INVOCATION

The Invocation was delivered by the Rev. Michael Livingston, Interim Senior Minister, spiritual leader at the Riverside Church, located at 490 Riverside Drive, New York, NY 10027.

Let us pray.

Gracious, creating, loving God,
be among us in this moment and beyond.
The New York City Council begins
a new year as a new Council.
And dear elected friends
we are watching you with you,
hoping the best for you, praying for you,
that the one God of all by the many names we know her,
the many forms he takes, will be among you
and that you will listen to one another as if each one of you bears the image of God on your face,
as if God speaks through each one.
What an amazing opportunity and challenge awaits you
to represent the people of this great city,
alive with the languages and colors,
cultures and customs of the whole world.
We dare to believe and trust that in New York City
we can live together as one people,
love one and all as we choose,
enjoy the justice of God laid bare, made plain, protected,
and policies and practices that privilege
no borough or class, color, or religion among us,
but seeks to attend with justice and compassion
to the most vulnerable among us.
To ask of those most secure to give
as though their wellbeing depended upon the wellbeing of others, as surely it does.
God, come among us.
This Council led for the first time
by an amazing plurality of women of color,
surely a sign these days of Emanuel, God with us.
We'll know your work goes well
as more people move from the streets
into safe and secure housing,
as children learn in public schools
supported and equipped to nurture their God-given gifts,
as older New Yorkers are supported
to age with dignity in their homes and neighborhoods,
as workers are paid living wages
and share in the abundance our city owns,
as policing is administered with restraint
and regard for the humanity
inherent in every person in every encounter,
as public housing is rehabilitated into living spaces,
homes of dignity and grace,
as the carceral system becomes more humane,

restorative, safe for officers and inmates alike.
God of the universe, the city, the citizens,
hear our prayer, heal our city.
Bless this council, each member,
the work they do together for us all.
In your many names we pray,
Amen.

Council Member Abreu moved to spread the Invocation in full upon the record.

During the Communication from the Speaker segment of this meeting, the Speaker (Council Member Adams) acknowledged that 37,122 New Yorkers had lost their lives to COVID-19 as of January 19, 2022. Although noting that the Omicron variant surge had appeared to have reached its peak, the Speaker (Council Member Adams) urged everyone to continue to remain vigilant. She emphasized that the city offered free, easy, and equitable access to vaccines and testing across all neighborhoods.

The Speaker (Council Member Adams) acknowledged the January 9, 2022 high-rise fire in the Bronx that took the lives of 17 New Yorkers including the lives of eight children. She noted that five of the victims were members of the same family. On behalf of the Council, the Speaker (Council Member Adams) mourned the deaths of these individuals and read out the names of the deceased: Haji Dukuray, 49, his wife Haja, 37, and their three children Mustapha, 12, Mariam, 12, and Fatoumata, 5; Fatoumata Drammeh, 50, and her three children, Faoutmala, 21, Nyumaaisha, 19, and Muhammed, 12; Fatoumata Tunkara, 43, and his son Omar, 6; Hagi Jawara, 47, his wife Isatou Jabbie, 21, Sera Janneh, 27, Seydou Toure, 12, Haouwa Mahammadou, 5, and the youngest victim Ousmane Konteh, 2. The Speaker (Council Member Adams) spoke of the Council's commitment to protect tenants and prevent such tragedies from occurring -- she announced that a Council special taskforce had been established to focus on this issue.

The Speaker (Council Member Adams) acknowledged the death of Crystal Byron Nevis, 19. Ms. Nevis was working as a cashier at an East Harlem Burger King on January 9, 2022 when she was shot and killed during a robbery. She noted that Ms. Nevis was an extended family member of the Deputy Speaker (Council Member Ayala).

The Speaker (Council Member Adams) acknowledged the death of those New Yorkers who recently lost their lives during the course of their employment: deliveristas Salvador Navarette Flores and Taurino Rosendo Morales. Mr. Flores, 31, died after he crashed into an illegally parked car in Manhattan. Mr. Morales, 37, was killed when he was hit by a box truck in Manhattan.

The Speaker (Council Member Adams) acknowledged the death of Chinese immigrant Yao Pan Ma, 61, who was brutally attacked in Manhattan in April 2021 while he was collecting cans. Mr. Ma died of his injuries on December 31, 2021.

The Speaker (Council Member Adams) acknowledged the death of FDNY Lieutenant Joseph Maiello, 53, who died of natural causes on December 26, 2021 while at his firehouse in Staten Island.

On behalf of the Council, the Speaker (Council Member Adams) sent her condolences to Deputy Speaker (Council Member Ayala) on the recent death of her mother Adelita Crespo. She acknowledged that it was a difficult time for the Deputy Speaker (Council Member Ayala) and her family with the loss of Ms. Crespo and with the murder of her nephew's cousin Crystal Byron Nevis (mentioned above).

The Speaker (Council Member Adams) acknowledged the death of Michelle Alyssa Go who was pushed to her death as she waited for a train at a Times Square subway station. She spoke of how Ms. Go was known as a kind, sweet, generous soul who lived with a commitment and passion to help others through volunteer work. The Speaker (Council Member Adams) noted that the legacy of her death should move the city forward to address those gaps that led to such a tragedy. Ms. Go died on January 15, 2022 at the age of 40.

The Speaker (Council Member Adams) asked for a moment of silence for the deceased mentioned above as well as for all of the lives lost due to the pandemic.

At this point, a moment of silence was observed in the Chambers.

MESSAGES & PAPERS FROM THE MAYOR

M-9

Communication from the Mayor – Mayors veto and disapproval message of Introductory Number 2443-A of 2021, A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to increasing penalties related to using joint living work quarters for artists contrary to zoning.

January 14, 2022

Hon. Michael McSweeney
City Clerk and Clerk of the Council
141 Worth Street
New York, NY 10013

Dear Mr. McSweeney:

Pursuant to Section 37 of the New York City Charter, I hereby disapprove Introduction No. 2443-A, which would amend the administrative code of the city of New York to increase penalties for non-compliance with the Joint Living Work Quarters for Artists ("JLWQA") program.

Introduction No. 2443-A would establish a new requirement that owners of JLWQA record in the City Register, or with the Richmond County Clerk, a statement that the property is a JLWQA, and therefore subject to relevant provisions of the Zoning Resolution of the City of New York (the "Zoning Resolution"). The bill would also permit me to designate an office or agency to similarly record such information in the City Register. Finally, Introduction No. 2443-A would substantially increase civil penalties for zoning violations related to JLWQA to "not less than $15,000 for the first offense and $25,000 for each subsequent offense" with an additional potential penalty of "$1,000 for each month the violation is not corrected."

I fully support the SoHo/NoHo Neighborhood Plan approved by the City Council on December 15, 2021 (the "SoHo/NoHo Rezoning"), and my disapproval of Introduction No. 2443-A should not be construed otherwise. The SoHo/NoHo Rezoning is an important step towards ensuring equity and fairness in New York City, and simplifying decades of legal and regulatory complexity. The SoHo/NoHo Rezoning effectively rationalized an antiquated regime, and it provided protection to existing JLWQA housing while providing a mechanism for converting nonconforming units to residential housing through a significant payment to the SoHo/NoHo Arts Fund. By contrast, Introduction No. 2443-A creates additional paperwork and processes without a benefit to the artists and residents of the SoHo and NoHo neighborhoods.

Increasing civil penalties without increasing compliance is not good governance. In the first instance, City agencies should focus on improving enforcement, where necessary, to further the City's goals. This bill, however, focuses on the end of the process rather than the beginning. It will likely have a negative impact on many long-term residents of the affected neighborhoods and may force hundreds of residents from their homes. These increased civil penalties would neither increase housing for artists, nor would they further the purposes of the SoHo/NoHo Rezoning. My administration cannot support an approach that focuses on penalties over constructive process.

There are better ways to further the laudable goals of the JLWQA program and preserve artist housing. The JLWQA program already has a civil penalty structure in place and the recent SoHo/NoHo Rezoning strengthens that program. I will be instructing relevant agencies, in particular the Department of Buildings, the Department of City Planning, and the Department of Cultural Affairs, to evaluate and restructure the enforcement of this program to more effectively meet the goals of existing law. This will include evaluating and, where necessary, updating the criteria for certifying artists and adjusting the requirements for this program to better reflect the realities of artist housing. I will be instructing these agencies to develop longer-term solutions for the hundreds of residents who would have either been forced to relocate or see their savings diminished by this proposed legislation. Throughout this process, we will work in partnership with the City Council to further the goals of the SoHo/NoHo Rezoning, without first reverting to increased penalties.

Introduction No. 2443-A would also add an additional recording requirement for owners, and it would permit a City office or agency to record information related to JLWQA in the City Register. The bill does not provide a means for enforcing this requirement on owners, and in any event, the recording requirement is not the most effective means for determining the extent and scope of non-compliance. These proposed recording requirements are a prime example of the type of bureaucratic complexity that we must eliminate.

Because Introduction No. 2443-A increases bureaucratic complexity and does not effectively advance the goals of the SoHo/NoHo Rezoning, it is hereby disapproved.

Sincerely,

Eric Adams
Mayor
