Int. No. 1075

By Council Members Fariás and Williams

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring borough presidents to provide trainings on legislative processes and rules of parliamentary procedure to local entities

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Chapter 5 of title 3 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 3-511 to read as follows:

§ 3-511 Provision of legislative process and parliamentary procedure training. a. Definitions. As used in this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

Community district education council. The term “community district education council” means a community district education council established pursuant to section 2590-c of the education law.

Precinct community council. The term “precinct community council” means a group of individuals organized through the police department that works on the enhancement of relations between the police and the community in each police precinct.

b. Each borough president, in coordination with the civic engagement commission, shall provide on an annual basis training on the legislative processes of the council and the state legislature and on rules of parliamentary procedure, including but not limited to the rules set forth in the most recent edition of Robert’s Rules of Order, to members and district managers of community boards within their respective borough.

c. Each borough president, in coordination with the civic engagement commission, shall make such trainings available to members of precinct community councils and members of community district education councils within their respective borough and to the boards of directors of district management associations for business improvement districts within their respective borough.

§ 2. This local law takes effect immediately.
