Int. No. 790

By the Public Advocate (Mr. Williams) and Council Members Sanchez, Brewer and Restler

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the licensing of general contractors

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:Section 1. Section 28-105.5.1 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by local law number 126 for the year 2021, is amended to read as follows:

§ 28-105.5.1 Applicant for permit. The applicant for a permit shall be the [person who] designee of the approved general contractor business that performs the work or retains a subcontractor to perform the work [or who retains a subcontractor to do the work] or with respect to work performed by employees of a city agency, the designee of such agency.

Exception: [For permits issued for plumbing work, fire protection and suppression work, and oil-burning appliance work, the applicant for such permits shall be the licensed master plumber, licensed master fire suppression piping contractor, or licensed oil-burning equipment installer, respectively, who performs the work.] Permits for work required to be performed by licensees other than licensed general contractors.

§ 2. Section 28-401.3 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by local law number 126 for the year 2021, is amended by adding and setting forth in alphabetical order in such section, definitions of “DESIGNEE”, “GENERAL CONTRACTOR BUSINESS”, “GENERAL CONTRACTOR WORK”, “LICENSED GENERAL CONTRACTOR, LIMITED”, and “LICENSED GENERAL CONTRACTOR, UNLIMITED” to read as follows:

DESIGNEE. A limited or unlimited licensed general contractor who has sole authority and full responsibility for all general contractor work performed in conjunction with a general contractor business, or performed by employees of a city agency, and for the supervision of all employees of the business or city agency who perform such work.

GENERAL CONTRACTOR BUSINESS. A sole proprietorship, partnership or corporation authorized by the commissioner to conduct general contractor work as defined in this section under a designee who holds a limited general contractor license or an unlimited general contractor license. The term “general contractor business” shall not be construed to mean a city agency that performs general contractor work.

GENERAL CONTRACTOR WORK. Work requiring a permit pursuant to this code to construct, enlarge, alter, repair, demolish, or remove any building or structure in the city of New York, or change the use or occupancy of such building or structure or an open lot or portion thereof. The term “general contractor work” shall not be construed to mean work performed by an individual, corporation, partnership, or other business entity that holds another license pursuant to this code or subchapter 22 of chapter 2 of title 20 of the administrative code, and that is exclusively within the scope of such license.

LICENSED GENERAL CONTRACTOR, LIMITED. An individual who has satisfied the qualification requirements of this chapter for the limited general contractor license, has been issued such a license, and is authorized under the provisions of this chapter to perform general contractor work on a building that is not a major building as that term is defined in section 202 of the New York city building code and on a major building that is not subject to the scope of section 3310 of the New York city building code.

LICENSED GENERAL CONTRACTOR, UNLIMITED. An individual who has satisfied the qualification requirements of this chapter for the unlimited general contractor license, has been issued such a license, and is authorized under the provisions of this chapter to perform general contractor work.

§ 3. The term “GENERAL CONTRACTOR” in section 28-401.3 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by local law number 126 for the year 2021, is amended and set forth in alphabetical order in such section, to read as follows:

LICENSED GENERAL CONTRACTOR. [An individual, corporation, partnership or other business entity that applies for a permit pursuant to this code to construct a new residential structure containing no more than three dwelling units.] An individual who has satisfied the qualification requirements of this chapter for a limited general contractor license or an unlimited general contractor license, has been issued such a license, and is authorized under the provisions of this chapter to perform general contractor work in the city of New York. The term “licensed general contractor” shall not be construed to [include] mean an individual, corporation, partnership or other business entity that holds [a] another license pursuant to this code or subchapter [twenty-two] 22 of chapter [two] 2 of title [twenty] 20 of the administrative code, and [enters into a contract to perform] performs work exclusively within the scope of such license, [nor shall it include an individual who constructs a residential structure containing no more than three dwelling units for his or her own occupancy,] or any subcontractors working for the licensed general contractor.

8. Any other information that the commissioner may require.]

[§28-418.3.1] §28-418.4 Financial solvency. Financial solvency is a requirement for all authorized general contractor businesses. For the purposes of this article, financial solvency shall mean that the [applicant's] operating capital of a general contractor business approved by the department pursuant to this article shall exceed $25,000, or a higher amount as set forth in department rules, beginning 90 days prior to the license application.

[§28-418.4] §28-418.5 Warranties. A warranty shall be provided to the buyer of a new one-, two- or three-family structure that accords with the provisions of article 36-B of the New York state general business law, including the following:

1. One (1) year from and after the warranty date the home will be free from defects due to a failure to have been constructed in a skillful manner;
2. Two (2) years from and after the warranty date the plumbing, electrical, heating, cooling and ventilation systems of the home will be free from defects due to a failure by the builder to have installed such systems in a skillful manner; and
3. Six (6) years from and after the warranty date the home will be free from material defects, including, but not limited to, any construction that is not in compliance with the building code or the zoning resolution of the city of New York.

[§ 28-418.4.1] § 28-418.5.1 Modification prohibited. Except as otherwise provided in section 777-b of article [360-B] 36-B of the New York state general business law, no such warranty shall be modified or excluded in any way.

[§ 28-418.5] § 28-418.6 Duties and responsibilities. Licensed general contractors shall be responsible for all work performed in accordance with permits issued under their license, and any associated work, including work performed by their subcontractors. The licensed general contractor shall comply with sections [28-418.5.1] 28-418.6.1 through [28-418.5.3] 28-418.6.3.

[§ 28-418.5.1] § 28-418.6.1 Subcontractor information. The licensed general contractor shall be responsible for [providing information to the department about his or her subcontractors and the particular work they perform on jobs for which the department has issued permits to the general contractor. Such information shall be provided in a format and at the times specified in the rules of the department.] maintaining records that include current information about all permits obtained and all contractors or subcontractors performing work on any project permitted or requiring a permit under this code, including the contractor's or subcontractor's name and address, and, if applicable, their license number. The licensed general contractor shall, in a form and manner determined by the department, provide such records to the department at the start of the project and within 24 hours of a request by the commissioner.

[§ 28-418.5.2] § 28-418.6.2 Technical reports. The licensed general contractor shall maintain at the work site such technical reports as specified in the rules of the department and shall make such reports available to department personnel on request.

[§ 28-418.5.3 Notice of pending disciplinary actions. The general contractor shall notify all of its suppliers of any pending suspension or revocation actions against such general contractor and shall provide an affidavit to the department stating that this notification has been made.]

§ 28-418.6.3 Submission of plan to reduce rate of hazardous violations. The commissioner may require any licensed general contractor and general contractor business to provide the department with a plan to improve its rate of hazardous violations or to submit a formal site safety plan meeting the requirements of this code. The plan must be approved by the department and may include such measures as employment of a safety compliance officer, at the licensee's expense, to ensure compliance with the approved plan.

§ 28-418.7 Qualifications. Applicants for a general contractor license shall meet the qualifications of sections 28-418.7.1 or 28-418.7.2.

§ 28-418.7.1 Licensed general contractor, limited. An applicant for a limited general contractor license shall:

1. Possess a valid Site Safety Training (SST) Supervisor Card; and
2. Meet one of the following requirements:
 - 2.1. Has received, at minimum, a baccalaureate degree from an accredited four-year college or university in the field of engineering, architecture, construction management, building construction and demolition or a degree deemed substantially similar by the department and has at least one (1) year of practical field experience in general construction on buildings; or
 - 2.2. Has a total of at least five (5) years of practical experience working in a construction industry related field, at least three (3) of which shall have been in general construction on buildings, and the balance shall have been in or relating to engineering, architecture, construction and demolition supervision, or construction and demolition project management, or functions deemed substantially similar by the department; or
 - 2.3. Is a New York State licensed Professional Engineer (PE) or Registered Architect (RA) in good standing with the state of New York and with the city of New York for a minimum of three (3) years immediately prior to application.

§ 28-418.7.2 Licensed general contractor, unlimited. An applicant for an unlimited general contractor license shall:

1. Possess a valid Site Safety Training (SST) Supervisor Card;
2. Within one (1) year prior to application, have satisfactorily completed a course that is at least forty (40) hours in length and approved by the department in construction and demolition site safety; and
3. Meet one of the following requirements:
 - 3.1. Satisfy the qualification requirements for one of the bases in section 28-418.7.1 and have at least three (3) additional years of experience, within the five (5) years prior to application, performing work on a major building as defined in section 202 that is within the scope of work regulated by section 3310 of the New York city building code; or
 - 3.2 Is a New York city limited general contractor licensee in good standing for a minimum of three (3) years immediately prior to application and has at least three (3) years of practical experience, within the five (5) years prior to application, working as a limited general contractor and permit holder on projects subject to the requirements of Section 3301.13 of the New York city building code.

§ 28-418.8 General contractor business. It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in the business of performing general contractor work unless such business is approved by the department in accordance with this section. The application for approval of a general contractor business under a licensed general contractor shall be filed with the commissioner, in such form as the commissioner may direct.

1. The application shall indicate the name and license number of the licensed general contractor who shall serve as the designee of such business, and, if the business is a partnership or corporation, the names of all other licensed general contractors associated with such business. Upon approval of such application the commissioner shall issue an authorization number to the business. The authorization number shall be included on all applications for permits and any other documents required to be filed with the department.
2. In the case of a partnership or corporation, only one licensed general contractor shall be the designee of such partnership or corporation.
3. A general contractor business, whether in the form of a corporation, a partnership or a sole proprietorship, may continue to engage in general contractor work only so long as the designee of such business identified on the application for approval of the general contractor business remains an officer, member, or shareholder owning 10 percent or more of company stock of such corporation, a partner of such partnership or the proprietor of such sole proprietorship, unless the department is notified of the change in the designee as provided in item 5 of this section.
4. A general contractor business shall not change its name or business structure without prior notice to the department.
5. A general contractor business shall not change its designee without prior notice to the department. A co-designee or other licensed general contractor may be designated to fulfill the designee's duties and responsibilities on behalf of such general contractor business or city agency, provided that such co-designee or licensed general contractor meets the requirements of item 3 of this section.
6. A general contractor business shall comply with the financial solvency requirements in section 28-418.4.

§ 28-418.9 Designee for general contractor business or city agency. Each general contractor business or city agency shall authorize one responsible designee who shall apply for permits on behalf of the business or city agency, be licensed pursuant to this article and shall comply with the following:

1. The designee shall have full responsibility over the general contractor work.
2. The designee shall be responsible for exercising supervision of the licensed general contractor business' operations, including any subcontractors retained to carry out permitted work, to ensure compliance with this chapter and the rules of the department.
3. Notify the department if they leave the general contractor business or city agency, or are otherwise no longer the designee. After notification to and acknowledgement by the department, the designated general contractor may relinquish such authority and the general contractor business or city agency may name a new designee in accordance with item 5 of section 28-418.8.

§ 28-418.9.1 Restriction. A designee for a city agency may not be a designee for any general contractor business at the same time.

§28-418.9.2 Co-designees. A general contractor business or city agency whose designee holds an unlimited general contractor license may have up to five (5) co-designees who also hold an unlimited general contractor license and may supervise the permitted work.

§ 28-418.10 Status of general contractor registrations and safety registration numbers as of the effective date of this section. General contractor registrations and safety registration numbers that are active as of the effective date of this section shall be automatically converted to a limited general contractor license with the full authority to file permits for the scope of work allowed by such license until the expiration of such registration term. To be converted to an unlimited general contractor license, proof of the experience required by section 28-418.7.2 shall be provided in a form and manner determined by the department. Individuals seeking to renew such limited and unlimited general contractor license shall comply with the qualifications set out in section 28-418.7.

§ 28-418.11 Designees as of the effective date of this section. Individuals who hold general contractor registrations as of the effective date of this section will be automatically named the designee for their associated general contractor business or city agency. Businesses with individuals who hold associated safety registration numbers but do not also hold general contractor registrations, must submit the name of their designee to the department in such form and manner as determined by the commissioner. Designees may be changed for a general contractor business or city agency by a written notice to the department.

§ 28-418.12 Unregistered entities having or applying for permits to perform general contractor work as of the effective date of this section. Individuals, corporations, partnerships or other business entities not required to be registered in accordance with the law in effect prior to the effective date of this section performing general contractor work pursuant to permits issued prior to such effective date must obtain a general contractor license to continue work under such permit after such effective date, unless otherwise exempted. Permits will not be issued with respect to applications for permits for general contractor work filed prior to the effective date of this section, but not yet approved by the department by the effective date of this section, unless the applicant obtains a general contractor license prior to issuance of such permit.

§ 8. Article 420 of chapter 4 of title 28 of the administrative code of the city of New York is REPEALED.

§ 9. This local law takes effect 3 years after it becomes law, except that the commissioner of buildings shall take such measures as are necessary for the implementation of this local law, including the promulgation of rules, prior to such effective date.
