Cooperative corporation. The term “cooperative corporation” means any corporation that grants persons the right to reside in a cooperative apartment, that right existing by such person’s ownership of certificates of stock, proprietary lease, or other evidence of ownership of an interest in such entity.

Prospective purchaser. The term “prospective purchaser” means a person who has made an offer to purchase the proprietary lease and the ownership interest in a cooperative corporation from a prospective seller.

§ 26-3502 Financial disclosure by a cooperative corporation. a. After an offer to purchase a proprietary lease and an ownership interest in a cooperative corporation from a prospective seller by a prospective purchaser has been accepted by the prospective seller, the cooperative corporation must provide disclosure of its finances to the prospective purchaser within 14 days of a request for such information by the prospective purchaser or an agent of the prospective purchaser. Such financial disclosure must include, at a minimum:

1. The assets and liabilities of the cooperative corporation, including current cash flow, debt and operating expenses;
2. Any capital improvements underway or planned, and the cost of such improvements;
3. The amount in the reserve fund, if any; and
4. The most recent budget, or a statement that the cooperative corporation does not prepare a budget.

b. Any cooperative corporation that fails to provide financial disclosure to a prospective purchaser in accordance with subdivision a of this section shall be liable for a civil penalty in the amount of $500. The civil penalty established by this section may be recovered in a proceeding before the office of administrative trials and hearings.

§ 2. This local law takes effect 60 days after it becomes law.
