By Council Members Dinowitz, Louis, Riley, Hanif, Farías, Sanchez, Gutiérrez and Brannan

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to a teacher retention reporting requirement and task force

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Title 21-A of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new chapter 29 to read as follows:

CHAPTER 29

TEACHER RETENTION

- § 21-1000 Definitions
- § 21-1001 Reporting
- § 21-1002 Task force

§ 21-1000. Definitions. For the purposes of this chapter, the following terms have the following meanings:

Career development. The term “career development” means professional development opportunities for teachers provided by the department, including but not limited to the teacher career pathways programs and the graduate scholarship program.

Non-teaching staff member. The term “non-teaching staff member” means a school-based department employee who does not have a teacher title.

School survey. The term “school survey” means the survey administered annually by the department to teachers, students and parents to collect information about each school’s ability to support student success.

Teacher. The term “teacher” means a school-based department employee who has a teacher title.

Type of classroom. The term “type of classroom” means the setting in which a teacher is placed, including but not limited to general education, special education, integrated co-teaching classrooms and any other types of classrooms, which may include additional services or supplementary aids.

Unique employee identification. The term “unique employee identification” means a sequentially assigned indicator that represents an individual department employee.

§ 21-1001. Reporting. a. Annual report. No later than November 30 of the year following the effective date of this chapter and annually thereafter, the department shall submit to the speaker of the council information for the prior school year pursuant to subdivisions c, d and e of this section. The first report provided pursuant to this section shall include data from the 1999-2000 school year through the most recent completed school year, to the extent practicable.

b. School level reports. Beginning November 30 of the year following the effective date of this section and annually thereafter, the department shall post on each school’s website:

1. The information for teachers at such school required by paragraphs 1 through 5 of subdivision c of this section; and

2. Such school’s average numbers for paragraphs 4 and 5 of subdivision c of this section.

c. Teacher tenure data. Each row in this dataset shall be an individual teacher and, to the extent
