the first such 10 parade occurred in 1886 when workers threw and 11 tickertape out of office windows to celebrate the 12 dedication of the Statute of Liberty. Tickertape
13 parades welcomed home veterans from both World War I
14 and World War II and later the Korean and Vietnam 15 wars. But only years after the conflicts ended.

17 Over 2.6 million service men and women 18 were deployed as part of the wars in Iraq and 19 Afghanistan. Approximately 6,793 have lost their 20 lives and 52,000 have been injured. Further many 21 veterans return home to a depressed economy struggle
22 to find employment, decent housing and supportive 23 services needed. I want to be clear. This is not 24 about, for me, support of any particular war. It is 25 about men and women who were asked to risk their lives from what they believed were for the best interest of this country, this city, this nation and were made promises and if we hear what's happening in Washington with the VA and we know veterans who are not getting the things that they were promised and not getting the honor that they so deserved. And if we can have sports teams walking down the canyon of heroes. We most should have our veterans walking down the canyon of heroes who risked their lives and risk more than that, I believe. Their entire being, their person, their families, the mental stability, that's the least, the minimum that we should be able to do.

Let's honor those who have sacrificed for us all, by supporting a tickertape parade in their honor. Thank you Mr. Chair and I'd like to ask to add my name to Resolution 103 and 200.

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: Thank you Council Member Williams. And I know that before we call up the first panel, Council Member Fernando Cabrera also asked to speak in support of the Speaker's Reso.

COMMITTEE ON VETERANS

MR. CAVERO: Ladies and gentlemen of the New York City Council and Committee on Veterans, thank you for the invitation to appear here today. To testify on behalf of Resolution #103 urging the President of the United States and Congress to award the Congressional Gold Medal to the 65th Infantry Regiment known as The Borinqueneers. I have copies of my testimony for all of you. I am not going to read all of that. I am going to read the bottom lines.

In the United States Army we have a very simple formula about presentations. Tell them what you're going to tell them, tell them, then tell them what you told them. So this is what I'm going to tell you. My bottom line, up front. United States Army's 65th Infantry Regiment is more than worthy of being awarded the Congressional Gold Medal for its service and sacrifice to this country for three reasons. First, the 65th Infantry Regiment fought brilliantly in Korea despite problems, later in the war. The Regiment arrived in September 1950 in Korea, the largest and best trained United States regular army, infantry regiment in Korea at the time. The only regiments that approximated the strength of

1 the regiment or the training, were the Marines. And 2 by the way, the reason the regiment arrives in Korea,
3 the best trained regiment. It is the only regiment
4 in the United States Army in 1950 that participated
5 in three major exercises in the last three years
6 before the war. The 1948 Atlantic Fleet Exercises,
7 by the way, with United States Marines. The 1949
8 Atlantic Fleet Exercises with United States Marines
9 and the 1950 Puerto Rican Maneuvers Portrex. The 10 largest post-war exercises since World War II. The 11 regiment was asked during these exercises to defend 12 the Island of Vieques against the 3rd Infantry
13 Division and the 82nd Airborne Division, my old 14 division. The regiment was supposed to be run over 15 the first day of the exercises. It stopped the 3rd
16 Infantry Division landings on the first day and it 17 wiped out the 82nd Infantry Battalion that jumped in 18 on the second day. The regiment held the island to 19 the last day of the exercises when, instead of 20 surrendering, it counterattacked with everything it 21 had left and made it all the way back to the beaches.
22 And it was this brilliant performance that brought 23 the regiment to the attention of the army. You see, 24 up to this point, Puerto Ricans had registered in 25

1 large numbers. Hispanics had registered in large 2 numbers to serve in World War I and World War II but 3 they were not called up. And why? This was a 4 nation, at the time, and an army that put little 5 faith in people of color. So when Puerto Ricans did 6 serve in World War I and World War II they were given 7 the assignments of guarding installations, guarding 8 lines of communications. Now Portrex happens, the 9 army is very short of personnel, it is sending 10 infantry regiments to Korea that are short..., so a 11 regiment is about 4,000 people..., that are short as 12 many as 1,000 to 2,000 people each. It attempts to 13 stop the North Koreans after the invasion in June of 14 1950, by putting an American Infantry Regiment in 15 front of them that was under-strengthened, poorly 16 trained and did not have the proper weapons. And 17 they were wiped out. So now the regiment arrives in 18 Korea and it is a welcome addition. 4,000 Puerto 19 Rican soldiers, most of them veterans from WWII and 20 to their surprise the army finds out that there's 21 another 3,000 trained Puerto Rican soldiers already 22 in the replacement pipeline for the regiment and they 23 can't believe it. The strength of the Puerto Ricans 24 in the U.S. Military was so high that in the first 25

2 year of the war, the army considers forming an all
3 Puerto Rican division of the 265th Infantry Regiment 4 of the Korean Puerto Rican National Guard, the 266 of 5 the Puerto Rican National Guard and the 65th Infantry 6 with all the support and supply units being from 7 Puerto Rico. But there's such a shortage of manpower
8 that they turned this down. So now, the regiment
9 gets to Korea and in the first year of the war,
10 serves with..., right away is attached to the 2nd 11 Infantry Division that needs them badly and then is 12 attached to the 25th that needs them badly and 13 finally the 3rd Infantry Division arrives and it's 14 attached to that division for the duration.

15 The men in the regiment fight brilliantly
16 and are recognized not only Douglas MacArthur.
17 They're recognized by all of the generals as strong 18 performers. They had good commanders, but most of 19 all they had Puerto Rican soldiers that spoke English 20 and Spanish that had a great deal of experience and 21 that were veterans. And this is a unique regiment.
22 It was a segregated regiment. Okay. By law. Puerto 23 Rican soldiers coming from the island could only 24 serve in this regiment. By law, Puerto Rican 25 sergeants could only serve in this regiment. And so

2 these soldiers and sergeants, they'd grown up
3 together, they knew each other, they were neighbors, 4 they were family. And so they fought like this band
5 of brothers, tremendously well.

6 You have the history in front of you.
7 You see that the regiment conducts one of the last 8 bayonet charges at battalion level to take a hill
9 from the North Koreans. The history will show you
10 that when the 8th Army evacuated North Korea, a 11 battalion of the 65th Infantry was one of the last to 12 leave the beach. It held the beach against an entire 13 Chinese Army and later in May of 1951 when the 14 Chinese counterattack and our over running American 15 units, the regiment fights again brilliantly.
16 Inflicting huge losses, and I have been in the all of 17 the official records, to include the intelligence 18 records, reading what the Chinese were saying, and 19 they avoided the 65th Infantry. Because their losses 20 were too high, so they shatter a Belgium battalion on 21 the left and another battalion and another battalion 22 on the right and the regiment is fighting the entire 23 time, but survives this massive onslaught in the 24 spring of 1951. So this regiment, ladies and 25 gentlemen, fought brilliantly. I tell you this as

2 you as a United States Historian who worked at the 3 Army Center for Military History for three years who 4 was brought aboard there because of my qualifications
5 to write, first a special study, and then the history 6 of this regiment. And I tell you this as a United 7 States Army Officer, a combat arms officers, an armor
8 officer, a paratrooper, a United States Army
9 Strategist and Historian. I also tell you this as a 10 son of an American Soldier, Jesus Maria Hermosa
11 (phonetic) who fought with the 65th in Korea. And I
12 tell you this as the father of three American 13 soldiers. My sons and I have been at war for the 14 last eleven years. So I am a historian, I am a 15 soldier, I was asked to write this history and I did.

16 The second point I want to let you know,
17 is that Puerto Ricans from the island served at more 18 than twice the rate per capita of continental 19 Americans in the United States Army in Korea and 20 suffered twice the casualties. This statistic comes 21 from the general archives of Puerto Rico. From the 22 file of the Governor of Puerto Rico, Louis Marin.
23 Okay, he had a special study done on this. This 24 despite the fact that the men of the regiment were 25 subject to tremendous discrimination from the continental officers and soldiers from their owner commanders. Okay, so they suffered twice the casualties. That casualty rate has never really been recognized and I really don't want to go through statistics with you, but the statistics, I have a second page in there which shows you all the statistics. And finally...

[Interpose]

UNIDENTIFIED FEMALE: Which page is that?

MR. CAVERO: It would be..., give me one minute here..., It's after the synopsis towards the end, so it's going to be page 22. So right here you see that the total body casualties from what we call continental Americans, white Americans, was 0.9% of the U.S. population in Korea. For Puerto Ricans, it was 0.14% or almost twice the same rate. And all the statistics are there in terms of number of deaths, wounded and casualties.

The final point..., and so, what do I call this, you know, I call this disproportionate sacrifice. While should the regiment be recognized? First of all because it fought brilliantly, but second, because disproportionate sacrifice. Third, because it's service and sacrifices were not

2 adequately recognized. Despite the fact that the 3 65th Infantry arrived in Korea before either the 7th 4 or 15th Infantry Regiments of the same division, the 5 3rd Infantry Division. With which it served the 65th 6 Infantry Regiment and its soldiers, to this day, 7 remain grossly under-represented in terms of awards.
8 In terms of Medals of Honor, Distinguished Service 9 Crosses, Silver Stars and Bronze Stars. In fact, the 10 President of the United States awarded the First 11 Congressional Medal of Honor to a Korean War Veteran
12 of the 65th Regiment only in March of this year. It 13 is time to recognize the valor of the men of the 65th 14 Infantry who fought not one, but two enemies.
15 Simultaneously for four brutal years in Korea. The 16 North Korean and Chinese Armies and discrimination.
17 It's time to correct the record with regard to the 18 United States Army Puerto Rican Regiment. Our WWII
19 and Korean War veterans are dying at the rate of 20 1,500 a day. I thank god every day that my father, a 21 veteran of the regiment in Korea, and the United 22 States Army, is still with us. But I wonder, how 23 many more years will that be so. We no longer have 24 the luxury of endless debates. We must act and 25 insure that justice is done, that service and sacrifice are recognized. That these men, from America's forgotten war, know that as long as there's a United States of America, they will be honored and remembered. It is time to award The Borinqueneers, of the 65th Infantry Regiment, the Congressional Gold Medal for their many, many years of service and sacrifice to this country. Thank you.

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: Thank you for your testimony.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE: This morning I received a call from a friend just to give me the news that Congress had passed a bill giving the Congressional Gold Medal to the unit of the 65th Infantry Regiment. It was something overwhelming that I didn't expect. I thought that maybe by the end of the year we would be able to get it. So, I'm very proud. I thank everybody involved in it. I thank Congress and I heard that President Obama will sign the Bill making it law. Thank you.

SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: Yes the senate passed it, yes. I mentioned it in my remarks. So thank you for your service.

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: On behalf of my colleagues, and all the people at the City Council, I want to thank you for your service to our country and your service does not go unrecognized or unrewarded. And that day is coming and it is coming soon. With the President's signature. We're looking forward to that.

UNIDENTIFIED MALE: I'm just one of the 61,000 Puerto Ricans that went to Korea. So, it's an honor. On their behalf I, I'm choking, I'm the spokesman for them, for those who never came back, which over 700 died there. So I still remember them. Every one of the guys that I had on my side and we fought the Chinese and the North Korean. They spilled their blood. I was lucky. I came back in one piece. But many of them, many died, many lost arms and legs, so I still remember those guy and for them I believe that it's an honor to all of them. Not so much me, so thank you again.

SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: Thank you very much for, again, your service and for testifying and

[Background talk]

SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: Put the mike on please and state your name for the record.

PROFESSOR QUIROS: Thank you. Luis Quiros. I am activist, social worker, professor at Fordham University, and author, etc. Lifelong Puerto Rican, fighting for our community. Can I continue now?

There was a pre-requisite. Why do we consistently need to defend ourselves as Puerto Ricans? It's about respect. Through respect and pride though viewed as the others, the only box that I can fill in the United States when I was born. I am 68 ½ years old, the only box available to me was others.

In the middle of the 19th Century, Puerto Ricans began requiring an identity beyond that of colonial subjects or Spain. The incidents depicted slave insurgence, a colic epidemic, and hurricanes

2 and are based on a history that is largely 3 unfamiliar. I wanted to write a book with lots of 4 characters and I wanted to explore what it meant and 5 what it means to be a Puerto Rican and us viewed as 6 others in these United States.

7 A not too distant event illustrates one 8 of millions of which I will refer to demonstrated the 9 absence of our due to heroic men and women, women
10 spelled with a y, who served in these United States.
11 One person or group is awarded by merely being alive
12 while we Puerto Ricans are not. As it becomes clear, 13 the concept of the other is one of the central issues 14 of the debate and needs further analysis. For some 15 activists and theorists to care for others is the 16 human and Christian task per se as for Puerto Ricans.
17 Post-colonial critiques on the other, I believe 18 should be mandated instead of ignored. Why? Because 19 it took me too long, and I was too late to grasp my 20 Puerto Rican grandfather's words [SPEAKING SPANISH].
21 I was unaware I was black until I arrived in this 22 country. Being bullied on a daily basis became 23 normal, just for being brown and Puerto Rican.
24 Proudly and somewhat sorry that I can state that too
25 few people even know that Puerto Rico was the first

2 to embrace and address the economic justice by 3 incorporating the Universal Declaration of Human 4 Rights in their constitution in 1952. Tracing the 5 Montana Constitutions Provisions on Human Dignity to 6 its origins to the Declaration of Human Rights is 7 noted. "The 1972 Amendment to Montana's Constitution 8 which included the term Human Dignity was drawn from 9 Puerto Rico's Constitution. During the drafting of 10 Puerto Rico's Constitution, the United Nation played 11 a key role, both in inspiring provisions based on 12 human rights and a vehicle for attempt at resolution 13 for the commonwealth's relationship to the United 14 States.

15 My mother undoubtedly was teaching me
16 resistance and in particular the new post-colonial 17 resistance model in order to lean towards a true
18 democratic model. She, most importantly, she kept me 19 Puerto Rican. My grandfather. My mother's father,
20 fought in WWI because the United States needed 21 soldiers. So Puerto Ricans became citizens though we 22 could not vote for the President of the United States
23 unless we lived state side. There has never been a 24 war the United States was involved with that a 25 brother or prima de mano was not fighting. My

2 younger brother died of Agent Orange while serving 3 two tours in Vietnam. My niece and nephews had to 4 fight to receive $10,000 from Union Carbide because 5 they are the manufacturer of Agent Orange.

6 Identity politics took its modern form
7 during the second half of the last century. It
8 emerged as an emancipatory mode, a political action 9 in thinking, based on the shared experience of 10 injustice by particular groups, notably blacks,
11 women, gays, Latinos and American Indians. It is a 12 movement born in a double negation. The rejection of 13 rejection through the proud self-conscious unit of 14 those who have been defined as belonging to the 15 excluded group. It is precisely this focus on a 16 particular group and the significance of indifference
17 from a dominant other that serves many on the left 18 and on the right and in the center.

19 68 years of age, and 46 years after the 20 violence that defined 1968 and two graduate degrees 21 were not enough for me to have learned to defend 22 myself the effects of power language and to make 23 better choices. Race and class were so deeply rooted 24 to this..., of this nation that a different focus was 25 necessary in order to distinguish between forms of

2 racism that are intentional and conscious and yet 3 justified.

4 That is why I'm here to speak to you
5 today. To talk to you about the power engraved in 6 the absence of policy that deny us the recognition 7 that is earned and what it is and feels like to be 8 the other. As people of color are experiences are 9 many. Some of us are native to these lands now 10 called United States. Some of us are residents here 11 due to our ancestors kidnapping and enslavement or 12 because our family left our home countries to escape 13 violent economic policies enacted by the United 14 States and other nations. We have not all 15 experienced the same levels of abuse, poverty or 16 imprisonment, however, we are all survivors of 17 colonization, a system that continues under global 18 capitals and more foreign occupation and abuses at 19 home, such as racial profiling, the prison system and 20 severe budget cuts. On January 8, 2008, while 21 driving, I heard an apology over the radio from the 22 State of New Jersey for the wrongdoings inflicted by 23 slavery and its aftereffects on the United States.
24 This was the first Northern State to apologize nearly 25 160 years after it abolished slavery. On January

2 9th, there was news of a disability payment
3 approximately $100,000 to a WWII veteran who had been 4 traumatized by the war. As a Fordham University
5 professor, I used both items to open a class
6 discussion, was there a way to connect them? One
7 ship he served on the USS Savannah was attacked
8 September 11, 1943, and 200 men were killed.
9 McDonald the name of the sailor trembled visibly as 10 he recalled trying to help badly injured shipmates 11 and waiting in life boats for help to come. I was 12 scared to death, he said. Planes were flying 13 overhead like thunder and lightning. He has suffered
14 since, post-traumatic stress disorder. The VA 15 officially diagnosed with non-service related 16 schizophrenia and they awarded him $100,000. In San 17 Juan [SPEAKING SPANISH] the song was written in 1942
18 for Estrada's brother who had been deployed to Panama
19 during WWII. To me that song is my national anthem.
20 My mother was aware before the creation of Puerto 21 Rico the Commonwealth 1950-1952, has this nation's 22 focus on the accumulation of wealth created a country
23 that demanded patriotism, exalted capitalism, but too
24 often could not accommodate morality. She believed 25 in God more than the United States Government and in

2 spite of the negativity towards Latinos my parents 3 quickly learned to navigate New York, contrary to the 4 trend. Contrary to the trend, it was my parent's 5 decision to live among the community that looked and 6 spoke like them. As children and young adults we 7 were never told to dance around a raindrop to avoid 8 discrimination. If we did not succeed it was our 9 fault. Whether this was a form of denial or a 10 strategy, we were not allowed to feel victimized.
11 Ironically, my desire to be different from Latino
12 stereotypes, translated to viewing support of white
13 television family programming at the expense as well 14 as all other communities of color. In 1951, Brown v.
15 the Board of Ed., my parents pulled me out of first 16 grade in public school because I arrived late and I 17 would be asked to leave the building. Unable to 18 catch up to my parents' departing car, I would walk 19 around Harlem for a day. In parochial schools I 20 learned that God loved me. I had a lot to be 21 thankful for and I shouldn't expect more. White kids 22 were privy to the expectation that they would make 23 great doctors or lawyers someday. A passion for 24 preserving our culture was constant in our home.

played continuously on our record player. No doubt the most loving moments I experienced were those sitting next to her, my mother. Excuse me.

[Pause]

PROFESSOR QUIROS: She collected 78 rpm records, played the piano, never smoked or consumed alcohol and worked tirelessly to disguise the reality of our stress filled, social and economic condition. Our survival and earned recognition critical for our children, rests on our passing down our Puerto Ricanism to our children. If one of us is not free, none of us are. Like my mother did for me, this nation must recognize us so that our children can be kept Puerto Ricans. Instead of being placed in special education classes and prison disproportionately to other communities. You see it is not just a medal of honor we fight for, we must fight for the democracy this nation was supposed to adopt. This country must be better than the good idea. It's only up to us, what you do not do falls at the burden on all our children. Your child's smile is depending on what the rest of you do or do not do. We want the Medal of Honor but we want it 24/7 in everything that Puerto Ricans do. Thank you.

2 CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: Thank you for your 3 testimony. We're going to here from Mr. Estrada and 4 then we are going to hear from Tommy Lopez, another
5 Korean War vet who served in the 65th Infantry
6 Regiment. Mr. Estrada, will you take the mike a 7 little closer to you and just state your name for the 8 record as you begin your testimony.

9 RUBEN ESTRADA: Thank you. My name is 10 Rubin Estrada and I am Deputy Director of the 65th 11 Infantry on the Task Force, and also co-chairman of 12 the 65th Infantry National Commemorative Stamp
13 Committee. May I begin by..., my testimony submitted 14 with regard to Resolution 79. Mr. Chairwoman, 15 correct? Mr. Chairman of the Committee, is he, who 16 is the chairman of the committee here?

17 [Background talk]

18 RUBEN ESTRADA: Mr. Ulrich. How are you?

19 CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: I'm the chairman and 20 she's the Speaker of our Council.

21 RUBEN ESTRADA: Melissa, my 22 congratulations for being honored the Grand Marshall 23 of the parade, I think it is, I was told and also we 24 come from similar circumstances. I am born and 25 raised in the barrio and I'm 60 years old and my

2 brothers and sisters were all trailblazers when it
3 was not West Side Story, it was East Side Story.
4 Notwithstanding, and let me begin by please accepting 5 this written testimony presented by my proxy, which 6 is myself.

7 On behalf of the veterans of the 65th
8 Infantry and on the task force we thank you for the 9 invitation to participate in this hearing. In regard
10 to number 79, Resolution 79, we concur and support 11 the principles and creation and presentation of a 12 tickertape parade to honor the veterans for the Iraq 13 and Afghani wars. We also will be glad to offer our 14 assistance in planning and protocols for such an 15 event if called upon to do so. Resolution 103, a 16 resolution which obviously has passed in both houses.
17 I will be present in Washington and sitting..., and 18 will be at the desk of the President for signature 19 which I think it will happen. It's awarded the 20 Congressional Medal of Honor, the 65th Infantry
21 Regiment, known to us as The Borinqueneers. The 65th 22 Honor Task Force has been in support of the award, 23 Congressional Gold Medal since 2002. We have 24 collaborated and assisted in early drafts of bills 25 with the Office of Congress and Pedro Pierluisi. In

2 regards to the proposed drafts presented here, let us 3 first commend the staff who were diligent in their 4 presentation. Please convey our compliments. Upon 5 close inspection we would suggest five modifications
6 on the resolution. Which would be to change the word 7 urging, to recommending to Congress. Also when we 8 talk about the Master Sergeant Negron. Who we had 9 the pleasure of having a enbodio [sic] recently. His 10 daughter, with the medal. We hosted her at the 11 Towers Community Museum, which is the Hall of Fame of 12 stickball. Charlie Diaz's operation. When we talk 13 about we'll received it, he already received it he 14 was decorated posthumously. Okay, so that change of 15 language there. Remove the paragraph, whereas other 16 military units. Remove the word segregation.
17 Replace the word imperative that Congress, to 18 responsibility of. The Congressional Medal of Honor 19 is the highest decoration that Congress can bestow on 20 any military organization, individual civilian for a 21 unique distinction based on their merit alone. And I 22 say that very special because, we're not begging for 23 an award, we're not soliciting for an award, we honor
24 our soldiers by we should get this award. The unique 25 distinction of the 65th Infantry Regiment beyond any

2 other past awardee, is they conducted what became 3 their last battalion size bayonet charge which was 4 referenced by the historian, in American history.
5 They share this roll distinction with only the 3rd
6 U.S. Infantry, the Old Guard escort to the President.
7 Which recently when we were in Washington and we took 8 the 65th Infantry members to Washington during the 9 time there was the close down or the lockdown of the 10 U.S. government. We got saluted by the 3rd Infantry 11 Regiment for The Borinqueneers. Against all rules of 12 the President or the Congress closing down the 13 memorials. Notwithstanding, additionally the 14 Congressional Gold Medal is not a contest to be 15 compared with past awardees as each organization was 16 confronted by their own unique sets of challenges and 17 manners in which they overcame. It is attributed to 18 each of them alone. Additionally, the soldiers of 19 the 65th Infantry Regiment of Puerto Rico that 20 engaged in the battles sited were not college 21 educated fighters, pilots, nor were they specially 22 trained elite, intelligence code takers or talkers, 23 more first generation descendants of a country that 24 war was with the U.S. Nor were they super soldiers 25 equipped with stuff like the Seal Team 6. They were

2 only an average age of 19 years old. Rifleman, 3 infantry men, mud grunts as the infantry are 4 affectionately called by their peers who faced 5 astounding merits with valor, fueled by pure guts, 6 armed with bayonets and fought their enemy hand to 7 hand. They just took it. Their deeds have elevated 8 them into a category of their own. They earned the 9 recommendation of the Congressional Medal of Honor 10 based on unique merit alone. There are none with 11 whom they can be compared today, except maybe the 12 Spartan 300 led by King Leonidis at the Battle of 13 Thermopylae. Is that correct? It's interested that 14 Tony put this in here. The Congressional Gold Medal
15 process is a dedicated stage at this moment. Last 16 Monday the Bill was introduced to the House and I
17 won't talk about this simply because it's already 18 done, the Senate and the House has passed that. Some 19 like to sell the unique regiment being segregated and 20 reasons to award them the Congressional Medal of 21 Honor. We contend the debate forum is a scholastic 22 one, but conducted as the university with a panel of 23 experts and veterans. Our opposition is based on 24 history and soldiers' code of honor. We humbly 25 request to be respected.

2 Fact one, when President Truman signed
3 the Desegregation Bill law back in 1948, segregation
4 in the military was a federal crime in 1950. Fact 5 two, the 65th Infantry Regiment was native to Puerto 6 Rico. By native they would be predominantly 7 comprised of soldiers native to their state of 8 origin. As much as the unit was from Texas would be 9 primarily Texans. If the unit came from Harlem, it 10 would be African Americans and so on. Fact three, 11 the killed in action roster for the 65th Infantry
12 lists the names and places of birth of Borinqueneers
13 who were not native to Puerto Rico, but none the less 14 full blooded brothers of the regiment. To deny them
15 their place in honor alongside their gallant fallen 16 will never be tolerated by the veterans ever.

17 Mr. Chairman and committee members let no
18 one make the mistake that we are begging for medals, 19 that we are begging for recognition that we are 20 begging for validation. Valor is not measured by 21 mediocrity. Courage is not validated by 22 proclamations or resolutions. These are things of 23 spirit, in the spirit and honor means to be what it 24 is. Right even if never receive credit for it nor 25 will be rewarded because of it. The prudent guidance

we can offer this committee when deliberating how best to represent respect and honor the soldiers of the 65th Infantry Regiment, is to convey their spirit of defiance in the face of enemies they fought in battle. The discrimination they fought in society and the worse enemy of all, the curse of the self-pity, they ever reject. Simply respect us and reserve pity for those enemies we are called upon to combat in defense of our countrymen. My team are open to your questions and comments.

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: Thank you for your testimony, we have, as I mentioned earlier, Tommy Lopez, a Korean war veteran and a member of the 65th Infantry Regiment and a part of the task force. We'd like him to come up and deliver his testimony. I know he's been waiting patiently and we are so grateful that he's here to offer his testimony in support of the bill. And we are also joined by Juan Varela from the Congressional Gold Medal Alliance. If he can take a seat, and the members who have previously spoken, if they can step off the dais, just to make some room for Mr. Varela and Mr. Lopez.

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: Mr. Lopez, could you put the microphone on or someone assist him and state your name and make your remarks. Thank you sir.

THOMAS LOPEZ: Hi my name is Thomas Lopez. I'm part of the 65th Infantry Regiment. I'm very proud to be part of it. Thank you Ms. Viverito and your council people here, because this is about time that we want to receive this achievement. Which is I think has been a long time, to receive the Congressional Medal of Honor. [SPEAKING SPANISH] That means I'm a hillbilly. I come from the country and I came here to the United States when I was a young fellow and when I was drafted, and I went to Korea I was surprised I had people talking in Spanish in those mountains. I say I asked the sergeant, what is there here. I thought I was in Manhattan or the Bronx. He said kid, this is the 65th Infantry, you don't have any idea how proud I felt because I didn't know I was going to be part of the 65th because I was drafted here. And God bless all our colleagues, God bless the people, God bless the Congress and the President of the United States and I hope I can still be part of serving our country like I'm doing, as a

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: Just pull the mike closer to you and...

[Background talk]

JUAN VARELA: Good afternoon, first of all. Thanks for having us. I'm the Southern New York and Regional Director for The Borinqueneers Congressional Gold Medal Alliance and as previously stated the House passed a bill last week. The sponsor of that bill was Congressman Pierluisi. The Senate voted on this yesterday, went forward and there was a tremendous team effort that went behind this. I find it extremely bizarre that these folks are speaking on behalf of this when they were opposed to it. We welcomed their support and their presence with all these uniforms and bells and whistles and all the time it took up here. But just for the record, these guys were obstacles, to get this thing done and it is getting done and is going to signature for the President and I'm a little bit disappointed that we have this occur as it has. But we'd like to thank you guys. If it has not been signed by the President as yet, a Resolution asking that be done would be wonderful, would be appreciated asking the Senate and the Congress to do the same would not be necessary at this point. And I don't really take up more time because it's actually been done.

SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: Well I think that this is a position that we're taking in terms of support. It's something that we have been supportive of over the years and I think that any added voice that will express to the President the sense of urgency, I think is something that is helpful, I think, at this time. So, I appreciate that you have your point of view and your position, but this is something that, I think is going to be helpful and it's a point of position that the City Council is taking about supporting our veterans and supporting the recognition that they deserve. It's also a way of us stating a point of view. So that's why we've taken this and it was actually on the calendar for a while before we found out last night, which was great news to hear. That the Senate had also voted on it and passed it. So I think that based on the fact that this was already something that we had calendared and we had moved forward on, we want to at least take it to its completion as a way of expressing our point of view.

JUAN VARELA: Absolutely. I'm very sorry. I wasn't..., I didn't make myself clear. I was not being dismissive of your effort. That was not the purpose. Of course this body sending the resolution forward is very significant, absolutely. My point was against the others that just spoke on behalf of it, that's all it was.

SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: Okay.

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: So I just want to embellish just a little bit on some of what the Speaker said. We have made it the prerogative of this committee. Even on issues and matters which we don't have jurisdiction or control over, such as bills that are in the State Legislature or pending in Congress to take a public stance on those measures, because they impact our constituents and so New York City is home to more than 200,000 veterans and they are effected by a host of federal, state and city

1 issues. But more so state and federal. But on the 2 matters which we don't have control over, we want the 3 state and our colleagues in the federal government to 4 know that it is still important to the city and to 5 the veterans that live in the city to pass those 6 measures to pass those bills, because it will provide 7 a tremendous benefit or relief to those people which 8 we are also elected to represent. So that is the 9 purpose sometimes of this committee. The focus of 10 this committee is on Resolutions on Legislative 11 matters in Albany or in Washington but it doesn't 12 mean that it's any less important and I appreciate 13 your support of the bill and I know that you and I
14 and all the people in this room are very much looking 15 forward to the President signing this bill and it 16 just so happens that the U.S. Senate passed it last 17 night but it was, as the Speaker mentioned calendared 18 and we'll follow through on every commitment that we 19 make to shed light on these issues and let the city 20 know that we're doing our part to support the 21 veterans in New York City.

22 JUAN VARELA: I'd like to add one more
23 thing if I could. In New York City we have a 24 tremendous problem with homeless veterans. And if perhaps in your capacity to influence change regarding that. It is disgraceful. I have seen a lady, and I'm not trivializing a male sleeping under a bridge versus a female sleeping under a bridge. But it's a problem. And it is what it is and that is not an overstatement, but it is a serious problem with drug addiction, PTSD and homelessness on the part of veterans. They're all over the streets in the Bronx. You'll find them...

SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: Very true.

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: On issues relating to housing, related to mental health, related to unemployment and all of the issues that the city does have control over, we are scheduling and have already had hearings, oversight hearings over those matters to see what we can do to help veterans. And I can tell you that this committee is extremely active and I have one of the..., I'm very lucky to have one of the few committees that I think all of colleagues agree with me on everything that we're producing. Because when it comes to helping the veterans on these things, on these issues, there really is no democrat or republican right way and a wrong way. And we've had a hearing already on job placement, with

2 unemployment. We had a hearing, what was the...,
3 suicide prevention. We passed a Resolution calling 4 on Congress to pass the Senator Walsh's bill out of 5 Montana. That was just passed. The previous stated 6 suicide rate among veterans is much higher than a 7 regular civilian population, so... We are really doing 8 our part, to do whatever we can to help veterans with 9 all of the issues that they have and the ones that we 10 have control over, we will make sure that we address 11 those.

12 JUAN VARELA: If you guys could increase 13 the funding for those programs, that would be 14 wonderful. It's basically what's mostly needed.

15 CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: That's what we're 16 fighting for. So thank you very much for your 17 support and your testimony. And thank you to over 18 veterans who made it today.

19 [Background talk]

20 CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: Okay. So we're

22 speakers who have signed up to testify in relation to

2 So Mr. McGowan, if you could turn the 3 mike on and speak when you're ready.

4 VINCENT MCGOWAN: Mr. Chairman thank you
5 for the opportunity to address the issue of a welcome
6 home parade. I think the timing of this conversation 7 is really astute with the rejuvenated fleet week and 8 the Memorial Weekend that we are participating in, in 9 New York City. So people are paying attention to it
10 and thank you again for giving us a chance to speak 11 to it.

12 My name is Vincent McGowan. I am the 13 President of the United War Veterans Council. The 14 United War Veterans Council works with the different 15 departments of New York City to create events all 16 over New York City that honor service. And our 17 particular signature event is the New York City 18 Veterans Day Parade which is broadcast nationally in 19 20 cities and in 10 markets from the east coast to 20 the west coast and north to south. By my testimony
21 today, is that our country's largest city, New York
22 City, where the 9/11 attacks occurred is the fitting 23 location to honor the expected returning U.S.
24 military veterans from their fields of operation on 25 the war on terror. Our great city became known for

2 its famous tickertape parades beginning 1880 honoring
3 the dedication of the Statute of Liberty.

4 Subsequently, there have been dozens of both planned 5 and impromptu parades honoring important events in 6 our country's history and significant individuals who 7 have impacted our culture. An example of the 8 impromptu parades would be the Vietnam Welcome Home 9 Parade in 1985 which I was one of the organizers of.

10 That's how I actually got into the business of 11 putting on events in New York City that honor 12 service. The Operation Enduring Freedom A, is one of 13 4 OEF engagements. Other theaters are in Africa and 14 in the Philippines. What we're talking about here is 15 the Welcome Home Parade for Operation Enduring 16 Freedom A, which is Afghanistan. I think we have to 17 be clear that when the President calls for the 18 reduction in hostilities that there will still be 19 combatants in the field and other theaters and we 20 don't want to be part of confusing the American 21 public about why we are coming home when we're still 22 out there. But we do have to start the process of 23 ratcheting down these wars and bringing our people 24 home. There's no choice in that, sequestration and 25 the budget, are going to do it for us. So it's about

2 how we're going to react to that and how we're going 3 to educate our citizens.

4 Operation OEF is scheduled to be 5 completed this year, 2014 and it signals the winding 6 down of our country's longest war. New York City has 7 over 250,000 veterans that your committee, and I 8 really appreciate all the good energy that's been 9 coming out of the short term of this committee so 10 far, but it's been very significant and very much 11 appreciated. We have five ports surrounding our 12 harbor and one of our nation's premier military 13 schools, West Pointe, just up river. Along with 14 Merchant Marine Academies, multiple air fields and 15 deactivated naval facilities, the city is an ideally 16 suited and justified as the site of the country's 17 most devastating terrorist attacks to host a Welcome 18 Home Parade in New York City to herald the end of 19 hostilities.

20 So what would we do? On November 11th,
21 the Veteran's Day Parade, this year is the 95th 22 consecutive Veteran's Day Parade in New York City.
23 This would be our target date under the plan that 24 we've been working with, with Senator Schumer for the 25 welcome home parade. The New York City Veteran's Day

2 Parade is a nationally televised event that currently 3 reaches into 20 markets nationwide, from San Diego to 4 Boston and from Miami to Seattle. The parade route
5 would be through the Canyon of Heroes on Lower 6 Broadway. The beginning and the end of the parade
7 would have to be worked out with the New York City
8 Office of Citywide Events, New York Police Department 9 and the Downtown Alliance. So we would find the 10 right route and figure out the logistics of where we 11 would put this still unknown number of people that we 12 would be handling.

13 On the copies that I've turned in, the 14 top line didn't come in the printing, but what it
15 says is that the United War Veterans Council is a 16 501(c)(19), which is separate than all your others.
17 And the not-for-profit corporation has been dealing 18 with this event and other events that honor service 19 since 1986 when we took over the responsibilities for 20 creating and producing our nation's salute to 21 veterans from the New York County American Legion.
22 UWVC, the United War Veterans Council is a self-23 funded operation that supports the events is produces 24 to individual and corporate financial donations and 25 through a recycling program that we operate in all

2 five boroughs in cooperation with the Department of 3 Sanitation and we have in the past submitted
4 testimony to the Department of Sanitation in Mr.
5 Williams', he chairs that committee, and we've 6 expressed our opinion on how the recycling is going 7 and how it might be improved by incorporating the 8 energy and the expertise of the operational talent
9 that we have in the veterans community.

10 UWVC is well known to our city agencies
11 and has a long record of being able to contribute all 12 of the activity..., or coordinate all the activity 13 between the various city agencies, the branches of 14 the military and with the United States Department of 15 Defense and the Pentagon. We've actually worked with 16 the White House in the past, in this administration's 17 first four years, bringing the Horse Soldier memorial
18 that's going into the 9/11 memorial into New York
19 City. Making it all happen and financially making it 20 stable so that it didn't cost the taxpayers any 21 money, but the community got the full benefit of the 22 honors and the citizens got the full opportunity to 23 see what the veterans community can do.

24 So why is this a good idea at this time?
25 We are winding down our country's longest engagement

2 in combat and our citizens are fatigued and in need 3 of the beginning of closure. We really feel from our 4 activity, particularly in the city, people are 5 supporting the veteran's community, but this has been 6 a long drawn out affair and our sense of it is that 7 people are ready to move on and find, you know..., 8 bring people home and get into a more normal set of 9 circumstances for their living. As a nation we are 10 in the process of reducing our fighting forces and it 11 is appropriate we realize these honorable men and 12 women with a sincere thank you from a grateful 13 nation. The plans for the November 11, 2014 are 14 already in place. Our permits are in place for our 15 parade this year. Our insurances are in place. Our 16 literature is already out. We already have over 240 17 units signed up to be in the parade this year. So we 18 have the makings of it. But it's very specific. Our 19 testimony is very specific to November 11th, on 20 Veterans Day.

21 The UWVC self-funds the events it
22 produces to honor service and would increase our 23 efforts to include the added responsibility of 24 funding this national event. I've done a quick back
25 of the envelope budget on this and counting on a

40,000 to 50,000 person event, we would probably with the transportation needed after a somewhere between $5 and $7 million to put this together and I've already spoken to some of our really patriotic senior members of New York finance and particularly the manufacturing fields. And I don't feel that it would be a problem raising this money if the city wants to do it. And the mayor has already indicated that he was in support of this.

And most importantly, I think and I'll conclude my testimony with this, is a quote from General George Washington who was inaugurated right down here in Lower Manhattan, very appropriate. And his quote was "The willingness with which our young people are likely to serve in any war no matter how justified, shall be directly proportional to how they perceive veterans of earlier wars were treated and appreciated by our nation". And I think that sums it up. Thank you very much for this opportunity to testify.

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: Thank you again for your testimony and I want to put a plug in on a somewhat related matter for my Veterans Job Fair which you know I'm hosting this Sunday in Queens, in my district. We have over 50 vendors signed up and committed, they are coming. What I have asked these companies, is if you're not hiring, please don't come. I only want companies that want to hire veterans. Any veteran, Vietnam era, if people from Korea are still able bodied and want to work, God love them, and God bless them, we'd love to have them but, all the way up to today, the returning service members that are coming back from Iraq and Afghanistan face a new set of issues related to mental health, housing, unemployment, so many. This is one way which we are able to do something about it and so we're having that job fair this Sunday. The Speaker is coming. The council is participating. The City Council, the central staff will be there as well as so many wonderful partners from the private and public sectors. So please get the word out. Any veteran who needs a job or wants a job, maybe they have a job and want a better job. Send them Sunday. It's free, it doesn't cost them a dime.

MR. LUTZ: Thank you again for your testimony. The gentleman next to you, if you could state your name for the record and...

[Background talk]

[Pause]

MR. LUTZ: Okay. Good afternoon everyone. My name is Ryan Lutz. I am from the New York City Small Business Development Center and I am here to testify on behalf of the tickertape parade for the veterans. And what I would like to say is that it's very fitting that because of the September 11th attacks that took place right here in New York City that we show some closure, not only to the city, but to our veterans and to our nation. For our veterans and their service that they gave to our country. And it would put that sense of closure in the minds of the American people because we have vets coming home suffering from the effects of war, PTSD, homelessness, joblessness, and we do have a Veteran's Day Parade but it's not celebrating this particular conflict in particular. Having this parade would definitely be a step in the right direction to show not only New Yorkers but other states that we do appreciate our veterans and that their service is recognized. That's all I wanted to say. Thank you

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: Thank you for your testimony. We appreciate the support of Small Business Services SVS and why don't we go to our

[Background talk]

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: Okay, we'll come back to him. Okay, why don't we start, Mr. Holland, do you want to introduce your members.

MARVIN HOLLAND: I'm Marvin Holland. I'm the political director and a veteran of the Navy as well and I have already submitted written testimony, so I'll have my brother introduce himself and speak.

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: It will be entered into the record. Thank you Mr. Holland.

LUIS OTERO: I am an army veteran. I name is Luis Otero from the Bronx. I served almost ten years in the military. I served from 1976 to 1979, got out, and served again from 1981 to 1985 and I'm just here in support of the pension buyback bill which I think I'm entitled to. If I choose to buy back those three years it would strongly help me and my family.

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: I want to thank you for your support. My grandfather recently passed away, was in the Navy and served right after the end of the Vietnam conflict. He was a city worker.

Worked for HRA for 28 or 29 years. Was also not able to buy back his time that he had served in the Navy for those three years. Similar to the period of time which you also served. It really is unfair. They travelled the world. They could have been in a combat situation. There was a lot of turmoil going on around the world at the time. The communism and the cold war were in full swing and those cold war veterans, right now, are ineligible to buy back their time. We're not giving them anything for free. That is the ironic thing about this legislation, is that people, they've earned it, but they're going to pay for it. They have to physically pay for that time like anyone else would be able to but that we don't discriminate those veterans for their service to our country. They enlisted, many of them voluntarily. They were not drafted, but you know, they wanted to serve their country and fight for their country. And were willing to go to war if necessary. And they should be allowed to buy back that time for their pensions. They're now serving our city and our state in the public sector and in public service, whether for the MTA, for other city agencies or state agencies. We ought to allow them the opportunity to buy back. But we're hearing is that the state is going to pass it. We're very hopeful. But we're going to stay on top of them. We are going to pass this resolution very soon. So that Albany know that the City of New York, the council, the speaker and the veterans whom we represent are on the record. We want it passed. It's going to help a lot of veterans. So we're going to fight for you and for the pensions and the benefits of all veterans who served in the armed forces. So thank you for your testimony.

Mr. Harrington.

KEVIN HARRINGTON: Thank you Mr. Chairman and Madam Speaker. I'm Kevin Harrington, I'm Vice President of the Transport Workers Union. One of the Vice Presidents of the Transport Workers Union and I am the Chairman of the Veterans Committee and one of the few non-veterans on the committee.

I'd like to explain what we're actually asking for. Back in 2000 the state legislature passed a bill where the service in the military in certain conflicts could be bought back and added to their pension time. That bill did not cover many conflicts. It did not cover people who served in

2 peace time. So people who served in Kosovo. We had 3 a member who was in the 82nd Airborne who got shot
4 at. He's not covered. People who are on the coal 5 that sit's out in our harbor are not covered. And 6 one of the glaring discriminations of this law is 7 this law as it currently sits is gender
8 discriminatory. Women were banned by law from combat 9 zones. So they could not get their campaign medals.
10 So they could not buy back their pension times. We 11 find that veterans start work later. And are older 12 than people in the same seniority because their time
13 spent in the service delayed their entry into the job
14 market. We find the bill discriminatory because it
15 says that if you served during the Vietnam conflict 16 and you served at home in America, you were not near 17 a war zone, you could get credit for buy back. But 18 if you were a peace time in America, you could not.
19 So we're saying that what we call this is the 20 veteran's equality bill. Soldiers, sailors and 21 airman who are serving in Afghanistan now are not 22 covered. When they come home, when they march in 23 that parade they will face discrimination on our job
24 by not being able to buy that time back. Veterans
25 need to buy that time back, because many of them

1 suffer debilitating traumas and injuries that shorten
2 their work careers. So we saw in our union, that a
3 solution to this was to have what we call a Veteran's 4 Equality Bill. To treat all veterans regardless of 5 gender, the same. Regardless of what time they 6 served. So we went to and were speaking to William 7 Larkin who is a State Senator from Rockland County
8 and he agreed to write the bill and he did last year
9 and Assembly Woman Amy Paulin helped him. So, right
10 now we have a majority in the Senate. We have a 11 majority in the Senate Finance Committee. If it was 12 brought to vote now, if everybody who co-signed the 13 bill in the Senate voted yes, it would pass. We have 14 a majority in the Ways and Means Committee in the 15 Assembly. If it was brought to committee for a vote 16 today, everyone who co-signed it voted yes, it would 17 pass. This bill has universal bipartisan support in 18 both Houses. It is not a sectarian bill. It's a 19 bill to honor the vets. So we urge you to pass this 20 bill. We want you to know that the basis of this 21 bill is the federal definition of what a veteran is.
22 A veteran in the federal definition is not a veteran 23 by conflict. Not a veteran by gender. A veteran is 24 someone who served their country. So, if you support equality for women veterans and all veterans, you should support this bill. Military service is public and a veteran is a veteran. So we ask you to send a message to our Governor and State Legislator to pass this bill and end discrimination against veterans, both by time they served and by gender. Thank you.
25

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: Thank you for your testimony. We have another speaker who signed up. Giovanni Taveras, from the New York State Veteran Chamber of Commerce. Is he here? And you wanted to speak on the previous measure right? You were here to speak about the medal?

[Background talk]

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: Okay, alright. So, we'll call up the final panel, but I want to thank you for your testimony and for coming to City Hall today and thank the Speaker of course. Thank you for coming.

[Pause]

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: So we have Mr. Giovanni Taveras. Marvin has opted not to speak. He had one of his members speak in lieu of himself. We have Kevin McCauley (phonetic) if he wishes to speak. Is he here? We have Andy Moreno, TWU from the Bronx.

7 we thank you for that testimony. When you're ready,

10 GIOVANNI TAVERAS: Good afternoon. My 11 name is Giovanni Taveras from the New York State 12 Veterans Chambers of Commerce. I'm also an 13 Ambassador for the Iraq/Afghanistan Veterans
14 Association for the RRR program - The Rapid Response 15 Referral Program which helps veterans with 16 homelessness, GI benefits, and so on so forth. I
17 just want to make a statement concerning the job
18 fairs. I've been to a variety of the veteran job
19 fairs. I know that you're holding one on Sunday.
20 I'm signing up to be there, but I wanted to make 21 reference to the Hilton hiring 10,000 veteran's 22 affair that they had a couple of weeks ago at the 23 Hilton. And 80% of those jobs were basically 24 bartending and custodian services. I didn't know if

Also, at the Recruit Our Military Job Fair yesterday for veterans. There were a variety of tables. Two hours into the event that were still empty. I made to make postings of that. I also sent a twitter feed to the first one that I saw which, was the FDNY. For them to have a table there and not have anyone show up and the entire place was packed with veterans. But they were not there. Just wanted to make that statement and I'll see you on Sunday.

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: And I want to assure you, if you know anything about my personality, that I have been tenacious to say the very least and very aggressive in recruiting vendors who want to hire veterans. And they run the gamut. We are very pleased that we have the participation on Sunday. A lot of wonderful employers who pay very good wages, with benefits, just to name a few, Madison Square Garden is coming. They..., most of those jobs are union jobs. Helmets to Hardhats is coming. So for the returning service men and women, who just left active duty within the past year, they can go directly into an apprentice program. And get a good paying union job as a plumber, as a carpenter, as a steamfitter. Making $50 to $60 an hour with

2 benefits. I mean, it's a game changer. It's a life
3 changer for them. We have, well I just handed some 4 of the other participants. We also have partners
5 from the financial sector. Banking industry, social 6 service industry, healthcare, Flushing Hospital. We 7 want to really team up people who have very unique 8 skills or levels of education that they've got from 9 their military careers and also from prior or after 10 their military careers and connect them with those 11 employers. Ferraro Brothers, Teamsters Union Shop.
12 We have GE Aviation. Lockheed Martin, major defense
13 contractor. If they don't hire veterans I don't know 14 who will. They are committed to coming. They'll be 15 there too. Home Depot's coming. The Intrepid Sea
16 and Air and Space Museum. They had a big gala last 17 night I couldn't make it. I met with the CEO last 18 week. I said please come. Hire a veteran. Whatever 19 vacancies you're posting online, consider hiring a 20 veteran for those jobs. Some of those jobs, they are 21 uniquely qualified for and they would be great for.
22 Local 3, Madison Square Garden. Let's see, Bancorp.
23 We have some not-for-profits locally in Queens and 24 outside that are hiring. Families for Autistic
25 Children. The New York Mets. We met with Will Pond

(phonetic) about a month ago. He's better at hiring veterans that he is hiring pitchers, that's for sure.

[Laughing]

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: But we told the Mets, you want to support the veterans? We're so grateful for everything that you do. Hire a veteran. Hire a veteran. It could be for a security job. It could be for a grounds keeping job. It could be for your PR specialist. It could be for an office job. It could be for third base coach. It could be for anybody. Hire a veteran. They're coming. They're participating on Sunday. Helmets to Hardhats we mentioned. Who else? Russo's on the Bay who gave us the room for free. His son was a veteran, is a veteran. He's going to hire veterans that day. This is not going to be a job fair where we give people the run around. I'd rather have fifty confirmed employers who want to hire veterans and who are going to hire veterans than have a hundred people who are there for the good PR. That's the purpose that we're having this job fair. We had a hearing, we talked about the unemployment rate. We're very grateful for the job fairs that have occurred in Manhattan, in Brooklyn and in other places. Queens has the largest

2 veteran's population out of all five boroughs. I'm 3 the Chairman of the Committee. I represent a 4 committee in Queens. Guess where the job fair is 5 taking place? In my district in Queens.

6 Now as far as the outreach. We send out
7 in my newsletter, 80,000 pieces of mail and the back
8 panel was the ad for the job fair. We took out an ad 9 in every single Queens paper, half page ad. The 10 Chronicle, the Forum, the Courier, the Times Ledger.
11 What other papers here? We have all the papers in 12 this week letting them know. We put it on Facebook.
13 We put it on Twitter. We mailed it to every VSO in 14 the city. We have done everything short of you know, 15 dragging these people out of their homes. We want 16 any veteran in New York City or from anywhere, to 17 come to this job fair, to try to get a job or get a 18 better job than the one they have not. That's the 19 purpose. And some people said it was inconvenient to 20 have it on a Sunday on Memorial Day weekend. I don't 21 think there was a better time to have it. Then to 22 have it on Memorial Day weekend. And I don't think 23 that anyone would object to the fact that if you 24 really want to pay tribute to those who made the 25 ultimate sacrifice in defense of our freedoms and our country. We should be helping their fellow comrades who made it back and who are struggling to support themselves and their families. So we're doing our part. That's my point. We advertised it. We paid a tremendous amount of money to advertise it. And we locked down fifty people who are really hiring. And I don't want anyone to leave on Sunday, saying that they were discouraged in any way.

By the way, why are we having at Russo's on the Bay? First of all it's a beautiful catering hall. I want veterans to walk into this building and feel like someone actually cared enough about them to have it in a really nice place. We weren't having it in a warehouse. We weren't having it in a school gymnasium. You know, where we schlep them in and schlep them out. We're putting them in a beautiful building. We know that they're going to come dressed for success. They're going to come prepared with their resumes. We want them to feel that day that if they applied for ten or twenty jobs, that they're going to get a phone call or maybe they were hired on the spot. That's the intent of this job fair. And I hope that this will become an annual event. That it will get bigger and bigger. And as long as I'm able to, I will continue to do it and hopefully we can help a lot of men and women who need it. So thank you for your feedback and we will see you there on Sunday. We are looking forward to it. Sir.

ANDY MORENO: My name is Andy Moreno. I am a vet. I served in the Army for 18 years. Most recently I am a bus driver for the MTA and I'm here on behalf of the union. I speaking about buying back the time from serving in the military. Also thanking you for all the help that you have supported for the veterans and the upcoming job fair. I am very aware of it. In regard to buying back the time, I think it is very important for all of us to understand, not just the people wants to buy the time for any particular reasons. Like for myself, it is very important. I only have worked in the MTA pretty much right now for six years. I got hurt overseas. I got medically discharged from the military. Right now I am trying to go back to work but because of my disabilities I haven't been able to. If I am allowed to buy the three years back from the MTA, I would have been able to actually retire. Complete my ten years and actually retire and receive a paycheck. Right now I am disabled and I'm not allowed pretty much to go back to work. It's just the disadvantages that we have while I was working in the private sector. I was in the reserve. I got called back.

[Pause]

Sorry.

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: You take your time.

[Pause]

ANDY MORENO: I was sent to the war two times while I was a bus driver. I got home back from the military. I was not allowed to get out. It's just hard right now. I'm trying to recover and get back to work. My family is suffering a lot. We are running. I'm so sorry. This is not just me trying to make it for myself, but my family has been suffering for a long time because I got hurt. If I'm going through this I know that there has to be other people that are going through the same thing in the city. So I just think it is very important for a lot of people to be able to buy the time back. There are so many ways that people could help. There's a lot of things that we have given to the city, and to the country and I'm proud of it but, unfortunately the situation that I fall in, I know there is a lot of people who are also going through the same thing. So that's all I want to say. Thanks for the help.

CHAIRPERSON ULRICH: I want to thank you for your testimony and thank you for your service to our country and to our city. And for your hard work. It does not go unrecognized and we are doing our part to do everything we can to help. That I can assure you. Thank you for your testimony.

Do we have any other speakers that have signed up? Okay. So we're going to wrap up this hearing of the Veteran's Committee. We will follow-up before the next stated and we will notify all of our friends in the veteran's community about any action that's taking place on any of the measures. I believe that the Resolution on recognizing the 65th Regiment is on the agenda for the next stated. Which is what day? The 29th of May. So on the 29th we are voting and I am going to do my part to push for the buyback resolution. I would like to see that on the agenda for the 29th too. Just because I want to make sure we do it before Albany does. Which is kind of ironic if you think about it, because it's very rare that Albany beats anybody in terms of passing anything. Anyway, that's my opinion. I can say

2 that. I ran for State Legislature once, so. I want
3 to thank everyone for coming down and testifying. I
4 want to encourage everyone to help spread the word 5 about the job fair on Sunday. I want to thank all of 6 our service members who served in the armed forces.
7 I want to remind all New Yorkers that freedom is not 8 free. That some people paid the price of freedom.
9 And that we pray for their souls, we pray for their 10 families, we support their families. We should be 11 there for them. And we should remember them, not 12 only on Memorial Day, but every day, but that for the 13 living, for the people who are still here living in 14 the greatest country that God has ever created on the 15 face of the earth. We owe it to our veterans to do 16 everything we can to help them and we're doing our 17 best. So thank you very much and the meeting is 18 adjourned.
