A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring a single reporting bill on department of education spending allocations, including fair student funding, for schools citywide

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Title 21-A of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new chapter 25 to read as follows:

CHAPTER 25

REPORTING ON SPENDING ALLOCATIONS

a. Definitions. For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

Fair student funding formula. The term “fair student funding formula” means the formula used to determine each school’s funding allocation under the department’s fair student funding policy or any successor policy.

School. The term "school" means a school of the city school district of the city of New York.

b. Beginning on September 30, 2019, and annually thereafter, the department shall submit to the speaker of the council and post conspicuously on the department’s website a single report covering the prior school year that shall include:

1. All school-level budget allocations for each school; and

2. The calculated fair student funding formula for each school, and the percentage of such calculated fair student funding formula result that each school is actually allocated.

c. The information contained in the report required by this section shall be in a searchable, sortable, and machine-readable format.

§ 2. This local law takes effect 60 days after it becomes law.
