Int. No. 2296-A

By Council Members Menchaca, Rivera, Louis, Ayala, Lander, Van Bramer, Rosenthal, Reynoso, Brannan, Barron, Yeger, Kallos and the Public Advocate (Mr. Williams)

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to establishing standards for payment of food delivery workers

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Subchapter 2 of chapter 15 of title 20 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as added by a local law for the year 2021 amending the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring that third-party food delivery services permit delivery workers to set limitations on distance and route for deliveries, as proposed in introduction number 2289-A for the year 2021, is amended by adding a new section 20-1523 to read as follows:

§ 20-1523 Payments to workers. a. A third-party food delivery service or third-party courier service shall not charge or impose any fee on a food delivery worker for the use of any form of payment selected by such service to pay such worker for work performed.

b. A third-party food delivery service or third-party courier service shall pay a food delivery worker for work performed no less frequently than once a week.

§ 2. This local law takes effect 180 days after it becomes law, provided that the department of consumer and worker protection may take such measures as are necessary for the implementation of this local law, including the promulgation of rules, before such date.
