Res. No. 12

Resolution calling upon the New York State legislature to pass and the Governor to sign legislation expunging all misdemeanor convictions for low-level marijuana related offenses that occurred in New York City from 2000 through 2014.

By Council Members Barron, Brannan, Miller, Cornegy, Levin, Reynoso and Lander

Whereas, In 1994, the New York Police Department ("NYPD") introduced "Broken Windows" policing

in New York City; and

Whereas, As part of "Broken Windows" policing, it is alleged that NYPD officers prompted New Yorkers during stop-and-frisk encounters to empty their pockets; and

Whereas, Often these stops lead to a misdemeanor marijuana possession charge when marijuana comes into public view; and

File #: Res 0012-2018, Version: *

Whereas, In November 2014, Mayor de Blasio and Police Commissioner Bratton announced a new policy whereby individuals found in public possession of less than 25 grams of marijuana that is not burning will be issued a court summons instead of being arrested on a misdemeanor charge; and Whereas, Mayor de Blasio characterized the policy change by saying it would direct police resources "towards more serious crime" and not waste "officer time processing unnecessary arrests;" and

Whereas, Black and Latino individuals make up about 54% of New York City's population; and Whereas, 86% of New Yorkers who were arrested for marijuana possession in the first eight months of 2014 were black or Latino; and

Whereas, Research shows that communities of color disproportionately battle the harsh impacts of lowlevel marijuana charges for the rest of their lives; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York State legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign legislation expunging all misdemeanor convictions for low-level marijuana related offenses that occurred in New York City from 2000 through 2014.
