A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to providing information on the reduced fare programs to persons issued a summons for fare evasion

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Chapter 1 of title 14 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 14-172.1 to read as follows:

§ 14-172.1 Information on reduced fare program.

a. Definitions. As used in this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

Fare evasion. The term “fare evasion” means a violation of subdivision 3 of section 165.15 of the penal law occurring in a subway station, bus or other facility or conveyance operated by the transit authority, or a violation of section 1050.4 of title 21 of the New York codes, rules and regulations.

Reduced fare program. The term “reduced fare program” means the program established pursuant to chapter 12 of title 68 of the rules of the city of New York to provide a discount on designated city transit options, including subway or bus service.

Transit authority. The term “transit authority” means the New York city transit authority.

b. The department shall, on a monthly basis, transmit to the human resources administration/department of social services the name and address of any natural person issued a summons for fare evasion during the preceding quarter.

c. The human resources administration/department of social services shall develop informational materials on the reduced fare program, and shall distribute such materials to any natural person whose name and address is transmitted to the human resources administration/department of social services pursuant to subdivision b provided that such person has not previously been provided with such materials pursuant to this section. Such materials shall include, but need not be limited to:

1. The eligibility criteria for the reduced fare program;

2. The amount of any discount provided by such program; and

3. The application procedures for such program.

§ 2. This local law takes effect 120 days after it becomes law.
